Craft and Gift Fair

Help Quota, Help the Community

Local handmade items will be for sale at the Quota's Craft and Gift Fair / photo courtesy of Quota International

By Lisa Adams

Quota's* annual Craft and Gift Fair will be held at the Redcliffe Showgrounds, with handmade items for sale by local groups and artists to help raise funds to support the local community.

Quota's noble mission to empower women, children, the deaf, hard of hearing, and speech-impaired in local communities is reflected in the wonderful work done by this group every day, and this couldn't be achieved without community support.

The Craft and Gift Fair will showcase local handmade artists and groups through various stalls, workshops, and demonstrations. Jewellery, woodwork, patchwork, quilting, weaving, art, pottery, baked goods, chocolate bouquets, collectable bears, and much more will be available for purchase at the Fair.

"Other things to look out for include baby and kids wear, jams and pickles, paper-craft, cards and paper tole, and terrariums," says Kay Smallhorne of Redcliffe's Quota International.

Quota International operates in 14 countries around the world. They are a non-profit, non-partisan, non-sectarian organisation of diverse interest committed to sharing their time, talents, and resources to meet their service goals. Members are made up of all ages, occupations, and nationalities in a worldwide service of friendship.

Redcliffe's Quota Club began in 1957 and was the first women's service club in the area. Over the years, this active group has provided facilities for the local area such as Woody Point's Quota Park, the Sensory Garden at the Redcliffe Botanical Gardens, and play equipment at Railway Place Scarborough. In addition to this, Quota offers consistent aid to many local groups in need.

“Our club continues to offer support to Carmill and Pender Riding for the Disabled, Meals on Wheels, domestic violence refuge Jebb House, and Redcliffe Hospital. We have also been very proud to assist Hummingbird House, Queensland's only hospice for children,” explains Kay.

Proceeds from the event will go to support the many groups Redcliffe Quota International lend a hand to.

Plus, everyone who attends the Craft and Gift Fair will go into the draw to win a fabulous two-night getaway at the luxury Mooloolaba Newport Apartments valued at $800, plus an 'Indulgence Pack' with their lucky door ticket.

“After browsing the stalls, we invite all visitors to stay and enjoy our gourmet slices with a coffee or tea, or take a lunch break all of which has been popular in previous years,” Kay says.

PICNIC HILL TURNS ONE

Picnic Hill is celebrating its 1st Birthday on July 14.

The Redcliffe Area Youth Space (aka RAYS) is extremely thankful and humbled by the continuing community support Picnic Hill has received over the last 12 months.

Picnic Hill is much more than a Family Friendly Food Truck Festival, with live entertainment and street art that comes to life on the second Friday of every month.

Picnic Hill has enabled RAYS to continue to provide support and assistance to vulnerable young people and their families.

It has kept Young People busy on a Friday night by providing them with an opportunity to gain skills and confidence. Picnic Hill has also been fantastic at giving our young people a sense of belonging, increasing their social inclusion and capital.

Over the past year, 31 trainees have participated in the State Government's Skilling Queenslanders for Work Initiative at RAYS.

It was these young people who created, built, worked and marketed Picnic Hill. Of the 31 young people enrolled, 29 have found employment due to the confidence, skills and networking that Picnic Hill has created.

We have raised over $30,000 for our service to continue to support young people and their families at risk throughout Moreton Bay and North Brisbane.

The money that has been raised has gone towards crisis accommodation, emergency relief, domestic and family violence, school and sporting fees, counselling, AOD and mental health support, drivers licences and much more.

J2J Fun Run 2017

By Lisa Adams

This July, participants from far and wide will again experience one of Queensland's most popular fun runs.

Entering its 31st year, the Jetty 2 Jetty does not discriminate; this is an event for all running levels and ages. Whether you are a competitive runner or a casual walker, the Fun Run is an excellent opportunity to take in the stunning views of Redcliffe as the J2J course winds around the peninsula.

Moreton Bay Region Industry and Tourism CEO, Shane Newcombe, is encouraging everyone to sign up and have a go. "The J2J is such an iconic event in the Moreton Bay Region. Each year thousands of participants from all over Australia, and even internationally, head to Redcliffe to join in the fun," he says. "It's also great to see the whole community turn out to cheer on all the amazing entrants."

