A TASTE OF THINGS TO COME AT THE REDCLIFFE FESTIVAL

The biggest event and celebration to hit the Moreton Bay Region, the Redcliffe Festival is back in 2015 for two massive weeks from 29 August to 13 September – boasting a dynamic program of free and ticketed family-friendly events, international superstars, spectacular light art and a vast array of musical entertainment.

If you thought the 2014 Redcliffe Festival was big – it's about to get a whole lot bigger in 2015.

With a mix of popular events including the Redcliffe KiteFest, Redcliffe Remembers, Jetty Fiesta and Carnivale Cruise, as well as introducing some brand new components such as Scarborough Sounds and Australia's Biggest Bush Dance – the Redcliffe Festival boasts something for everyone.

Plus, Redcliffe will welcome back an old friend to the Peninsula; Barry Gibb will unveil Stage 2 of Bee Gees Way as part of the festivities this year.

Festival Director, Shane Newcombe, said he welcomed the opportunity to let the rest of the world in on our best kept secret – Redcliffe.

"Everyone who lives in Redcliffe knows what a fabulous place the Peninsula is and how much it has to offer visitors, from its beautiful beaches, to its world-class tourist attractions, and the Redcliffe Festival will show this off to the world," Mr. Newcombe said.

The program will spoil visitors for choice with a diverse program of free and ticketed events.

Kicking off the festival weekend on Saturday 29 and Sunday 30 August will be the family-favourite Redcliffe KiteFest.

The following weekend will debut the brand new event, Scarborough Sounds, from 5pm on Sunday, 6 September, held along the Scarborough Foreshore.

The final weekend of the Redcliffe Festival will kick off on Friday, 11 September when Barry Gibb returns home to Redcliffe to unveil Stage 2 of Bee Gees Way.

The following day, Redcliffe Parade will come alive with colour and chaos when the circus comes to town for Redcliffe's biggest street party from 3pm on Saturday, 12 September.

With a program bursting at the seams with activity, there's one thing for sure – the 2015 Redcliffe Festival is not to be missed.

BID FOR REDCLIFFE DOLPHIN STADIUM

With no mention of funding for the Dolphin Stadium in the 2015 Federal Budget, Federal Member for Petrie Luke Howarth MP, the Redcliffe Dolphins and rugby league great Petero Civoniceva have teamed up to petition the Prime Minister for a new stadium.

The Dolphin Stadium currently seats up to 3,000 people. The $12 million proposed upgrade would mean a capacity of up to 10,000.

Luke Howarth MP said funding has already been confirmed on a local level, with the Dolphins' personally investing $3 million and the Moreton Bay Regional Council also contributing $3 million.

"All we need now is for the Federal Government to come to the party.

"This is a project that could mean the difference between Moreton Bay becoming the Sports Precinct of the Northside, or staying off the map and neglected.

"And it's not just about sport – it's about strengthening local tourism and, in turn, the local small business economy."

General Manager of the Redcliffe Dolphins, Tony Murphy, said the Dolphins have a proud history, but need better facilities if they are to have a bright future.

"A new stadium would provide such a boost for the club and our local area," he said.

Locals can sign Luke Howarth MP's petition at: www.lukehowarth.com.au/stadium.

Jobs. Growth. Opportunity.

- ✓ Small business and jobs boost, with tax cuts and immediate tax write-offs for small business and new incentives to hire job seekers.
- ✓ Making child care more affordable for lower and middle income families.
- ✓ Pension certainty, with increases twice a year at the highest available indexation rate.
- ✓ Record funding for hospitals, schools and roads.
- ✓ Protecting Australians, with record funding for national security.
- ✓ Reducing Labor's deficit – from $48 billion last year to $7 billion in 4 years. Reducing the deficit will make Australia stronger and provide more certainty and opportunities for Australians.

RAISING FUNDS FOR CANCER

By Melissa Bailey

When driving down Brewer Street in Clontarf, you'll come across a number of sheds housing all manner of businesses. The industrial area homes plastics experts, panel beaters and mechanics, but most importantly, Canterbury Blue. Canterbury Blue is the place to go to create beautifully old fashioned shabby chic furniture using EZ2 Paint and EZ2 Wax chalk paint. More than the fantastic furniture you and your family can create and love, owner Juliana is hoping to make a big difference to women's cancer research.

