EDITOR'S NOTE

Can you believe it's November already? Where has the year gone? Of course, when we think about Spring, we think about Spring Carnival. Melbourne Cup is a fantastic way to ring in the silly season in style. We have a Melbourne Cup guide showing you all the great places to go in Redcliffe to show off your glad rags and enjoy the race that stops the nation. Inside, read the history of the man who built the Hornibrook Highway as well as many other iconic Brisbane bridges. As well as car shows, fiery art, hilarity and excitement, this month's issue is the calm before the storm that is the Christmas season. Happy reading!

WHEELS OF THE CENTURY

by Kylie Thompson

Even if you can't name all their parts or know how to change a tyre, there's something about cars. An art form in their own right, vehicles have become a way to do more than get from A to B; they can be a symbol of who we are or want to be.

Vehicles have been the backdrop, even the characters, behind some of pop culture's most beloved shows and movies; from the gleaming black Impala of Supernatural, to the choppers and ambulances of *M*A*S*H*, they've influenced us all. Even our music is populated with odes to cars and other vehicles.

Cars are cool, especially the older ones.

If you've ever wanted to get up close and personal with a range of vintage cars, including Hot Rods and muscle cars, or with a range of other vehicles including motorbikes, utes, trucks, and veteran rides, the Clontarf Beach Scouts have got you covered.

From 9am- 2pm on Sunday 1st November, the Clontarf Beach Scout Group will hold their 15th annual "Wheels of the Century" automotive show at the Redcliffe Showgrounds.

The Clontarf Beach Scouts have been a part of the community for over 50 years, and in that time they've had an overwhelmingly positive impact. Wheels of the Century is the group's major fundraiser each year, with the money raised going to purchasing new equipment, and more generally, to keep the group going for another year.

Wheels of the Century isn't just about raising money, but about a fun day out for the community. There will be rock-n-roll classics brought to life by popular band "The Singers", as well as a range of delicious food and drinks. And for the car enthusiasts, there will be trade stalls to talk shop and help source those hard to find parts.

Tickets to Wheels of the Century will be $5 for anyone over 12 years of age. Children under 12 are free. More information is available at the group's Facebook page (Wheels Century Automotive 2015) or by emailing wheelscentury@optushome.com.au

Those interested in entering their vehicle, or vehicles, can contact Brian Stow on 0412 744 354, or Cheryl Linsdell on 0427 313 458. Exhibitor fees are $10 (for vehicle and driver). Trade stalls are available for $50. ●●

MELBOURNE CUP BY THE SEA

by Kylie Thompson

It's the race that stops the nation, and Redcliffe is the place to be for all the fun of the races without sacrificing the air conditioning. On Tuesday 3rd November, Redcliffe will be the go-to place to cheer on your favourite horse, and see some of the best in fashion.

Golden Ox

The Golden Ox is renowned for its amazing food, and for those that want some gastronomical delight with their racing, the Ox is the place to be. Their three course extravaganza hosts a wealth of mouth-watering selections to tempt your taste buds, so leave your diet at the door and fall in love with their chef's hard work.

There will be prizes for the best hat, best dressed lady, best dressed gentleman, and best dressed couple. And of course, there will be sweepstakes available on site for a flutter on the horses.

Not only will you be well fed and having fun, but you'll be giving something back to the Redcliffe community. For every ticket sold, $5 will be donated to The Tuesday Club, a Moreton Bay Regional Council initiative that raises much needed funds to support a range of Peninsula charities (including the Redcliffe and Woody Point Special Schools), and to bring Christmas parcels to local families in need.

Tickets are $64.80 per person and selling fast, so call 3283 1833 to secure your spot.

Mon Komo

Mon Komo has teamed up with Myer to bring guests a dazzling display of fashions, showcasing the glitz and glamour of race day in the comfort of Mon Komo's luxurious oceanfront venue. For fashionistas, it's a wonderful chance to see the new must-have items for the wardrobe.

There will be prizes on offer for the best dressed guests, so pull out your best race wear, and join in all the fun of the racetrack without the need for sunscreen.

A divine three course meal, and live entertainment will make sure everyone is in high spirits for the start of the race.

Doors open at 11:30, with a midday start to the action.

Tickets are $75pp, and look set to sell out quickly. To book your tickets, call Mon Komo on 3284 6520, or email events@monkomohotel.com.au

Reef Point

The Reef Point Café is fast becoming one of the must-visit destinations in Redcliffe, and their Melbourne Cup celebration looks set to bring the glitz of the races to the Redcliffe waterfront.

Their three course delight will feature a range of the Cafés delectable canapes, as well as an alternate drop main course, and a mini platter of their indulgent desserts.

Abby Lee's stylists will be showcasing the best of racing fashions, and there will be prizes for the most glamorous hat, the hottest shoes, and the most stylish lady and gentleman. The race will be shown on the café's big screens, and there will be sweepstakes available.