Moreton Bay Regional Council Mayor, Allan Sutherland, echoes these sentiments, reinforcing that the J2J is one of the most well-received fun runs in the state.

"Whether you want to challenge yourself or walk with a group of friends, there's an event for everyone," Mayor Sutherland explains.

This year, the J2J offers the Quest Community News 3km, Dolphins Health Precinct 5km, Bupa 10km, and Gleeson Klein Stegeman Lawyers Half Marathon (21km). Registration is still open, so it's certainly not too late to sign up.

Mayor Sutherland also reminds the community that there is a bigger purpose to the J2J event.

By taking part in the J2J, not only do you get to take in the best views along Moreton Bay, you also help to make a difference, with a portion of all the monies raised going to the Leukaemia Foundation. If it's your first time or your 31st time, J2J is an event not to be missed."

HERE'S TO GOOD HEALTH

For anyone getting their fitness fix at the Jetty 2 Jetty fun run in July, don't forget to go one step further in your quest for wellness with a visit to the Healthy Living Expo taking place in conjunction with the event.

Event coordinator Kathryn Richards says the expo, now in its third year, is always an exciting addition to the long-standing annual Jetty 2 Jetty fun run.

"The 2017 Jetty 2 Jetty Fun Run is the longest running fun run in southeast Queensland, and the Healthy Living Expo will showcase a number of businesses and market stalls that fit within the active living, health and wellness industries," she says.

"The idea was sparked when discussing how to offer more to our participants and spectators — the expo is a great way to add greater value to the event, whether you are a runner or spectator."

The Expo will offer a variety of health and wellbeing market stalls from a range of health and fitness related services such as health foods and vitamins, physiotherapy, podiatry, gyms, private health care and services.

"The vision for The Healthy Living Expo is to continue the integrity of health and wellness related products and services we offer to participants and spectators at an all inclusive event," Kathryn says.

"Visitors can expect anything from free massages and consultations to posture checks and fitness competitions.

"There's active wear, cosmetics to browse, and after the race, you can visit the Rebel Warm Down Zone, while treating yourself to post-race food and beverages."

Kathryn says the event has garnered great feedback from the community including stallholders, participants and spectators.

“ This event allows local businesses the opportunity to showcase their product or service in an environment that is targeted to the health and wellness industry,” she says.

"It's such a great conversation starter with health and fitness-related businesses interested in promoting their product or brand while also engaging within the local community — it's a very popular element to the main Jetty 2 Jetty event."

Set Sail this Winter

Brush the cobwebs off the boat during this winter season and head on down to the Humpybong Yacht Club's Winter Bash.

By Lisa Adams

For the second year running, Humpybong Yacht Club is taking advantage of the beautiful winter weather to host the competition. Brisbane's moderate winds, smoother seas, and milder temperature makes it the ideal time to sail.

President of the club, David Begley, designed the event's two-day program, making it open to all sailing craft, yachts, trailer sailors, catamarans, and all classes of off the beach catamarans and dinghies.

"On the second day, we start the race close to shore, and we aim to let the public see the yachts under sail at Woody Point and Shorncliffe," David explains. "The yachts will have their spinnakers up either on the way up the Redcliffe Peninsula, or on the way back, and we keep them close to the shore."

Last year saw 58 competitors take part in the Winter Bash and, this year, Humpybong Yacht Club is hoping for even more. "I am hoping we get up to 80 this year," says David.

The club would love to see everyone come and support this premier all-classes sailing regatta.

WINTER BASH PROGRAM

DAY 1: A three lap race around three buoys that are set out in the bay with no recourse to the wind or weather. The winner is the best corrected time based on the yachts class rating/handicap.

DAY 2: A fixed point race which starts in Bramble Bay, runs up to the Woody Point Jetty, heads south to Shorncliffe Jetty, follows the coast up to the Redcliffe Light and returns to the finish at Woody Point Jetty. It is about 23 nautical miles and can be shortened or lengthened according to the weather forecast.

HAVE A Dizzy DAY OUT

Look into my eyes — things are set to get hypnotically hilarious when the Kidney Support Network Queensland hosts comedy hypnotist Dizzy on Sunday, July 30, at the QCWA Hall at Woody Point.

Hailing from Brisbane, Dizzy will present an entertaining show that bridges the gap between art, science and the human mind.