"Over the past three months I've had numerous girlfriends affected by the big C. When I mentioned it to my clients, it seemed as if everyone had a friend, a mother, a daughter or a sister affected by a form of cancer, so I thought it's time to paint it pink for women's cancer!"

The Australian Cancer Research Foundation agrees with Juliana's sentiments, and in fact most people in Australia will be affected by cancer at some stage in their lives, either personally or through family and friends. However, the survival rate for common types of cancers has increased in the past 20 years by more than 30 per cent due to new interventions and improved treatment as a result of research. Research funded by companies like Canterbury Blue.

In a bid to raise $10,000, Canterbury Blue will host "How To Get Your Shabby On" half price workshops, for a low cost of $50 with all proceeds donated to women's cancer research. During the workshop, Juliana will coach you and your friends using pink chalk paint supplied by Canterbury Blue to create a beautiful shabby chic piece of furniture to take home or to donate back to the company to auction off with all proceeds used to aid in the development of a cure for women's cancers. Juliana can be contacted on 0432 434 820 or juliana@canterburyblue.com.au. Go to <http://canterburyblue.com.au/> for more information or to make a donation.

BARRY GIBB RETURNING HOME TO REDCLIFFE

Barry Gibb will return home to the Moreton Bay Region later this year to open Stage 2 of Bee Gees Way, the popular public walkway that honours the world-famous super group.

Moreton Bay Region Mayor Allan Sutherland said Mr Gibb, one of the world's most successful recording artists, would be in Redcliffe on Friday, September 11 to unveil the latest additions.

The walkway is temporarily closed while construction continues on a new shade structure and other enhancements.

Mayor Allan Sutherland said the official opening would be held as part of the Redcliffe Festival celebrations – which will run from August 29 to September 13.

"Since opening in February 2013, tourists and music fans from around the world have flocked to Bee Gees Way to enjoy its stories, photographs and life-size statue of the brothers," he said.

"Redcliffe is the birthplace of the Bee Gees – it is where Barry, Robin and Maurice first gathered around a microphone and performed using the name that would become famous around the globe.

"The next stage of Bee Gees Way, to be unveiled by Barry in September, will take the attraction to a new level and incorporate some of the many suggestions we have received from locals and visitors over the past two years.

"The end result will be something truly special. It will be a permanent, outdoor tribute to one of the world's best groups, unlike anything in the world, right here in the Moreton Bay Region.

"Just like Stage 1, Barry has been heavily involved in developing and approving the new concepts and content."

Barry Gibb said he was excited to return to the Moreton Bay Region to relive his childhood and share the next stage of Bee Gees Way with the community.

"My memories of my time in Redcliffe are as vivid today as when I was running around barefoot with my brothers exploring its many treasures," he said.

"It has never left me.

"I can't wait to share the day with the community, fans and friends."

Bee Gees Way is located between Redcliffe Parade and Sutton Street, Redcliffe.

INTERNATIONAL COMPUTER SCAM CLOSE TO HOME

Susie Laery

If you think your computer is safe from international criminal syndicates, then think again.

Several computers in the Bramble Bay area have been infected with the destructive 'CryptoLocker' Ransomware.

Victims of the scam receive an email, which appears to be from the Australian Federal Police, stating they have a traffic fine to pay. Upon activating the link in the email to view the traffic infringement, the CryptoLocker Ransomware is immediately installed. All data held on the computer and on any device attached is encrypted, including such devices as hard drives and iCloud. All documents, photos and videos are inaccessible unless a ransom is paid.

No internet security system can protect you from this Ransomware. For those unfamiliar with Ransomware, it can be described as a type of software which restricts access to the computer system it infects and demands a ransom paid to the creators of the software in order for the restriction to be removed.

Local computer repair expert, Norton Seron from Brisbane Computer Solutions in Sandgate says this is the work of "evil geniuses who target your most precious stuff". Seron believes international criminal syndicates have targeted Australians, who own the most computers per capita and are generally known to be the most ignorant when it comes to computer safety.

To protect yourself from this 'CryptoLocker' Ransomware, Seron warns to not open emails that look unfamiliar and particularly not this one from the Australian Federal Police. "No official government body initiates communication via email," says Seron. If you are unsure about traffic fines you may have received go directly to the website for information or call the Australian Federal Police directly; do not open these emails. The Australian Federal Police are advising recipients to delete the email immediately.