Tickets are $60 per person, and can be booked by calling 3880 0250

Belvedere Hotel

The Belvedere is celebrating the Melbourne Cup with the Belvedere Birdcage Marquee by the Bay. Set in both the Koopa Marquee, and the Steak and Crabhouse, the Birdcage looks set to be a glamorous day of fun.

Formal racing attire is required for this celebration of all the glitz, glamour, and jazzy fun of a day at the races. Kicking off at 12, the three hour event includes a canape and beverage package that promises to be mouth-watering.

Tickets to the Belvedere Birdcage are $89pp, and are selling fast, so call 3284 2245 or go to www.belvederehotel.com.au to book your place.

Redcliffe Leagues Club

The Redcliffe Leagues Club is running two Melbourne Cup parties this year for members and guests. So if you want a child-friendly venue, the Leagues Club is the place to be.

On the ground floor will be a range of free activities, with live entertainment starting at 10:30am, and rocking on until 5:30pm.

There will be magicians and balloonologists roaming the club throughout the day, and activities to keep the kids (and kids-at-heart) entertained. For the fashion forward, there will be a Fashions on the Field event.

Upstairs, the party continues with the paid event. Guests will enjoy a glass of champagne on arrival, and a sumptuous buffet lunch.

Tickets to the upstairs event are $45 for members and $50 for non-members. For further details, or to book your place, contact 3203 7333 or www.redcliffeleagues.com.au

APRIL SONS IN REDCLIFFE

by Kylie Thompson

On Friday November 6, the Redcliffe Leagues Club will be celebrating the well-loved Aussie legends, Dragon.

Dragon is the sort of iconic band that has a fan base spanning the generations. With chart topping hits in their career, including April Sun in Cuba, Are You Old Enough, and Still In Love With You, many Dragon songs are still on high rotation on radio stations around the country. Clearly, the love for Dragon has not diminished.

Known for their high energy performances, it's hard to find a Dragon tribute band that captures not just the songs, but the spirit of the iconic rockers. Thankfully, The Redcliffe Leagues Club has found this in April Sons.

A Brisbane based band named after one of Dragon's more widely known hits, April Sons have put together a popular tribute show celebrating the talent and history of a beloved part of our musical hall of fame. In their energetic shows, April Sons bring back all the joy of an actual Dragon concert, and their love for the music is apparent from the moment they start to play.

The band will take on songs from the entire Dragon catalogue, from their entry into the charts to their last concerts before the death of Marc Hunter in 1998. All the classic hits, and some half-remembered gems, will be given the love and attention they deserve.

The Redcliffe Leagues Club is committed to proving that a good night out at a concert doesn't have to cost the earth, and the April Sons gig will be free for club members and guests. From 7pm in the Legends Lounge, DJ Luke will be warming up the crowd, and the dance floor looks like it's going to get quite the workout.

For more information, or to join the Club, go to www.redcliffeleagues.com.au ●●

REDCLIFFE'S HELPING HAND

by Kylie Thompson

Saturday November 7 may not be the best day for a drive around Brisbane and the Redcliffe Peninsula, but it is shaping up to be an amazing day for local children's charities. Now in its sixth year, Brisbane Convoy for Kids will this year be supporting Redcliffe Special Schools, Redcliffe PCYC, and Brisbane's first hospice space for children and young adults, Hummingbird House.

The convoy kicks off on the southside of Brisbane, winding along the Logan and Gateway Motorways, up the Deagon Deviation before a brisk tour of the Redcliffe Waterfront via Oxley Avenue. It will end at the Redcliffe Showgrounds where the party begins in earnest from around midday.

The Showgrounds will come alive with trucks and utes, as well as stalls, rides, displays, and auctions throughout the day. Once again, Summit Tower Hire will be on hand to give the bravest of guests a sky-high view of Redcliffe, and the sheer volume of trucks and utes participating.

The main stage will be the place to be for lovers of music and laughter, with a range of performers including Travis Sinclair, Jayne Denham, the Rufus John Puppet Show and Stone Vandals, keeping the party going until 11pm.

This year's fireworks display is sponsored by Morayfield Shopping Centre and Skylighter Fireworks, and will include the breathtaking 'Night Lights' display from the trucks and utes present. As always, if you live near the Showgrounds, please make sure your pets are safely contained, not just in time for the fireworks, but throughout the day. Unsurprisingly, there will be a lot of vehicles in the area, and it can be quite a noisy event with drivers heralding their safe arrival with a blast of their horn.

For the first time, the Convoy for Kids is launching its 'Queen of the Convoy' competition, which starts at 2pm. Hosted by iconic radio talent Jamie Dunn, with some likely help from his old mate Agro, the Queen of the Convoy is shaping up to be a lot of laughs, and a lot of fun.

The Convoy for Kids is bigger than ever in 2015, and promises to be an incredible sight to see. There will be safe places throughout the route to photograph the convoy, but the best place will be the Showgrounds.