Kidney Support Network Queensland Treasurer and fundraising committee member Adriana Hewett says the afternoon is a great way to help out the organisation while having an enjoyable afternoon with the community.

“The support group started on the Peninsula 10 years ago, and our local fundraising events in the past have allowed the Redcliffe and Northern Districts Support Group of KSN to purchase gel cushions, blanket warmers, DVD players and much more,” she says.

“We regularly hold events for patients at the Redcliffe Hospital Renal Unit and the North Lakes Renal Clinic, so this event is a great opportunity to continue that support.”

The organisation is one close to Adriana’s heart, with her daughter undergoing kidney dialysis for more than 14 years at Redcliffe Hospital.

“I became involved with the organisation because of my daughter, so I have seen first-hand the effects of the condition,” she says.

“Patients sit in a chair hooked up to a machine for up to five hours a day, three days per week.

“If they stop then they die, it is as simple as that. I like to think that we can make a difference to them.”

Held at the QCWA Hall in Woody Point, the event will be a fun and affordable afternoon for the whole family.

Adriana says food and alcohol will be available on the day, as well as tea, coffee and other treats.

“We will have lucky board numbers with cash prizes of $100 and $50, as well as raffles, games and lucky door prizes,” she says.

There will be something there for everybody as ‘Fun Fun Fun’ is the theme for the afternoon.”

The Kidney Support Network is also looking for community members to become involved as volunteers, with opportunities including visiting renal patients, attending Kidney Health Awareness events, fundraising, dialysis patient relaxation massage and op shop sales.

■ To purchase tickets to the event or to express interest in volunteering with the Kidney Support Network visit trybooking.com/QIAD and ksn.org.au.

MOTOR INTO THE CORVETTE CLASSIC

Rev up, roll up or stroll up — whatever you choose don't miss your chance to hang out with a stack of sleek street machines when the 18th Annual Corvette Classic parks itself at Pelican Park, Clontarf on Sunday, July 30.

Crowds will be able to see up to 100 Corvettes on display on the day, from the earliest versions dating to the 1950s to the most modern 2016 model — and they range from being in original condition right through to some incredible customised creations.

Corvette Classic organiser and club secretary Jan Earney says the event has gone from strength to strength.

"This event is always one of the largest in Australia showcasing these American icons," she says.

"In the past 18 years we have moved the site a couple of times, but the current location at Pelican Park overlooking the ocean has been perfect for us.

"The Corvette is America's favourite sports car and has the unique distinction of being the only car in continuous production for 65 years — so people always come to any event where they can view these spectacular vehicles."

The cars won't be the only stars at the Corvette Classic, and Jan says there will be plenty to keep families entertained and fed.

"We have food and beverage vans, the local radio station 99.7FM will be broadcasting from the site, there will be a jumping castle and fairy floss for the kids, a C5 replica race car will be on display, plus there will be pace cars and unique Corvettes to view," she says.

"There are also die-cast models, sponsor displays and car products for sale."

But Jan says nothing quite compares to getting up close and personal with the American classics.

Being able to get up close to the cars on display is a special experience for the children," she says.

"Corvette owners always tell stories about how they first saw one as a child, and they couldn't wait to own one. We hope to inspire a new generation of Corvette enthusiasts this year.

"They are displayed with the bonnets open, and this means that people can wander around and get a good look at the engineering. The owners are always available to chat to, and they love to show off their pride and joys."

■ The 18th Annual Corvette Classic is at Pelican Park, Clontarf on Sunday, July 30. Entry to the general public is free, entering a Corvette for display is $20. Phone 0400 300 129 for more details on entering your car.

SCARBOROUGH'S HIDDEN SECRET

Tucked away in one of the Peninsula's most picturesque locations, The Hideaway Bar and Restaurant is the newest inclusion to the area's dining scene and a well kept local secret.

Owner and chef Deborah Haren has owned the restaurant for three months and says she is excited about the challenge of a new venture and a new direction.

"I've been in the hospitality industry for over 40 years working in many amazing places including Fraser Island and Great Keppel Island, to name a few," she says.

"I can't wait to grow my new business in the Peninsula region and share my dishes with the locals."

Deborah says the restaurant specialises in freshly cooked meals and is proud of its good old-fashioned cuisine, which has received great feedback from the community.

"We offer customers a wonderful dining experience for all ages, including intimate evening dining as well as the ability to host special functions," she says.

