LOVE, AND ALL THAT JAZZ!

If you like cool jazz harmonies and songs about love presented in relaxed cabaret style surroundings, this concert is definitely for you! 'Love and All That Jazz!' is Counterpoint Vocal Ensemble's next public performance, to be held on Saturday 13th June at 7pm.

The program features old standards like Skylark, Dancing Cheek to Cheek, Embraceable You, Georgia On My Mind, September in the Rain, Ain't Misbehavin' and Begin the Beguine, all expertly crafted for small choir by some of America's foremost vocal jazz arrangers. While most of the program is sung a cappella, local Conservatorium-trained pianist Jennifer Wakeling will be accompanying some pieces.

Counterpoint Vocal Ensemble is an auditioned mixed-voice group of about sixteen, ably led by well-known Redcliffe conductor and musical director Lesley Brown.

The group specialises in high quality a cappella (unaccompanied) vocal music. Since its establishment nearly 28 years ago, the ensemble has developed an extensive and varied repertoire ranging from Renaissance sacred classics to contemporary vocal jazz numbers, presenting many public concerts and recitals in and around Brisbane.

If you'd like to sit with your friends, you can arrange for groups of up to seven people per table, provided you let the organisers know well before the concert date.

From time to time there are vacancies for new members, and Lesley is always keen to hear from potential singers with good blending voices, the ability to sing in tune and hold a vocal line without instrumental accompaniment, and a genuine love of a cappella choral music. If you're interested in joining the group, please give Lesley a call on 3284 3688 or e-mail browniw5@optusnet.com.au to arrange an audition.

I HEAR THAT TRAIN A-COMIN'

Emma Harley

Some of the country's best blues musos are set to wail on the rails when locomotive musical adventure Steam Train Blues rolls out of Roma Street Station on June 20.

The brainchild of Chris Fisher and Abby Smith-Fisher from Sandgate's Cardigan Bar, Steam Train Blues will see songsmiths Dave Martyn, Jimi Beavis and Jimmy Watts, among others, kick out the jams aboard one of Queensland Rail's beautifully restored steam trains as it chugs its way to the Glass House Mountains.

Along the journey passengers can enjoy a drink or two and take in the scenery and the tunes before arriving at the Glass House Mountains, where Mojo Webb Band will belt out a moody blues set while guests tuck in to an Aussie-style barbecue.

The couple say the inspiration for the event came from their desire to provide more interesting and edgy events for those keen to think (and drink) outside the box.

Chris says the steady rhythm of a steam train coming down the line and the soulful, earthy sound of the blues are a perfect match.

"They each host an earthy romance that captures our imagination and often bring us back to a time when things were simpler," he says.

"Steam trains have to be the most iconic form of travel of the past century (and) blues music speaks historically of the problems and issues faced by the every day person over the past century.

"Steam trains and blues are well matched."

For further information, to book tickets or express your interest in more journeys, visit steamtrainblues.com.au.

Saturday 20th June

Passengers need to be at Roma St Station by 2.15pm for a 2.43pm departure.

The train will arrive at the Glass House Mountains at 4.05pm and depart at 7.45pm, returning to Roma St Station by 9.04pm.

DON'T SHOOT ME, I'M STILL ONLY THE PIANO PLAYER!

Pianist/comedian David Scheel has made a speciality out of making fun of music, both classical and not-so-classical. So much so that he is now regarded as arguably the finest musical humorist in the world, in particular thanks to his international hit show, 'Don't Shoot Me, I'm Only the Piano Player'. Now, by public demand, David is back with the long awaited sequel, 'Don't Shoot Me, I'm STILL only the Piano Player!' on Sunday 21st June at the Redcliffe Cultural Centre at 2pm.

This is another wonderful blend of piano and comedy, full of lots of new material, including Theme and Variations on a popular mobile phone ring tone, a cutting edge, thought provoking (and very funny) look at how computers rule our lives, entitled When Harry the Mac met Sally the PC, plus perennial favourites such as David's classic "translation" of the lyrics of Waltzing Matilda, all delivered in an amazing range of comic voices and accents. Plus, of course, beautiful piano music revealing David's skills as a serious concert pianist. And it's not just the classics! In this new show, David also offers up brilliant arrangements of Broadway hits, and 2015 being the centenary of the Gallipoli landing, his wonderful medley of the most popular tunes from the two world wars has already attracted much critical acclaim, even though it only recently premiered.