Registrations, whether for trucks and utes, camping, or stalls, are currently open at www.brisbaneconvoyforkids.com.au. ●●

WELCOME BACK WICKETY WAK

by Melissa Bailey

Forming in 1975, Wickety Wak is a comedic show band that started performing parodies of other artists at the Kuraby Hotel in Brisbane. Parodies included those of Louis Armstrong, Kermit The Frog, The Beach Boys, Elvis Presley and Dolly Parton, to name a few.

The original members included Greg Doolan, Rob Rosenlund, Tony Jeffery, Peter Mackay and Pahnne Jantzen, proudly referred to as 'the boys'. Sadly, Jantzen, born in 1939, passed away in 2013.

With a varied career in the 1980s including a top 10 hit with Moonlight Marvel in 1982, 14 television specials, and working as ambassadors for Expo88 in Brisbane, Wickety Wak decided to end their career in 1990. With agreement from all members, the band disbanded, but reformed in 2006 for the Gympie Music Muster, with some of the members continuing to perform after the show.

This year marks the legendary Wickety Wak's 40th birthday and the boys, namely Doolan, Rosenlund and Jeffrey, have decided to celebrate the events by performing one of the most hilarious concerts of the year.

They will take their audience on an audio visual production of their live performances in a fantastic and enthralling show integrated with film footage from their successful television series with Channel 7 from the 1980s.

Paying tribute to their dearly missed New Zealander brother Pahnne Jantzen, the boys will use today's technology to bring him back to the stage with highlights on screen of his career, along with the now retired member Peter Mackay.

Laura Doolan and a few hand-picked musicians who have toured with Wickety Wak over the years have been invited to join the boys on the tour, with some favourites in the performance including Kenny & Dolly, the Bee Gees, and the Three Bells.

Returning for an encore performance to the Redcliffe Cultural Centre, Wickety Wak are sure to rock your socks off! ●●

BAD BOYS BY THE BAY

.....

The end of year stress is almost here, and there are few better ways to celebrate than a night out with friends. As the silly season approaches, one venue is determined to make sure that they put the fun back into the festivities. To help kick off their party season, Mon Komo Hotel is bringing some of the country's most well-known entertainers to the Peninsula. And ladies, if you like some eye candy with your stunning ocean views, you're really in for a treat.

Friday 13th November will see the Caribbean Islands Room come alive as Badboys take to the stage.

Badboys Australia has been hailed as the 'ultimate ladies night out', a sizzling and sexy blend of dance, acrobatics, and good fun that has been conquering the globe for over a decade. The all-Aussie troupe of performers has wowed audiences and cultivated an enormous fan base around the world with their energetic and mesmerising performances. For fans of the Magic Mike movie franchise, this is a fantastic chance to see the skills of Channing Tatum's competition- and judging from audience feedback, Channing has his work cut out for him.

Those who have seen previous Badboys shows have said it's a great chance to have a ladies night out with friends. To help guests make the most of their night off, Mon Komo has organised three tiers of tickets: bronze, silver, and gold.

For those just wanting to enjoy the show, bronze tickets are $30pp. Step up to silver level for $60pp, and you'll also get a buffet dinner prior to the show. But for those who feel like savouring the show from the VIP lounge after their buffet dinner, gold tickets will be worth every cent of their $75. Be warned though, there are only a limited number of gold tickets available, so get in quick to secure your spot.

For gold and silver ticket holders, the buffet dinner will be served at 6:30pm. Doors to the show will open at 7:30pm, with the show kicking off at 8pm.

To book your tickets, call Mon Komo on 3284 6520 ●●

IN STITCHES WITH SKITCH

by Melissa Bailey

Liz Skitch is a comedian, actor, writer and director specialising in clowning, having trained at the school of Phillippe Gaulier in London. Skitch's work over the last 15 years has seen internationally touring productions with her theatre company Debase Productions, creating brilliant new comedies.

Skitch's most recent work is taking her throughout Queensland to keep us on the edge of our seats. Her current work 'Spoilt' has played in the Melbourne Comedy Festival in 2014, the Brisbane Powerhouse, Knox Arts Centre, Doncaster Playhouse and 6PAC. Spoilt, a hilarious new comedy depicts the lives of five funny females, inspired by real women, played by Skitch. A failed reality-TV star, a celebrity personal trainer, a karaoke-singing-wedding celebrant, café latte-sipping-dog-lover and a hapless bride-to-be are all portrayed with accuracy by Skitch with only a few pieces of costume, some carefully placed wigs and the donning of various heels.

As each character prepares for the upcoming 'wedding of the year', Skitch transforms for the audience. The big day approaches and the lives of each of the characters clash and intertwine before the most hilarious wedding reception is experienced in the show's climax.

"I found the characters while reading magazines that feature stories on real people. The kind of stories you find yourself recounting and saying 'can you believe someone actually did that?!'" Says Skitch.