There is nothing that can be done to resurrect your files. Even if you do pay the ransom only one in five regain access to their files. There have been cases where more and more money is demanded from the victim with nothing in return. This is an enormous business for these criminal syndicates, with huge financial returns for this fraudulent crime.

REDCLIFFE WALKING FOR PLEASURE

The Redcliffe Walking for Pleasure group will celebrate 20 years of activity in January 2016 when participants will follow the original walk “Humpybong Creek Circuit” over a distance of approximately five kilometres.

On Tuesday 16 January 1996, 27 walkers led by Ian Harding, followed the Humpybong Creek bike path through Central Redcliffe (starting from Redcliffe Jetty near the creek mouth), past the pool and the paceway, through Margate and down to the foreshore, returning to the Jetty.

Ian has been walk leader since the foundation of the group by Robyne Hunter. Desley and Pat, who joined the Walking Group in 1996, said in the Group’s Ten Year Book, “Ian has guided us across bridges and through parks, gardens, churches, art galleries, the Police Museum, Parliament House, City Hall, the Old Commissariat Store building, the Customs House and the MacArthur Museum, state forests, bush reserves, lookouts, beaches, boardwalks, islands, historical places, museums and cemeteries.”

The original walk brochure stated, “This regional walking program aims to make the best possible use of the excellent outdoor Recreation facilities Redcliffe City has to offer.” The current one refers to the Parks and Pathways of the Moreton Bay Region.

Locally we walk along the foreshores of Redcliffe, Deception Bay and Sandgate, while other walks are undertaken further afield in such places as Bribie Island, Pebble Beach, Centenary Lakes at Caboolture, Sweeney Reserve at Petrie, Bunya Forest, North Lakes, Aspley, Albany Creek, Cabbage Tree Creek, Kedron Brook, Narangba, D’Aguilar National Park, South Bank, University of Queensland, Brisbane Botanic Gardens, as well as through all suburbs of Redcliffe.

Walk brochures are distributed every three months and are available at the Redcliffe Library and the two Council information centres in Redcliffe Parade and Pelican Park.

In recent years walkers have numbered from 6 to 16 on the various walks. The group enjoys relaxed get-togethers for anniversary walks and Christmas break-ups. A Mystery Walk is usually included in each 3 month programme.

A WORD FROM OUR REPRESENTATIVES

Luke Howarth MP

The Redcliffe Peninsula is abundant in small businesses – from Scarborough Physio and Health to Washworx car wash in Kippa-Ring; from The Golden Ox in Margate to Pilpel Restaurant soon to be opened on Suttons Beach.

Our small businesses provide local jobs and services to our community, and I want to thank them for their hard work.

As part of the 2015 Federal Budget, the Government is cutting the small business company tax rate to the lowest in almost 50 years. For the next two years, we are also giving all small businesses an immediate tax deduction on any asset they buy, costing up to $20,000. This will benefit more than 95% of all Australian businesses, including the many small businesses and tradespeople who employ an apprentice.

For more information about the 2015-16 Federal Budget, please contact me at luke.howarth.mp@aph.gov.au or call my office on 3284 8008.

Yvette D'Ath MP

This is a great time to be out and about on the Redcliffe Peninsula and to take advantage of our beautiful foreshore, parks and bay. It is also a busy month with my senior's afternoon tea and I once again look forward to participating in the Jetty-to-Jetty Fun

Run and supporting our local charities.

Redcliffe is proud of its willing volunteers and the generosity of local businesses and individuals.

This month I would like to make special mention of the Breakfast Club volunteers who provide a free breakfast at the Redcliffe CWA for those less fortunate in our community.

Thanks also to Jaden Ribbe from the Redcliffe Special School for his contribution at my electorate office while on work experience under the East Coast Apprenticeship STAR program. I wish Jaden well as he soon moves on to further hospitality training at TAFE.