There will also be hilarious – and true – stories of music's greatest eccentrics, from Bach and Beethoven, through to Lady Gaga and Justin Bieber.

Described by the San Francisco Chronicle as "the only show in town that can satisfy lovers of classical music and stand-up comedy alike", and with David internationally acclaimed as the successor to the legendary Victor Borge, this concert is a must for anyone who wants to hear beautiful music and laugh themselves silly into the bargain.

MADNESS IN THE MARKET

Ian McLachlan

Becoming a landlord is definitely not for the faint hearted, however if you choose the right property, the right tenants and put a great property management agency in place, buying an investment home can be an excellent choice.

Here are some tips to get you started and to make the process a bit easier:

1. Get your finances in order

There are plenty of online calculators that can help you assess your finances. But it really can be as simple as a pen and paper, and making a list of your assets, income and expenses, ensuring you have a solid long-term income with proof of savings.

2. Make a plan

What type of property is in your budget? Will it be a house that requires work? Will it be a unit with body corporate fees? Is it near by or out of the area you live in? Is it in an area that has a demand for rental properties? Are you a good negotiator to be able to buy the property at the best possible price, or will you ask someone you trust to help you? These are some questions you may need to consider.

3. Have a pre-approval and stick to the budget

Being pre-approved can be one of your best negotiating tools. Knowing how much you have to spend and the time frame in which your finances will be available to complete the transaction could help secure the property you want to purchase with minimal conditions on a contract.

4. Be educated in your market & stay focused

Know the market you plan to purchase in. There are so many tools available online to help you assess the viability of the area and property investment. Drop in and talk to your local agent. A good customer focused agent will always have time to answer questions you might have. And more importantly, stay focused; it is easy to become overwhelmed and wrapped up in the hard sell of a "Great Opportunity".

Contact Ian McLachlan to discuss your position in the current market 0419 781 834

MORETON BAY BOAT CLUB

Who would have thought a high flying career in finance, New Zealand's Justice Department and a passion for landscaping would have landed Cecilia Foster the role of Moreton Bay Boat Club's Head Chef?

Cecilia, a university graduate of banking and finance, left behind a lucrative career in Christchurch in search of a quieter life to spend more time with her family.

She applied for a job with her local café as a kitchen hand. After three months the café nurtured her innate talent to identify flavours in food and trained her to become head chef.

During her time as an accountant, Cecilia frequented restaurants and appreciated fine dining. She would emulate the cuisine, and could source ingredients to recreate the dish purely on her taste and being able to identify flavours.

"We go out every day and try different food and then I go home and try to cook it myself. If I have Indian, I would go to the Indian section of the store and say I'll have one of that, one of that and one of that, mix the ingredients together and play around. And I get the taste," says Cecilia.

As well as possessing a natural culinary talent, Cecilia focuses her efforts on service and presentation ensuring the customer enjoys the whole dining experience. You seldom come across a head chef that personally invites feedback from diners during her dinner service.

Cecilia and her entire service team at the Moreton Bay Boat Club are committed to continuing the long-standing tradition of great service and fine dining that the club has offered for over 50 years.

"We have cuisines from all over the world here and plenty of fresh local seafood," said Cecilia.

The picturesque view of the Glass House Mountains offers a delightful backdrop to compliment a delicious meal.

ACHROMATIC DESIGNS

We caught up with Liz Hooper of Achromatic Designs, who is a newcomer to the markets, having started in May. Liz hand-makes all her wares herself then has all her products tested by her 15 month old baby girl. She uses cotton and applies funky and edgy designs. You can find pram liners, drool pads for baby carriers, curtains; everything for the resourceful, stylish mum (and dad).

PIPS PROMISE

Phillipa Trevarthen can be found every month manning this delicious stall. She has been at the markets since June last year. She makes hot chocolate sticks in a huge range of 11 flavours as well as bath bombs, handmade from essential oils. Her favourite hot chocolate stick flavour is orange, which is made from real orange zest. She says the best part of the hot chocolate is licking the stick after you have stirred it through. A decadent treat to be enjoyed in the bath with a relaxing bath bomb.