Skitch, herself married in 2012, admits that her own wedding influenced her decision to place the show's bride-to-be as the centre of the story. Taming her own Bridezilla, Skitch confesses wedding stress can encourage even the calmest of brides to turn into a monster!

Produced by Debase Productions and supported by The Playing Queensland Fund and arTour, the show is part of initiatives of the Queensland Government through Arts Queensland, part of the Department of the Premier and Cabinet.

Skitch will be visiting Redcliffe on 18 November at the Redcliffe Cultural Centre on Downs St, Redcliffe from 7.30pm to spoil us with Spoilt. Please contact the box office on ph: 3283 0407 to book your tickets to this hilarious comedy. ●●

Mon Komo started as a dream of the developers to build a resort style establishment by the water. Redcliffe was an obvious location due to the spectacular view. In 2007, developers purchased the old Seabrae Hotel and work started from there.

In November 2011, the doors opened on a new establishment with so much more to offer Redcliffe locals and visitors.

Mon Komo meaning “my dream place” was a design based on the developers favourite resort in the Caribbean. That Caribbean theme extends throughout the hotel as well as inspiring the hotel's menus.

The hotel features a full service restaurant called Caribbee, The Cabana Bar and Terrace which offers a more casual dining space and menu, and the Seabrae Bar, named after the old hotel site; a sports bar that also offers a casual dining menu.

Executive head chef, Jerome Hangan oversees the menu, staff and all things food throughout the hotel. Originally from Darwin, Hangan moved to Cairns after school to pursue a career in professional basketball. A friend in Cairns was a chef and that piqued his interest in the hospitality industry.

Hangan completed his four-year apprenticeship in 1995 at which time took his career to soaring heights. He became a head chef only after a year, and was given an opportunity to lead a kitchen in Papua New Guinea.

He has now moved to the Peninsula and has a wonderful opportunity with the Mon Komo Hotel.

“The thing I like the most about this place is there's no pretention. It's exciting to cater for such a varied demographic. People don't have to go to Brisbane or the Sunshine Coast for a good meal. There's great food right here,” Hangan says.

After six months in his new role, Hangan has revamped all menus throughout the hotel, adding flavours from his worldwide experience.

With a variety of fresh foods and dining settings, and prices to suit a range of budgets, there's something for everyone to enjoy.

Mon Komo Hotel is located at 99 Marine Parade, Redcliffe. Phone 3284 6520.

A WORD FROM OUR REPRESENTATIVES

James Houghton

Council has completed its review of the new draft planning scheme following community feedback .

All properly made submissions received were carefully considered and Council has now written to the Deputy Premier seeking her approval to adopt the final version of the draft scheme. The Plan is now expected to deliver the Moreton Bay Region's blueprint for sustainable planning and infrastructure delivery over coming years.

Queensland Government approval is also being sought for a coastal erosion study to better localise the State's Erosion Prone Area mapping and would make Moreton Bay the first council in Queensland to compile this type of localised coastal erosion study. All submitters to the New Draft Planning Scheme have now been informed on how their feedback had helped influence the future of our Region which is one of Australia's fastest growing urban areas.

The new Scheme helps to balance our community's expectations for growth and development while also protecting what we love about our region.

Yvette D'Ath MP

Over the coming weeks our local schools will be holding their graduation and awards ceremonies to recognise the academic, artistic, cultural and sporting achievement of students. These ceremonies are a highlight of the school year and generate a sense of hope and pride for students and their families. They also provide the opportunity to express our appreciation for the dedication of our school teachers and support staff.

Congratulations to our graduating students and award recipients and I wish you well in your chosen field of endeavour. This is a time of important change in your life as many new and exciting opportunities present themselves.

Have a great time at graduation. After a long year of hard work and the stress of assessments, you are entitled to let your hair down, but it's important to stay safe. If you are attending schoolies or similar celebrations, stick with your friends, look out for each other and make smart choices.

Luke Howarth MP

Thank you to all the Redcliffe locals who have returned my Biggest Survey. So far, community feedback had helped me deliver vital infrastructure like CCTV cameras along Margate CBD and Suttons Beach, an extension of Deception Bay PCYC facilities and a Dolphin Stadium upgrade. The Moreton Bay Rail Link is steaming towards completion and construction has begun on the Gateway Motorway Upgrade from Bracken Ridge to Nudgee.

I need your feedback to be able to deliver more for our area, so keep the responses coming! You can fill out the survey online at www.lukehowarth.com.au

A LEGACY LIVES ON, 70 YEARS IN THE MAKING

“Once in a lifetime – and once in an industry – comes such a man!”

A comment by Sir Raphael Cilento

“The Father of the Australian Building Industry,” Manuel Richard Hornibrook was born in Brisbane in 1893. He received little formal education, attending four primary schools from Obi Obi to South Brisbane.