Set amongst the backdrop of the beautifully tranquil Redcliffe Botanic Gardens, What's Cooking in the Gardens is a celebration of food, lifestyle and sustainability. Festival-goers will enjoy vibrant displays and demonstrations as this normally secluded haven transforms into a world of 'green' fun. Gardening and cooking gurus galore will be on hand to share their collective years of wisdom on all things eco-botanical. Special guest chef Matthew

Evans from SBS series Gourmet Farmer will be sharing his knowledge of free range farming and recipes from his extensive repertoire of books, as well as recent reality TV culinary sensations Rob and Dave from My Kitchen Rules who will be cooking up a storm. There will be wonderful interactive workshops for all ages, demonstrations and displays to learn more about herbs, natural products, Yoga and so much more, or simply wander through the paths off market stalls, gourmet food and wine stalls filled with delicious treats and handmade goodies. BLACK OLIVE

Sean Yildrin, originally hailing from Turkey, moved to Redcliffe just over a year ago. Having lived the fast life in Sydney for many years, Sean was managing a busy hotel and was in search of a quieter life to spend more time with his family.

Hospitality is in Sean's blood. Coming from a large family, who all work in the hospitality industry, Sean pursued a career in hospitality as soon as he finished high school in Turkey. He has worked in exotic locations such as the Spanish islands, all around the Mediterranean, Iceland, Greenland and many other countries as a waiter, then later training to become a chef.

"I have always loved food. All my family is in hospitality. My cousin owns a large seafood restaurant in Turkey, my uncle runs his own restaurant; all we know is food. I love it! It's a family thing."

Sean's passion for food and hospitality has become an addiction for him. After a few years of trying his hand at different roles within hospitality, Sean attempted to further his horizons and pursued a career in the arts working part time in an art gallery. "I couldn't do it. I tried it for six months. I left and went straight back to hospitality."

During his tenure for two seasons on a German cruise liner, Sean picked up many great experiences. "It was really hard work. Germans are very efficient and demand that things are done quickly. It was great experience for me."

Working in Sydney's Leichhardt Street, Sean worked with many Italian chefs and was trained in authentic Italian and Mediterranean cooking. He ran his own café in Sydney specializing in Mediterranean food. So it seemed like the perfect next step to open a pizzeria.

Black Olive opened its doors in Margate 10 months ago. The menu includes many traditional pizzas as well as a touch of Redcliffe with the Oxley special showcasing local seafood. All the meat for all pizzas is chargrilled in-house packing a huge flavour punch. Having worked all around the world with many different people, Sean says he loves working in Redcliffe because everyone is so welcoming and friendly.

QUOTA CRAFT & GIFT FAIR ON AGAIN

The members of Quota International of Redcliffe will once again be holding their Annual Redcliffe Craft & Gift Fair on July 4th at the Redcliffe Showgrounds, Webb Hall, with the proceeds this year going to Hummingbird House, the first Hospice for children in Queensland, and local community projects.

Hummingbird House plans to open its doors at the end of this year, and Quota International Redcliffe has made a major decision to be a substantial sponsor of the project in recognition of Quota's Mission to support women and children going through difficult times.

Redcliffe Quota Club began in 1957 – the first women's service club in Redcliffe – and over the years has provided facilities such as Quota Park Woody Point, the Sensory Garden at the Redcliffe Botanical Gardens, play equipment at Railway Place Scarborough, continuing support to the Special Needs Library at Redcliffe, Cartmill and Pender Riding for the Disabled, Meals on Wheels, Jebb House (a domestic violence refuge) and has provided a variety of support to Redcliffe Hospital.

The Fair, to be held on Saturday, July 4th will commence at 9am and finish at 3pm with eye-catching items made by very talented crafts-people, the majority of whom come from the Moreton Bay Council Region. Stall holders will be demonstrating patchwork, spinning, weaving, and punch embroidery, and selling a wide variety of items including beautiful children's cloth story books, jewellery, candles, wood turned items, children's clothes, paper craft supplies, beaded flowers and insects, jams, relish & pickles, fresh cupcakes, sun-catchers, embroidered cards, bears, coat-hangers, quilted baskets, quilting and much more.

Quota's own Specialty Stall this year will provide a wide variety of new and pre-loved accessories in all types, shapes, sizes and colours at bargain prices.

After browsing the stalls, we invite all visitors to stay and enjoy our gourmet slices with a morning coffee or tea, or take a lunch break of soup and toasted sandwiches – all very popular in previous years.