"But we are well renowned for our light, inexpensive lunches including dishes such as freshly battered barramundi and chips, calamari and a range of gourmet burgers.

"The Hideaway is also fully licensed, so customers can enjoy a tippie or two with their meal."

The restaurant, like its name, is hidden just out of the way on Prince Edward Parade, a block back from Scarborough's scenic seascape.

“ I love the pace of life in the area, which is really relaxed and laid back, the stunning scenery and most of all, the friendly locals," she says.

"The Hideaway is the perfect place for the community to have a small yet special get-together, just a little out of the way."

The Hideaway Restaurant and Bar offers lunch and dinner as well as a wide range of homemade dessert options.

$SMART $SAVINGS

Budget empowers Redcliffe residents

Peninsula residents can get a bit of extra cash in their back pockets after the State Government's latest budget delivered a raft of concessions designed to help those in need, particularly when it comes to paying the power bill.

Among the budget offerings, Moreton Bay's seniors and pensioners can access an electricity bill rebate of up to $330 a year and residents with a Commonwealth Health Care Card have an extra six months (to December 31) to apply for a backdated electricity rebate covering entitlements from January 1 this year.

But it's not only about electricity savings, says Redcliffe MP Yvette D'Ath. Mrs D'Ath says Redcliffe residents should visit the new Smart Savings website at www.qld.gov.au/smartsavings or phone 13 74 68 to discover the concessions for which they are eligible.

“ The Smart Savings website brings together all of the Government's many concessions and rebates into one location,” she says.

“There are 16 categories that cover everything from the Spectacle Supply Scheme and Home Assist Secure, to Rental Bond Loans.

“There [is] a range of special discounted rates for seniors, people with health issues, young people going into training and many more.”

The budget isn't only about concessions. Mrs D'Ath says Redcliffe students will benefit thanks to about $11 million allocated to school infrastructure projects.

“This includes $4.5 million for Redcliffe Special School to construct more classrooms as part of a project worth a total $6.5 million,” she says.

“$4.6 million will also go to Redcliffe State High School to construct a new hall and administration building as part of a project worth $6.1 million in total.

“Clontarf Beach State High School, Redcliffe State High School, Scarborough State School and Kippa-Ring State School will also receive funding under the School Infrastructure Enhancement Program.

“In Health, $4.6 million is going to Redcliffe Hospital to refurbish the Day Procedure Unit, which will improve workflow at the hospital. This project is worth a total $6.6 million.

“Another $7 million has also been allocated to Redcliffe Hospital to add more acute beds.

‘Our Languages Matter’ is the extremely poignant theme at the heart of NAIDOC Week celebrations this year, and there are plenty of ways to get involved in events both in our region and throughout Brisbane.

NAIDOC Week, from 2-9 July, celebrates the history, culture and achievements of Aboriginal and Torres Strait Islander peoples, and Michael Connolly of Dreamtime Kullilla Art at Clontarf says this year’s theme is a vital one.

“Some 250 distinct indigenous language groups covered the continent at first (and significant) European contact in the late 18th century,” he says.

“Most of these languages would have had several dialects so that the total number of named varieties would have run to many hundreds.

“Today, only around 120 of those languages are still spoken, and many are at risk of being lost as Elders pass on. The preservation and revitalisation of the Aboriginal and Torres Strait Islander languages — the original languages of this nation — is the preservation of priceless treasure, not just for Indigenous peoples, but for everyone.”

Michael says NAIDOC Week is an important part of the fabric of Australian culture, and while it is designated a week, the event sees Aboriginal and Torres Strait Islander cultures celebrated for the full month of July.

“It’s very important, especially to Aboriginal people to share and have their culture respected,” he says.

“NAIDOC is really strong and basically stretches the whole of July. It has introduced Black History Month during which some Aboriginal person or event is recognised each day of July as part of a Black History Lesson.

“Make sure you check local council websites to see events on in your area.”

As always, Dreamtime Kullilla Art will be deeply involved.

“We are taking part in the big Musgrave Park Family Fun Day in South Brisbane on Friday, July 7,” Michael says.

“We virtually take our shop and set up a big stall, as we have done for the past ten years.

“To get some more cultural enlightenment, you should also come and say hello to us at the Redcliffe Jetty Markets of a Sunday or at the shop during the week.”