Manuel's first full time work was with H W Fooks Building and Joinery Works in Adelaide Street. At 13 years of age he became an apprentice with the firm.

When his employer was absent with illness, Manuel at the age of 17 worked out a price to restore fire damage to a building in Rothwell. He then assembled a workforce and did the job for less than half the contract price.

Soon after, he left the firm and went into a building business partnership for the next two years.

Having succeeded as a house builder, M R Hornibrook expanded the business to include civil engineering construction and did a home study course in quantity surveying with International Correspondence Schools.

MR's bridge building career began in 1925-6, when his firm built an eight span reinforced concrete structure for the Queensland Main Roads Board at Howard in the Burrum Shire.

Eventually he constructed more than 100 bridges including the Indooroopilly Bridge, the William Jolly Bridge, the Victoria Bridge, the Story Bridge (with Evans Deakin Ltd) and the Hornibrook Highway.

It was in seeking a solution to find work for his men during the depression years that he began the most ambitious venture of his career, building Australia's longest bridge, the Hornibrook Highway. Construction began in June 1932 and the opening took place on 4th October 1935...70 years ago.

Sydney provided the setting for the most spectacular job in MRH's long and varied career – the world famous Sydney Opera House. Apart from being the most glamorous project, the structure was also the most complex. It was unique and was the 'brain-child' of Mr Jorn Utzon of Denmark, winner of the world-wide Sydney Opera House Design Competition in 1957. This was the type of challenge to bring joy to Manuel Hornibrook's heart and he took an intense and active interest in every phase of the work.

Sir Manuel died on 30th May 1970 aged 76.

FIRED UP 4 ART

by Natalia Balo

Fired Up 4 Art is a joint exhibition of the award-winning local potters and artists Alex Enborisoff and Natalia Balo. Celebrating the outstanding artistic achievements of local individual talents and promoting collaboration of professional artists with community pottery art groups. Art, clay and fire are brought together to inspire creativity of the artists that result in this beautiful show that concludes the spectacular first exhibition season (2015) at the Old Redcliffe Fire Station art gallery.

Alex Enborisoff is a driving force behind the exhibition; his innovative landscapes display a very individual style and demonstrate his expertise of the most distinguished Redcliffe City architect and city planner, and highlight his interest in the history of architecture. The artworks displayed are a part of his series "Legends and Icons of Redcliffe". The spirit of local old buildings is recreated in his large painting of a very limited palette. With his sure hand he lovingly outlines the Redcliffe vanishing historical cityscape and icons such as the gloving in the dark Gayundah wreck, Comono Arcade and of course the Old Fire Station building depicted in its yesteryear prime.

The outstanding quality and innovation achieved in the field of pottery is lavishly presented by ceramic exhibits created by Redcliffe Pottery Group and North Pine Country Park Potters. The impressive artistic excellence of ceramics on display is a result of individual experience and artistic talent as well as enthusiasm and communal spirit of the members of these largest potters groups in Moreton Bay region.

The exhibition is showcasing an inspiring variety and outstanding quality of art, Fired Up 4 Art is a real highlight for the art lovers in the approaching holiday season, offering Christmas gift ideas for all tastes and budgets. ●●

The Moreton Bay Region Libraries, including the Redcliffe Library, in partnership with The Smith Family, a well-known children's charity helping disadvantaged Australian children make the most of their education and create better futures.

The partnership has lead to the Moreton Bay Region's Book Appeal, which encourages Moreton Bay Region residents to donate generously to the charity to improve children's literacy throughout the region. Disadvantaged students are on average two to three years behind in reading and maths by the time they reach the age of 15 years and have significantly lower Year 12 completion rates.

Last year, over 130,000 disadvantaged Australian children and their families were supported by The Smith Family support programs. In 2015, The Smith Family aims to deliver more than 43,500 new toys and 29,000 new books to disadvantaged children throughout Australia.

"The gap in achievement and educational outcomes between kids in our most disadvantaged communities compared to their better off peers... is getting wider. These kids are doing it tough and they really need our help," says CEO of The Smith Family, Dr Lisa O'Brien.

From 19 October to 4 December, the Moreton Bay Region Libraries (including Albany Creek Library, Arana Hills Library, Burpengary Library, Caboolture Library, Deception Bay Library, North Lakes Library, Redcliffe Library, Strathpine Library, Woodford Library and mobile libraries) will be accepting new books and gold coin donations on behalf of The Smith Family's support program.

"To date, residents in the Moreton Bay Region have helped donate more than 6,380 books and generously raised more than $8,700, and I'm again encouraging residents to support this fantastic cause," Moreton Bay Regional Council Mayor Allan Sutherland says.

Donations can be made at any Moreton Bay Region Library and proceeds will go directly to disadvantaged families throughout the region.