Every visitor through the door will have the opportunity to win a fabulous 2 night's "Getaway" at Mooloolaba Newport Apartments – a 3 bedroom unit to sleep up to 6 people with ocean views, valued at $800.00, plus an "Indulgence Pack" with their lucky door ticket – and you don't have to stay to be a winner. Neither do you have to be there to collect one of the beautiful raffle prizes – you just have to have tickets to win it.

Admission: Adults $5

EAT, DRINK AND BE HYPNOTISED

Australia's naughtiest hypnotist is heading to the shores of Redcliffe this July and you're invited! The Mon Komo Hotel is hosting the famous hypnotist, Mark Anthony, and is packaging it all up into one fun-filled night of food, drink, debauchery and good times.

From only $69 per person, you can enjoy a sumptuous two-course meal and take in the truly mesmerising show, watching as Mark turns the audience into elegant ballerinas, kung fu exhibitionists, classical pianists and much more.

The show kicks off at 7pm on Friday 10th July and promises to be nothing less than amazing, with Mark himself even promising to treat the crowd to his famous disappearing act!

Mon Komo Group Director of Hospitality Matt Newberry is expecting a full house to take in Mark Anthony's show in July. "Mark is so well-known and respected for his talent, both in Australia and internationally, and we are delighted to be able to host him here at the Mon Komo Hotel and give our customers the chance to experience such fun and BE a part of the show!" Matt said.

"Whilst the show itself is respectful, it's not for the faint-hearted and is an over 18 event. Anyone who has ever wondered what it would be like to be hypnotised should come along as Mark is renowned for making the audience a massive part of the show."

Mark Anthony is considered 'one of the best'. His sell-out shows across the world leave audience members stunned and his down to earth attitude, where his motto is 'See the show or be the show' combine to offer a fun night of witty one-liners, unbelievable 'hypNaughty' shenanigans and will keep the audiences wanting more.

JETTY 2 JETTY FUN RUN SHAPING UP TO BE THE BIGGEST YET

Everyone's favourite fun run, the Jetty 2 Jetty is back in 2015 and is shaping up to be the biggest yet.

With a picturesque course backdrop, the Jetty 2 Jetty will wind its way from Crockatt Park, Woody Point along the Redcliffe Peninsula, on Sunday, 19 July.

Race Director Kate Jackson is encouraging everyone to give it a go, ensuring there is a race to suit everybody, regardless of their fitness level or age.

"Whether you train all year round, or have set yourself a new fitness goal, it's time to dust off the running shoes because the Jetty 2 Jetty offers a race for everyone," she said.

With four race categories, including the Crown Properties Half Marathon (21KM), JT Press 10KM, Dolphin's Health Precinct 5KM or Quest Community Newspapers 3KM, over 4,000 runners are expected to take part in this year's Jetty 2 Jetty.

"Everyone from elite athletes, families, and even the residents of a local nursing home give it a go – proving that age is no barrier," explains Kate.

This year, the Jetty 2 Jetty is more than just a fun run, boasting a brand new Healthy Living Expo along the Woody Point foreshore, showcasing businesses that promote a healthy lifestyle and enhancing the experience for competitors and spectators.

But that's not all that's new and exciting in 2015 – this year, there is some serious prize money up for grabs!

For the first time, Jetty 2 Jetty will offer a cash prize pool valued at $6,800 to attract serious runners from throughout South-East Queensland and beyond in the Crown Properties Half Marathon (21KM) and JT Press 10KM races.

"This is the first time we have been able to offer prize money, and it's about time that we offer this to the more serious runners who compete on the annual running calendar," explains Kate.

Registrations are open online now and the registration costs vary according to the entered race category and participant's age group.

For the first time this year, each entrant in the Crown Properties Half Marathon (21km) or JT Press 10km races will receive a free Jetty 2 Jetty singlet as part of their registration. Entrants in the Dolphin's Health Precinct 5KM and Quest Community Newspapers 3KM categories will receive a free Jetty 2 Jetty visor.

The Jetty 2 Jetty Fun Run is an annual event, with the start and finish line located at Crockatt Park, Woody Point.