Redcliffe's ROBOTICS FUN FOR ADULTS!

By Melissa Bailey

Come along to the Redcliffe Library to enjoy free workshops on coding and robotics for beginner adults and seniors.

The Moreton Bay Regional Council is hosting fantastic workshops for residents 18 years or older to discover the practical side of robots and coding. This fun 90-minute hands-on workshop will introduce participants to the basics of coding and robotics using Blue-Bots Bluetooth Floor Robots.

"Participants don't require any previous knowledge of coding or robotics," says Council's Spokesperson for Lifestyle and Amenity, Cr Matt Constance. "They just need a willingness to learn something new."

The robots, controlled manually or by using an iPad will be run by participants who will learn to code, debug and write algorithms. Robots will follow participant instruction and perform right then and there!

"These sessions are about breaking down some of the barriers that adults and seniors may experience with new technology, and providing them with the confidence to expand their digital literacy skills," says Cr Constance. "Participants will not only develop a basic understanding of coding and robotics, but it's also a great way to discover new technology and improve your digital literacy skills using both robotic equipment and iPads."

This relaxed, friendly and easy-going program is ideal for adults, with no expectation that anyone will have any previous knowledge or experience with coding or robotics. The workshop is about having fun and enjoying yourself with likeminded people.

Robots for Beginners workshops will run until the end of August at libraries throughout the Moreton Bay region. Registrations are essential for this free workshop!

The Moreton Bay Regional Council Library members are welcome to register for the workshops for free. To join the Redcliffe Library and benefit from free events run by the Moreton Bay Regional Council, simply go to your local Moreton Bay Regional Council library with identification with your name and current residential address.

A WORD FROM OUR REPRESENTATIVES

Cr James Houghton

Council recently brought down its 2017/18 budget, which set an average rate rise of just over $1 per week throughout the region. Residents often say to me that any rises should be in line with CPI increases. However, CPI deals with increases in the cost of meat, eggs, fruit and vegetables, etc. Council, on the other hand, does not deal in those commodities. Instead, we purchase steel, bitumen, asphalt, concrete, fuel and machinery and wage rises, which are not in the general CPI category, hence the minor difference when referring to percentage figures.

I am pleased to announce that one of my great aims that I have been pursuing ever since I was elected to Council now looks like becoming a reality. That aim is to protect the red cliffs of Scarborough, which have been gradually eroding for many years. $1.2 million will initially be spent to stabilise this iconic landmark and provide added safety along Landsborough Avenue. Work will commence at the end of this year.

Yvette D'Ath MP

My number one priority as your State MP is improving frontline services and jobs for Redcliffe. I am therefore thrilled that the Palaszczuk Government's 2017-2018 Budget will support

Redcliffe schools and hospital infrastructure projects worth almost $29 million including:

- Five schools sharing $10.5 million of a total investment of $14million for the construction of new school classrooms, manual arts blocks and a school hall.
- $11.5 million in 2017-2018 of a $14.7 million investment in Redcliffe Hospital on two projects to refurbish the Day Procedure Unit and add 26 more acute beds.

Over the next five years, we will also invest $8.5 million to deliver 30 new social housing dwellings in Redcliffe.

$2.2 million has also been allocated to assist Redcliffe residents with a disability, as part of the transition to the National Disability Insurance Scheme and a further $1 million for local specialist homelessness services.

As your local MP, I'll continue working hard to support jobs and deliver services our community needs and deserves.

Luke Howarth MP

CHILD predators are experts in harnessing the power, anonymity and reach of technology for the purposes of harm.

They devote their lives to skirting around safeguards put in place to protect our children.

The Federal Government is hot on their heels with a new and important tool.

With a maximum penalty of 10 years imprisonment, 'Carly's Law' enables law enforcement authorities to intervene sooner to prevent harm.

It is an important step and a welcome addition to our community's combat artillery in the fight against online predators.

But we must also employ vigilance, engage in conversation with our kids and know the avenues for advice and support.

ZONTA BRINGS ZEST TO REDCLIFFE

By Melissa Bailey

Join Zonta Redcliffe in a special event just for teenage girls and their female carers.

This important event brings inspiration to girls and their female carers to learn to value education and how to keep themselves safe and well in today's society.