CADETS ABOARD CLUBHOUSE RENOVATION

Moreton Bay Regional Council has completed restoration works on the TS Moreton Bay naval cadet clubhouse at Woody Point – and the club's young recruits are all aboard.

Moreton Bay Regional Council Division Six Councillor Koliana Winchester said the $150,000 project re-established the Crockatt Park site as a clubhouse for the cadets and storage space for their naval equipment including boats and canoes.

"After many years of use as a boatshed and clubhouse, inspections identified areas that were in need of maintenance," Cr Winchester said.

"Repairs to the building's exterior and interior, such as new treated timber, partial reroofing and a new balcony, will allow the club to continue to use the site while maintaining the building's structural integrity and appearance.

Cr Winchester said community groups and organisations such as TS Moreton Bay were the backbone of our community.

"TS Moreton Bay gives budding sailors the opportunity to learn the ropes of naval life, instilling important leadership, teamwork and life skills.

"That's why council continues to invest in community infrastructure and community groups like TS Moreton Bay."

TS Moreton Bay Commanding Officer Kim Seddon said the restoration project was completed in time for the group's Annual Inspection on May 17.

"Our group has a proud history of producing astute young men and women ready for both civilian and naval life," SBLT Seddon said.

"The renovated clubhouse will give our young sailors a dedicated space to interact, grow and complete important naval training expected of our young cadets."

TS Moreton Bay parades every Friday from 7pm to 10pm, and those interested in participating or finding out more are encouraged to contact Commanding Officer Kim Seddon by emailing kim.seddon@cadetnet.gov.au

TAX TIPS

Lisa Clarke

The end of the financial year is upon us and our minds should be turning to any last minute tax planning. It is important to know exactly what you can claim and ensure that you have the proper records to fully support any deductions.

Deductions must be supported with a tax invoice, receipt or other documentation. This can either be a paper or electronic copy.

There are specific deductions related to the industry you are employed in such as union fees, trade journals, memberships and registrations. However there are many general deductions the majority of taxpayers are able to claim. Travel expenses to visit your accountant to prepare your return are deductible. You will need to keep records of kilometres travelled and incidental costs such as parking fees. Support the community and make a taxable donation over $2.

There are various strategies that can reduce your tax liability. Think about bringing forward expenses into the current financial year. For example: deductible insurance premiums paid monthly. Why not pay the balance prior to 30 June 2015 to maximise your deduction?

Investment property owners can bring forward any planned repairs. Talk to your accountant about the benefits of obtaining a tax depreciation schedule. Capital items under $300 can be claimed in full in the year of purchase.

You might like to consider salary sacrificing your wages in to your superannuation fund up to the contribution cap. Ask your accountant about your eligibility for tax rebates such as a spouse super co-contribution.

There are also many tax minimisation strategies for the self employed or business tax payers. Think about deferring invoicing until after 30 June 2015. On the other side bring forward business related expenses into the current financial year. As recently announced in the budget, capital purchases made after the 12th May 2015 for less than $20,000 are fully deductible in the year of purchase for small businesses. Pay any outstanding super before the 30th June 2015.

Businesses should review their debtors' ledgers and write off any bad debts. Asset registers should also be reviewed and scrap any obsolete items of plant and equipment.

Talk to your accountant for the best advice relevant to your situation.

Lisa Clarke is a certified accountant at Team Accounting Solutions, 131 Sutton Street, Redcliffe.

BETWEEN THE TIDES

Contemporary art collective Carte Blanche is hosting 'Between the Tides, Australia', a one day art event, based on an annual art event by the JERSEY Group, Auckland, New Zealand.

Carte Blanche are currently Artists in Residence at Redcliffe State High School. The group of women from very diverse backgrounds met during contemporary art classes called Artstart, by Carol Bisset.

"I met Carol through Art school friends that began a group over 15 years ago, now called Jersey, but was called COWS: Conscientious Older Women Students. Jersey began Between the Tides in Auckland 12 years ago and has now become quite a sought after event," says Sarah Coveney, member of Carte Blanche.

Between the Tides celebrates the local area of Deception Bay, and Carte Blanche have decided to remain focused on recycling and environmental issues as a twist on the trans Tasman event. Redcliffe High School's art teacher Justin Kramer has taken it to a different level with his tidal camp.

This will be an enjoyable, environmentally friendly celebration of outdoor art. Come and enjoy the day.