For more information about The Smith Family's projects to support children in need, please visit <https://www.thesmithfamily.com.au/get-involved/give-toys-or-books>. For information about the Moreton Bay Region's Book Appeal please visit www.moretonbay.qld.gov.au/libraries or phone (07) 3205 0555. ●●

MAN UP

HISTORY IS MADE ON BEE GEES WAY

by Susie Laery

It's not every community that can boast of being the hometown of some of the world's best-selling music artists of all time. Well, Redcliffe can and they are clearly proud of the fact. This was evident at the opening of the second stage of the Bee Gees Way during the Redcliffe Festival in September.

Barry Gibb was there for the poignant and historic occasion that saw him unveil a glass structure that holds a replica of the Bee Gee's first contract that they signed with Bill Goode and Bill Gates at Redcliffe in 1959.

Moreton Bay Regional Council Mayor Allan Sutherland said thousands of music fans made the pilgrimage to Redcliffe to witness the official unveiling of Stage Two of Bee Gees Way.

"Barry Gibb has been heavily involved in the creative and artistic aspects of the Stage Two upgrade of Bee Gees Way and has been keen to share even more Bee Gees material with his home town of Redcliffe," Mayor Sutherland said.

New elements to the walkway include new Bee Gees memorabilia personally curated by Barry Gibb, murals of each of the brothers and a bronze statue. The statue was designed and sculpted by Brendale sculptor Phillip Piperides and depicts the Bee Gees as men at the height of their musical career. Phillip Piperides also sculpted the original statue of the young Bee Gees that stands in the walkway.

A shelter extending the full length of the walkway is a new addition, along with a large outdoor audio-visual screen displaying the history and music of the Bee Gees.

The opening of Stage Two of Bee Gees Way enabled Barry Gibb to reconnect with the place he so fondly remembered as a child.

"My memories of my time in Redcliffe are as vivid today as when I was running around barefoot with my brothers exploring its many treasures," said Barry.

"Moreton Bay Regional Council has allowed me to share even more memories of my time in Redcliffe, stories from different eras of our lives and career, and honour my brothers Robin, Maurice and Andy."

As Mayor Sutherland says, "Bee Gees Way tells the story of the Gibb brothers' incredible journey from the Redcliffe Speedway to the top of the world music charts." Mayor Sutherland added, "In many respects it has been a way of saying thanks to the fans for their support and to Redcliffe as the place where it all started for the Bee Gees more than five decades ago.

The upgrade to the walkway has been formally recognised by the State Government as a Queensland Place name. During the opening Queensland Deputy Premier Jackie Trad announced the walkway was officially gazetted.

Bee Gees Way is open 24 hours- a-day, seven days- a-week with access via Redcliffe Parade and Sutton Street. ●●

Chanelle Avison, winner of the Outstanding Volunteer Longman Award 2015, is delivering a special kind of Christmas cheer this year. As a mother of 3 children with autism spectrum disorder, Chanelle understands the pressure, stress and stigma associated with arranging a photo with the big man in red at Christmas time for children with special needs.

"It's a time of year that many families with children who have special needs struggle with. Many of them would love a photo with Santa, but it's very difficult," says Avison.

Noting that many children who suffer from anxiety, ADHD, sensory disorders, autism and asperger's require a different set up to other children to feel comfortable, Chanelle created Sensory Santa.

Sensory Santa allows children with special needs a quiet space, with lower lighting and a chair next to Santa. Providing these children with the opportunity to meet Santa and experience something so many other children experience every year has made a big difference for many families.

"Many families, including the siblings miss out on photos with Santa due to sensory overload in brightly lit shopping centres with lots of noise," says Avison.

"This is an opportunity for families to have that special photo. You don't realise how special it is until you see your friends' photo albums filled up year after year."

Sensory Santa is visiting throughout Queensland for children with special needs and their siblings. Locally, Sensory Santa will be visiting Toombul, Taigum, Brookside, Chermiside, Strathpine and Morayfield shopping centres.

Sensory Santa will visit Strathpine on 15 November and 13 December between 8am and 9.45am (contact the centre on 3817 9601 or email concierge.strathpine@scentregroup.com for your 5 minute appointment).

Visits to Morayfield shopping centre will occur on 29 November, 13 December and 20 December. Please call Chanelle on 0422 416 509 to make your appointment at Morayfield and to find out more about the other shopping centre visits..

Additionally, Strathpine shopping centre will be hosting a Santa Sensory Breakfast on 28 November from 8am to 9am for $5, with funds raised being donated to charity. Please call (07) 3817 9601 to book. ●●

Australia honours its citizens who have made outstanding achievements and contributions to our society.

Moreton Bay Regional Council has launched its annual Australia Day Awards and is looking to recognise individuals who have made a significant contribution to the Moreton Bay community.

Mayor Allan Sutherland said council wanted to recognise people whose actions had improved the lives of others in the community, inspired people and enhanced the reputation of the Region.