Zonta is an international service organisation designed to empower women through service and advocacy. Founded in Australia in 1966, it wasn't long before they made their way to our local area of Redcliffe. In 1980, the first Zonta meeting was held in Redcliffe, with their mission to improve the status of women worldwide. The ladies conduct club meetings and organise projects and activities to promote Zonta's goals through service, fellowship, networking and personal development.

This year will mark the first year Zonta hosts Zest, a unique event held just for teenage girls and their female carers. Recognising that teens may learn important information regarding education, mental health, cyber bullying and safety at school without discussing it at home, Zonta set about to create an event that included mothers, grandmothers or other female carers. By educating girls and their female carers together, Zonta hopes to bring a greater understanding of the issues that young people face, and how to work through them effectively.

"We want strong and confident women in our community," says Karen Prince, board member for the Redcliffe branch of Zonta. "We realised that to have these women we need to start showing them before they grow up."

Guest speakers from Headspace Redcliffe, the National Youth Mental Health Foundation for 12 to 25-year-olds, and Queensland Police Service will provide information, educational topics and resources to both teenage girls and their family members to promote open communication and discussion on these important social issues.

“It's important to help teens and parents identify signs of stress, which can often be misunderstood in teenagers. Hopefully, this event will help open communication between teens and parents to support healthy and safe teens,” says Prince.

■ Join Zonta at The Belvedere Hotel's Seaspray Room in Woody Point on Sunday 6 August from 1pm-4pm. Tickets are $15 per person and include afternoon tea. For more information, contact Karen Prince on 0437 015 951 or Sue Marshall on 0412 563 492.

MATTERS OF THE Art

Moreton Bay locals can unearth their inner artist this July at Redcliffe's new Drawing and Perception course for over-50s, where potential Picassos can express themselves through art.

Internationally renowned local artist Daniele Lamarche-Sarvia is behind the creative concept, which came from a desire to offer visual art to a more mature audience in the area.

"I have always taught the art of drawing wherever I have lived, but now being in the over-50s group myself, I saw there was very little offered in the region for that age group in terms of basic general information that would open on other arenas of visual arts such as painting or photography," she says.

"Many people choose work over the arts and have their own families, but then there comes a time when they have more time for themselves to do their art and explore their passion.

"Drawing is also a fantastic way to keep your mind sharp and active."

Daniele has a long history with visual art, which began when she was 15 years old.

"I started to draw from life models at as a teenager and then majored in the arts in high school," she says.

“ I continued my journey in fine arts through further study, and at Beaux Arts, I majored in sculpture and graphic arts, before spending many years exploring and living throughout many continents around the world.

"I remember my tutors telling me to forget all my training in my final year to discover my style and explore; so I did, and continued to draw and sculpt, as well as teaching art."

Daniele says the Drawing and Perception course takes place over six weeks, allowing participants to experience a sequence of exercises challenging perceptions to enhance their drawing skills.

"The course is challenging, enjoyable and gives fast, permanent results," she says.

"Each lesson is 2½ hours, and I set the course as a journey by having each participant create a journal.

"The results are individual, but all participants discover new ways to see, perceive and draw while discovering new things about themselves.

"Participants should expect the unexpected."

■ Six-week course starts Tuesday July 11.

Budget Message from Yvette

The 2017-2018 Queensland Government Budget is providing valuable infrastructure for the Redcliffe Community, supporting local jobs and future frontline service delivery including:

- ✓ Redcliffe Hospital to receive $11.6 million for extra beds and critical improvements including a refurbished Day Procedure Unit;
- ✓ Local Schools to share in $11 million worth of capital works and upgrades including new Special School classrooms, and refurbished manual arts blocks;
- ✓ Dolphin Stadium Stage 2 this year to receive $618,000 of a total $1.1 million in State funding;
- ✓ Construction of Social Housing in Redcliffe - $8.5 million in construction work with 30 new houses;
- ✓ Moreton Island, $490,000 to complete upgrades on the Cowan Bypass Road;
- ✓ Redcliffe Harness Racing Club $60,000 for track upgrades and semaphore boards.

EINBUNPIN BEST OF FEST BACK IN 2017

Einbunpin Festival is back on July 30 with more entertainment, more stalls and more talented bayside locals on show.

But is it just more of the same? No way, says Deagon Ward Councillor Jared Cassidy, who will host the free family activities on the day in the expanded Festival Arena alongside Sandgate MP Stirling Hinchliffe, and will officially open the festival with Lord Mayor Graham Quirk.