If you wish to participate or want more information please contact Carte Blanche via email to carteblanchear1@gmail.com.

RASART EXHIBITION OF EXCELLENCE 2015

The RASart Exhibition of Excellence is the premier exhibition of the Redcliffe Art Society, which has been held over the past 50 years. It is a juried exhibition which is open to all members of the Redcliffe Art Society. The winner of First Prize Overall is invited to exhibit in the annual Fifteen Artists Exhibition at the Redcliffe City Art Gallery.

In 2014, the First Prize Overall was proudly sponsored by the Margate Community Bank

Branch of Bendigo Bank. The prize was won by Nan Dingle for her oil painting "The Source".

Branch manager Matthew Beswick says, "Profits from the Margate Community Bank Branch of Bendigo Bank are reinvested directly back into the Redcliffe Peninsula Community and we are absolutely delighted to be the Major Sponsor of the RASart Exhibition once again in 2015. We recognise the significant contribution of the Redcliffe Art Society in our local community and have proudly provided them with thousands of dollars in funding in recent times."

Traditionally, a painting is raffled during the exhibition with proceeds going to the Redcliffe Art Society. This year, Natalia Balo, a member of the Redcliffe Art Society, has generously donated a watercolour 'Major Mitchell's Cockatoo'. Dr. Natalia Balo is a contemporary award-winning figurative artist, specialising in portraiture and wildlife painting, and an author of "Bird Anatomy for Artists". Raffle tickets will be available from the Redcliffe City Art Gallery for the duration of the exhibition.

The Society has always worked for the pursuit of excellence in art, while encouraging artists to enjoy practising their work and learning new skills. The members enjoy daily classes, workshops conducted by national tutors and a well-maintained library. It provides the means for artists to exhibit and grow through sharing the experience of exploring art practice together. Long may the "Redcliffe Art Society" flourish.

GUIDE

TACKLING MORETON BAY!

Mark Templeton

We will have a few species in the bucket over the next few months but the main species being chased will be the Moreton Bay Snapper!

With the cooler weather really starting to set in, we will see the local Snapper start to make themselves more available around our local reefs and through the Brisbane River areas.

As with Tailor preparation, we need to make sure that we are geared up; rods checked, reels checked and serviced if needed, and the all-important tackle is up to speed.

There will be a few first time Snapper fishos out there and it does not matter if you are on a kayak or a tinny, take your time around our reefs and waterways as there are few hazards under the water which will ruin a great fishing trip.

For those that have not chased Snapper before, the best thing we can say is "keep it simple". Basically, a 2-4kg or a 3-6kg rod is ample and a reel between 2500 – 4000 will get the job done. Braid around the 10 – 15lb or Mono line between 15 – 20lb will do the job for you and help put fish in the esky.

A few of us use both Mono and Braided lines but this comes down to personal preference; one does not normally fish better than the other. If you are just getting into it, I recommend using a robust Braid like "Fins". If you want, stick with quality Mono line like Schneider or Super 100 and then you may upgrade when you are ready.

What do I use - bait or lures? Well, Snapper will take just about anything; hard-bodies, plastics and even jigs like the Lucanus Jig. Trolling 90mm hard-bodies work very well and "dead sticking" plastics and jigs can also be very effective.

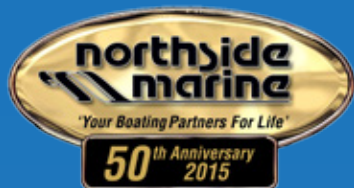

When bait fishing, I do like to relax with a good strip of mullet fillet, gar fillet or even a couple of whole hardy heads on a 3/0 Tru-Turn or laser hook. Depending on the run I would normally start with a "0" – "2" ball sinker and adjust from there. Where possible I use as little lead as possible and drift line the bait.

An important trick to remember is to fish as quietly as possible. Don't fly in at full noise and stop; approach your grounds at the idle. If anchoring, "lower" the anchor under control rather than just throwing it in. Be as quiet as you were when you broke curfew and were trying to sneak back in the house!!

If you would like more Fishing Tips or you would like us to cover particular topics, visit: www.tackleland.com.au and drop us a line.

Enjoy your time with the family and "Maintain the Passion".