"The theme of these awards is 'Pride of our Region', and we're looking for those people who have contributed to our community or accomplished something that we can all aspire to and be proud of," Mayor Sutherland said.

"We have an outstanding community here in Moreton Bay, with so many people working every day to make this a great place to live. These awards provide residents with an opportunity to nominate someone who is going the extra mile for this region, and help them get some much deserved recognition for their efforts."

The Awards will recognise Moreton Bay residents in the following seven categories:

Citizen of the Year

The winner will be an inspirational role model for the community and demonstrate a continued commitment to their field.

Young Citizen of the Year

Recognises a young person (25 years and below) for their outstanding contribution to the Moreton Bay community during the preceding year, or over numerous years.

Volunteer of the Year

Recognises the exemplary volunteer service and contribution of an individual to the Moreton Bay community.

Sports Award

Celebrates an individual for their sporting achievements of the region.

Youth Sports Award

Celebrates a young person (25 years and below) for their sporting achievements.

Vicci Gates: Volunteer of the Year is just one of the awards up for grabs in the Moreton Bay Regional Council Australia Day Awards.

NOMINATE 'INSPIRING CONTRIBUTORS' FOR AUSTRALIA DAY AWARDS

.....

Arts and Culture Award

Celebrates an individual for their creative achievements and their contribution towards the arts and cultural achievement of the region.

Environment Award

Celebrates an individual for their environmental achievements and their contribution towards the preservation and maintenance of the region's natural environment.

"I encourage anyone who knows someone deserving of recognition to submit a nomination. There's a lot of unsung heroes in the region and a little bit of recognition often means a hell of a lot to them," Mayor Sutherland said.

Nominations are open now and must be submitted via the online form at <https://www.moretonbay.qld.gov.au/ausawards/>. Nominations will close on November 13, 2015. ●●

GATEWAY UPGRADE DESIGN AT FINAL STAGE

Work on designing the Gateway North upgrade has progressed to the final stage following community feedback and further technical and environmental investigations.

Federal Member for Petrie Luke Howarth said the project will deliver a much needed capacity and safety upgrade for Redcliffe locals who join more than 80,000 motorists on the Gateway each day.

“Major construction is expected to start early next year, and will involve widening an 11.3-kilometre section from four to six lanes between Nudgee and Bracken Ridge, upgrading the Nudgee Road interchange and widening the Deagon Deviation to two lanes in both directions,” Mr Howarth said.

Motorists travelling north will be able to exit the motorway just before Depot Road and continue on a new overpass over the motorway for a seamless connection to Redcliffe.

“The on-ramp at Boondall will be permanently closed as part of the upgrade, however this won’t happen until the new overpass is complete, to allow time for motorists to get used to the new route.”

The Nudgee interchange upgrade will involve lengthening the on and off-ramps significantly to provide safer merging and exiting opportunities for motorists. Pedestrians and cyclists will also benefit from a new shared path along the entire length of the upgrade.

The project will support more than 1,000 direct jobs during its lifespan.

The Australian Government has committed $929.6 million and the Queensland Government $232.4 million to the Gateway Upgrade North project.

To view the features of the design online, visit the project webpage at www.gatewayupgradenorth.com.au and click on the September 2015 newsletter. ●●

PROPERTY MARKET UPDATE

HEATING UP

by Jody Allison-McLachlan

It doesn't just seem to be the weather that is heating up on the Peninsula.

Market activity appears to be running hot as well. Spoilt for choice when it comes to an agent Sellers are definitely making a move and listing their properties for sale. Once again a gentle reminder to sellers to be careful and consider your options when selecting the right agent and marketing campaign for your home.

Selecting the way you are going to sell your home – Auction, By Negotiation or even Tender aren't the only things to consider. Consider the marketing and advertising method you will employ when selecting the agent. Consider if the agent and their agency are the right fit for your home and it's location. And again as we have highlighted previously, how much are you going to invest to maximise the exposure to your target market and maximise on return?

Smart Property Investment Magazine has reported that in Brisbane, house sales jumped 4.8% to 39,774 and unit sales rose 10.27% to 19,318. Nationally, house sales rose 3% to 334,497 for the year and unit sales increased 2.8% to 162,824. More specifically it shows Redcliffe growth in house sales at 2.3% over the last 12 months and unit growth at 7.25%. Whilst the house movement is a little low, it is still on the move. It is also nice for investors to see their rental yields gently increasing as well with a rise of 4.81%

Onthehouse's September property market update has also shown that annual sales activity has grown in all major capitals except Sydney, Perth and Darwin.

Considering it's time to sell or buy? Drop by and see Jody, Ian or one of the team at 91 Marine Pde, Redcliffe, obligation free.

7 TIPS FOR BUYING YOUR NEXT PROPERTY IN REDCLIFFE

by Paul Derry

It is no secret that we have been experiencing a “sellers market” locally and indeed through South East Queensland. It has been relatively easy for vendors to sell just about any property this year. In tougher times though, challenged and problematic properties generally require larger discounts to sell and can sit on the market for a very long time.