When: Sunday, 19 July 2015

Time: 6am – 10am

Where: Crockatt Park, Woody Point

WINE AND CHEESE NIGHT

Every year, locals gather at Redcliffe State High School to enjoy wine, cheese and a taste of the musical talent of the students. This year, the “Wine and Cheese Night” fundraising event is being held on Saturday 1st August at the Hercules Road State School Hall and marks the thirteenth year of celebrating the school’s music programme.

A fun and relaxed evening, locals will enjoy music entertainment from all of the school’s music ensembles including the Junior and Senior Concert Bands, Stage Band, Choir, String Ensemble and featured soloists.

The annual event is designed to showcase Redcliffe State High School’s dedication to the art of music and encourage students’ abilities. This year the funds raised will go towards the student music tour of the Rockhampton and Capricorn Coast region which will occur in July. The bi-annual music tour for 2015 involves 75 music students and staff. The various bands and ensembles will perform at venues across the region, pairing with the Yeppoon State High School to jointly workshop a performance for schools and the wider community.

“The Wine and Cheese Night is an opportunity for guests to experience a whole night of informal fun and enjoy some wine and cheese and assorted finger foods while listening to the excellent musical talent Redcliffe State High School has to offer,” says Emma Nicolopoulos, Multi Instrumental Teacher from Redcliffe State High School.

To add to the fundraising efforts, there will be a range of raffles that will be drawn and a lucky door prize up for grabs. Staff and students of the school are hoping to see guests dance the night away to local rock band ‘Jabba’ who have performed throughout Queensland and are considered one of the most sought after covers bands in the South East.

Don’t miss this fantastic opportunity to relax, mingle and enjoy live entertainment!

Tickets are $15 Adult/$12 Concession/$10 Child (under 12) and can be purchased from Redcliffe State High School office or call 3897 1111.

EILDON CROQUET CLUB

Roma Hines

In July 1953, a meeting was held to promote Croquet at Redcliffe. The meeting was chaired by Mr. Thomas Meares. His wife, Mrs. Matilda Meares, was one of seventeen members. From that meeting of seventeen players, Eildon Croquet Club became what is now the largest in the State with 68 members and celebrated its 60th birthday with a private function on 13th June.

HOW IT STARTED

Redcliffe Council constructed 2 courts near the Memorial Hall at Woody Point – the deal being that Eildon would repay Council at One Pound per week, plus interest at 5%. Water rates were to be paid and a yearly rent of One Pound. The membership fee for players the first year was five shillings per month plus a charge of one penny for a cup of tea.

Although the only code of croquet played in 1955 was Association, our members now embrace Golf Croquet, Ricochet and Gateball.

Members of Eildon have been selected to play in State teams in Association and Golf Croquet.

Also, our newest code of Gateball has members winning trophies against other States.

Eildon has hosted National Competitions as well as State Events. In August we are expecting an influx of visitors for Gateball State Championships.

The structure of our 60th Birthday in June was to give our members a party to say 'thank you' to our many sponsors, and to contact earlier members who had done so much hard work to promote Eildon to our present state of success.

Imagine how delighted we were when two weeks after our birthday planning committee had met, a gentleman walked into our clubhouse and said "Hello, I'm Murray, the grandson of Mr and Mrs Meares who started this club."

So, here was one of the most important contacts that we could hope for. Needless to say – Murray and his sister Deirdre cut the 60th birthday cake.

And still we continue to grow, with two more players waiting to start their coaching lessons.

We love to introduce new players to our game so email the club at eildon@croquetqld.org and we'll send you the information, or phone Secretary Roma on 3203 7262.

From Across The Bridge

Joining a back catalogue of 15 studio albums, his newly recorded I Live In My Head A lot These Days was released through ABC - Universal in May this year.

MUSIC BY THE SEA

Jeff Lang

“In a world where music is diluted by money and plasticine, give thanks that Jeff Lang is out there. He paints pictures in sound,” says Beat Magazine of Music By The Sea’s star turnout at Sandgate Town Hall on Saturday, 4 July.

A master of the craft, Australian-based artist Jeff Lang is acclaimed worldwide as a virtuosic guitarist, a dynamic songwriter and a startlingly unique performer whose musical palette has built up a devoted, almost cult-like following from his live performances.

Lang builds a collage of rock, roots, folk, blues, ballads, instrumentals, improvisation and a devastatingly high level of musicality that has netted him seven ARIA award nominations and three wins in 2002, 2010 and 2012.