"Building on the success of the last few years we have really focused on showcasing the talent of our local residents," Cr Cassidy says.

"We have four dedicated stage areas once again, but people will notice the size of these stages has been reduced meaning a more intimate atmosphere and a focus on smaller and more acoustic acts.

"We have also given local artists the opportunity to sell their artwork on the Bridge Gallery for the first time this year. Families voted with their feet last year and really supported the free activities in the Festival Arena area, so this is an area our program will focus on this year even more."

Along with the mullet tossing, tug-of-war and egg-and-spoon race at in the Festival Arena, crowds can also get in on all the food, trinkets and treats the community has to offer.

"Our local schools always put on an amazing display of cakes, jams, preserves and crafts, so you can always find gifts if there are upcoming birthdays," Cr Cassidy says.

"The festival is one of the best ways to catch up with people you haven't seen in a while because almost everyone who lives in the area attends."

Now in its 24th year, Cr Cassidy says the festival owes its strength and longevity to the fact that it has remained a truly community-focused event.

"It's the time of year when our local schools, community groups, local businesses and residents come together to celebrate our community," he says.

Einbunpin is unique as a festival in the way it celebrates our talented artists, musicians, environment and people — of all ages."

The Redcliffe Rollerdrome

For many years the Redcliffe Rollerdrome provided year round entertainment for visitors and locals alike.

The skating rink was situated just north of the Redcliffe Jetty on the sea front. It had roll-up canvas sides to allow for fresh air and for spectators to view skating demonstrations.

In September 1938, the Redcliffe Town Council voted to grant a ten-year lease at a rental of fifty pounds a year to Southport Golf Recreations Ltd., for the erection of a skating rink on land opposite the council chambers and the northern side of the Redcliffe Jetty. The council thought that the rink would be an attraction for those who holidayed at Redcliffe.

In November 1938, the Lands Department notified the Redcliffe Town Council that 24 perches of the beach opposite the Council Chambers had been gazetted a reserve under the council's control, which meant that construction could go ahead. It was agreed that the skating rink, which would be 100 feet long by 50 feet wide, would become council property at the end of the lease. Architects of the building were Messrs Hall and Phillips, of Brisbane, and it was built by local builder Alec Smith.

Opened on Saturday 10 December 1938 by the Mayor, Alderman A. H. Langdon, guests were treated to excellent exhibitions of skating by Miss Billie Goldbraith of New Zealand, Miss J. Harrington, and Mr J. Stapleton of Brisbane.

As well as being a wonderful form of entertainment for children and adults alike for many years, the Rollerdrome also produced several world champion skaters. The Rollerdrome closed in 1985 to allow for the expansion of the Anzac Park picnic ground.

PENNIES BY THE SEA

By Susannah Holmes

Celebrate the 200th anniversary of the bicycle this year with the Queensland Penny Farthing and Historical Cycle Club. Whether it's high tea, dance, dinner or appreciation of vintage and historical bikes, it's happening here in July.

QPFHCC Secretary, Aaron Wray says, "Pennies by the Sea is a family-friendly event, and we encourage people of all ages to come along and see these elegant machines, ask questions and even sit on a penny farthing if they dare."

Enthusiasts who built their penny through the SkillsTech course at Bracken Ridge have been inspired to create a way they can display and talk about their bicycles.

Enjoy old English folk dance with an espresso and watch the Slow Ride over 25m — the slowest wins. The penny stack is a freestanding group of penny farthings and is a crowd favourite, a wonderful opportunity to see a large number together.

A dinner is being held at Bramble Place Coffee and Tea, as well as a high tea at lunch time. "We encourage people to visit local businesses whilst in town for the event".

The bicycle, born out of necessity, has evolved from a way for people to move faster under their own power. In 1817, German inventor Karl Drais developed the Laufmaschine (running machine); a transport solution that has gone on to become today's bicycle, providing cheaper mobility, independence and freedom to millions of people around the world. There are celebrations held all over Australia and the world to commemorate this anniversary.

“ People coming along can expect to see the widest variety of bikes in Brisbane, including bikes harking back to early Australian history. We are a hands-on club, so encourage everyone to come along and recreate a time gone by. It'll be a memorable experience.”