This is why I believe it is more important now more than ever to be choosy when looking for your next property; buy right and buy a property with some upside too - both are forms of good self “insurance” for market or personal circumstance changes. As I have learnt first hand (more than once), we never know when or how our circumstances will change over time, sometimes requiring us to sell, and we certainly have no control over property market variations!

Here are a few tips to increase your chances of buying well in the current market.

1. Get Advice from your team of professionals.

Buying a property is a HUGE financial undertaking and is fraught with risk! You should ALWAYS seek professional advice before committing to such a large purchase whether it be for investment purposes or a place of residence.

2. Identify your property needs, must haves and nice-to-haves.

Invest some time in planning with your partner, family or even a loyal friend and be clear about the property you need and what you may or may not be willing to compromise on.

3. Know your market!

How do you recognise a fairly priced, or better still, a well priced, property? Research, Local Knowledge, Experience and did I mention, Research!

One of the fastest ways to check out the local property market is to spend Saturday's attending open houses and auctions, as well as driving past recent sales! As far as research goes, there is an abundance of information at your fingertips on the internet... fast and free! Dig around on www.realestate.com.au, www.domain.com.au and www.onthehouse.com.au.

Moreton Bay Regional Council also has extensive property information including PD Online Property Enquiry, the Flood Check Flood Explorer etc.

Getting to know the market is daunting at first. If you are starting out your search or feeling a little overwhelmed, take a small step this Saturday and visit a handful of open inspections! As they say, the first step is always the hardest!

4. Be Organised

- Keep it simple and develop a system that works for you. After a while, one property blends into another so taking notes and being organised will make your search more efficient and less stressful.

5. Avoid Lemons

- Problem properties may cost you a bucket load of money, time and frustration, both in the short and the long term! Some issues that can significantly affect resale include flood, structural issues, non-approved buildings, extensions and renovations, pest infestation and damage, water damage, negative property history, main road/ rail corridor and other noisy locations, proximity to treatment plants, and many other issues. Once again, talk to your team of professionals!

6. Lose the emotions

- Once you have fine-tuned your requirements, set a goal but don't give in to a time deadline or be pressure to buy a property that doesn't suit your budget or needs! Buy the right property for you at the right price point! Have a back up plan in case you can't find what you need in your time frame!

7. Get competitive

- Get your ducks lined up! If a property represents good value, it will sell quick! Ask the selling agent what contract terms would best suit their seller. Talk to your team of professionals to find out exactly what you have to work with, and discuss practical terms you may be able to offer that will be attractive to the seller.

Happy House Hunting!

DON'T PLAY RENOVATION ROULETTE

There is no known safe level of exposure to asbestos fibres so it's very important to safely manage asbestos-containing materials that can be found in and around homes.

With 1 in 3 Australian homes containing asbestos in some form or another, and with the popularity of home renovation programs rising inspiring an ongoing boom in renovations, now more than ever before, homeowners, renovators, tradies and handymen need to Get to kNOw Asbestos this NOvember and visit asbestosawareness.com.au to protect themselves and their families from dangerous asbestos fibres.

Peter Dunphy Chair of the Asbestos Education Committee heading the national Asbestos Awareness Month campaign said, "Many Australians believe that only fibro homes contain asbestos but this couldn't be further from the truth.

"Because Australia was among the highest consumers of asbestos products in the world, asbestos-containing materials are common in homes built or renovated before 1987 with a broad range of products still commonly found in and around any brick, weatherboard, fibro or clad home.

"Without knowing where these products might be found in homes, people are playing 'Renovation Roulette' and putting their health and the health of families at risk so homeowners, renovators, tradesmen and handymen must Get to kNOw Asbestos this NOvember by taking the 20 Point Asbestos Safety Check at asbestosawareness.com.au to learn how to identify these products and manage asbestos safely," he said.

People would be surprised at where they might find the hidden danger of asbestos in a home built or renovated before 1987. It could be anywhere. Under floor coverings such as carpets, linoleum and vinyl tiles, behind wall and floor tiles, in cement floors, internal and external walls, ceilings and ceiling space (insulation), eaves, garages, roofs, around hot water pipes, fences, extensions to homes, garages, outdoor toilets, backyard and farm sheds, chook sheds and even dog kennels.

"By visiting asbestosawareness.com.au people will be able to easily search to identify the sorts of products to look for, the locations of where they might be found and learn how to manage it and dispose of it safely," he said.

Does your home contain asbestos? How would you kNOw? Stop playing Renovation Roulette! Get to kNOw Asbestos this November. Visit www.asbestosawareness.com.au and take the 20 Point Safety Check. Learn to identify products in your home or property that may contain asbestos, where it might be found and learn how to manage it and dispose of it safely. It's not worth the risk!