A WORD FROM OUR REPRESENTATIVES

Luke Howarth MP

About 15,000 Redcliffe pensioners with modest assets will see their pensions increase by around $30 per fortnight as part of the Commonwealth Government's plans for fairer access to a more sustainable pension.

A 'Families Package' will support families on the Peninsula who struggle to access affordable child care when working, studying or looking for work. This includes $840 million over two years for preschool programs to ensure Australian families can continue to access up to 600 hours of preschool education a year in 2016 and 2017.

Our small business package includes a small business tax cut, to boost investment and unleash the entrepreneurial spirit of our local small businesses.

These are just some of the policies the Coalition Government has recently announced. I am happy to take any questions about the 2015-16 Federal Budget, so please contact me at luke.howarth.mp@aph.gov.au or call my office on 3284 8008.

Yvette D'Ath MP

It was heartening to see our local community support those affected by the recent devastating wild storms. The State Government moved quickly to provide emergency financial assistance and Community Recovery teams and non-government partners worked tirelessly to help families get back on their feet.

As Minister for Training and Skills I was pleased to open the first round of the new Skilling Queenslanders for Work initiative. I am passionate about generating jobs and encourage Redcliffe organisations wanting to find out more about Skilling Queenslanders for Work funding opportunities to register their interest quickly, as round one applications close on 19 June 2015.

I will be hosting a free Seniors Afternoon Tea at the CWA Hall in Redcliffe Parade, Redcliffe on 26 June 2015 from 2:00pm to 3:30pm and will have an informative guest speaker on the day.

Cr Koliana Winchester

It is wonderful to see TS Moreton Bay return to their Hornbrook Esplanade, Woody Point home. The group began operations on the site after the Humpybong Yacht Club transferred the property lease and existing clubhouse facility to TS Moreton Bay in 1980. The original clubhouse, a relocated house, was first positioned on the site by the Yacht Club in 1946.

For the past 18 months, TS Moreton Bay have been parading at the Redcliffe State High School whilst maintenance on the building was undertaken. Council was pleased to be able to fund these important restoration works.

GIVIT is accepting cash donations for the Moreton Bay Region flood disaster. To support recovery efforts, visit www.givit.org.au. 100% of funds go towards purchasing items for affected residents.

GIVIT always, wherever possible, purchases items from local providers to support the local economy as it recovers.

If you or family, friends or neighbours have homes that have been inundated, and you have not been visited by Council representatives, please contact Council on 3205 0555.

Vintage Yacht Regatta: Shorncliffe

The Vintage Yacht Regatta is one of the best events on the Queensland Cruising Yacht Club calendar and not just for those who are sailing. With a live jazz band and a roaring fire, Saturday evening will be a great night for visitors to experience the Club, as will Sunday morning when you can bookend your breakfast with a wander around the marina and lawns to enjoy the spectacular boats on show.

A fleet of around 40 of South East Queensland's finest vintage yachts are expected to be on show during the Queen's Birthday weekend (6th and 7th June). "This event is a highlight of the classic yachting sailing calendar in Queensland and attracts a large fleet of beautifully turned out vessels from yesteryear," commented Regatta Director Nigel Statham.

The Regatta, also familiarly referred to as 'The Gaffers', is not only open to Sailing Yachts; skippers of sailing dinghies, motor boats or those who would prefer not to race are also welcome to join in the event and participate in the Concours d'Elégance competition. Berthing for all vessels is free from the Friday evening throughout the weekend.

On the Saturday and Sunday, two races are held each day with a short break in between. The start area is positioned close into shore to allow spectators a good view of the racing.

The first two days make up the Regatta series with the main prize-giving being held on Sunday evening. The four races are also the culmination of the Moreton Bay Classics' Annual Point Score Series. The series is based on three Classic Events that begin in October each year. With five races already run and two discards allowed, a good result from the four races at the 'Gaffers' will be the key to a great overall result.

On the third day of the Regatta, there is a pursuit race around the bay with the slowest boats starting first. The finish line is near the Coffee Pots to allow competitors to head straight to their home port once they cross the finish line.

The Regatta also features a Concours d'Elégance competition. Judging takes place over the course of the weekend and awards are given out in a number of categories. With so many achingly beautiful vessels to choose from, judge and local icon Brian Hutchinson has his work cut out.

Yacht owners and spectators interested in the event can find full information at the Regatta's website. Go to qcyc.com.au and follow the links.
