A Note FROM THE TEAM

Redcliffe will be abuzz on the weekend of the 8th and 9th of September when the Moreton Bay Food and Wine Festival rolls into town! Read our handy snapshot of some of the amazing events on page 10. We will DEFINITELY be headed to the Dessert Festival - you can get a sneak peek of what's happening there on page 24.

After overindulging at the Food and Wine Festival, it's time to work on your abs - with some laughter! US comedian and one of Australia's favourites, Arj Barker is headed our way as part of his regional tour! Arj will be at the Redcliffe Cultural Centre on Friday 21st September. Find out where to book your tickets on page 6.

Our cover this month belongs to a Peninsula gem, Tina Thomsen, previously known as Finlay Roberts from Home and Away. Tina is now back on the Peninsula, after pursuing her acting career, ready and waiting to help others in the community get their big break too. Read all about her new local venture on page 18.

Check out our guide to all the best school holiday activities on page 34 to give you some ideas for the upcoming term break!

Until next month!

Arj Barker

Now if you're not familiar with Arj's work, he is a regular on Australian TV screens. You may recognise him from his role as Dave on the hit show *Flight of the Concorde*s, or his appearances on The Project, Just For Laughs, Spicks and Specks, Good News Week, Talkin' 'bout Your Generation, Have You Been Paying Attention, and The Footy Show.

Arj has made numerous appearances on late night talk shows, including Letterman and Conan O'Brien, as well as his own half hour special on HBO produced by comedy central.

Arj also recently released his online musical comedy video, "Disgracebook", that pokes fun at the ways in which we are misusing and abusing social media.

Known for his laid-back, slacker persona and offbeat style Arj is an accomplished performer on the international stand-up scene, appearing at everything from the Edinburgh Festival to the Melbourne Comedy Festival.

In recent years, Arj has split his time between the US and Australia where he has made himself a name thanks to his relentless touring.

Arj's most recent tour has taken him across Australia, with stops across regional NSW and Victoria, Darwin and now Queensland, where he is performing at Redcliffe before heading to Mackay, Townsville and back to Logan in October.

Australia's adopted son of comedy, Arj Barker, is performing his show entitled 'We Need to Talk' at the Redcliffe Cultural Centre on 21 September.

To find out exactly what Arj wants to talk about, you'll have to head to the show, but Arj has issued the following invitation – and tongue-in-cheek warning.

“ Look, I've been doing a lot of thinking about...Us, and where we're headed. This isn't easy, but I need to be 100% honest with you, even if what I say makes you laugh, very, very, hard. You had better sit down for this...”

Fireworks fun!

Dolphin Wild Island Cruises are setting sail on their 15th annual Brisbane Riverfire Cruise!

Departing from Newport Marina, Redcliffe residents have a chance to see the Brisbane Riverfire Festival fireworks without the hassle of city parking.

"We have two load points for our Riverfire Cruise - either Newport Marina Scarborough at 1.45pm or Mowbray Park Jetty in Brisbane," says Lisa Edwards from Dolphin Wild.

"We recommend the Newport Marina option as parking in the city on Riverfire night is a nightmare!"

Departing from Newport Marina, patrons will enjoy a relaxing cruise across Moreton Bay before heading down the Brisbane River and under the Gateway Bridge, with commentary along the way.

Tickets are limited and include a smorgasbord dinner and dessert. Dolphin Wild also has a licensed bar for on-board drink purchases.

"We include BBQ rib fillet, leg ham, chicken, salads and dessert with free tea and coffee," Lisa says.

Dolphin Wild will be moored in the middle of the fireworks on the Brisbane River, with the military aircraft display jets and helicopters flying right above the vessel.

What: Dolphin Wild Brisbane Riverfire Cruise

When: Saturday 29th September, 1.45pm

'Exercises, Experiments and Leftovers'

Redcliffe Art Society Inc at the Old Fire Station Gallery presents: 'Exercise, Experiments and Leftovers.' In this, her 16th Solo exhibition, there is a breadth of work from across Tricia Reust's wide range of working processes.

'Exercises' includes results from exploring complementary colour mostly in oil. There are pastels as well as larger acrylic canvases presented under 'Experiments' in which different texture applications have been investigated. Tricia is a prolific artist and consequently often works over older paintings on paper and canvas.

Some she considers too good to destroy and here presents unframed works from over many years of her practice, including award winning pastels, as 'Leftovers'.

All are welcome to attend the official opening on Saturday, 8 September at 2pm, with light refreshments and entry is free. The exhibition runs from Wednesday, 5 September until Sunday, 30 September.

Tricia is delivering a two-day Mixed Media Workshop, on Saturday 29 and Sunday 30 September in Studio 1 of the Redcliffe Art Society.

Story Christine Chamberlain

The inaugural Moreton Bay Food and Wine Festival will be held over two massive days at Redcliffe on the weekend of September 8 and 9.

Redcliffe Parade will be transformed into a buzzing foodie marketplace where festival-goers can wine and dine on the region's best, while enjoying a full line up of entertainment.

Entry to the festival is free and Moreton Bay Region Industry & Tourism (MBRIT) Chief Executive Officer Shane Newcombe is looking forward to bringing locals and visitors together for the busy weekend.

"Visitors will be able to eat, drink, learn and explore the diverse tastes of our region, sampling food from our top chefs and restaurants, wine and beer purveyors and specialty food vendors, while enjoying picturesque views of Moreton Bay in the background," Shane says.

A highlight of the weekend will be seafood cooking demonstrations by celebrity chef Paul West from the popular television series River Cottage Australia.

Catch Paul and some of the region's best chefs showing off their skills at the Seafood and Wine deck both days.

Throughout the weekend, many of the foreshore restaurants will be showcasing special menus as well as hosting ticketed events and workshops.

“ I encourage everyone to come along and make the most of this weekend - enjoy the local specialities, roll up your sleeves and participate in a workshop, learn some cooking tips from our experienced chefs, enjoy a unique dining experience and take a taste of Moreton Bay home with you,” Shane says.

Moreton Bay Regional Mayor Allan Sutherland says culinary events are growing in popularity and boosting the local economy.

“The inaugural Food and Wine Fest is a fitting expansion to our already impressive social calendar, which will showcase the very best of what life by the bay has to offer,” Allan says.

Take advantage of the free shuttle bus running regularly from the Redcliffe Train Station and Redcliffe Showgrounds to the festival all weekend.

FIT FOR THE WHOLE FAMILY

Cafe Diversity

Story Christine Chamberlain

The adults don't get to have all the fun at this year's Moreton Bay Food and Wine Festival. The weekend is packed full of activities, entertainment and yummy food to keep the whole family happy.

Whether you're a kid or a big kid at heart, you'll love what BallyCara has in store for you in their Leisure Lounge. The whole family can get involved with the oversized games of Connect Four and Jenga, and enjoy free popcorn

Watch your child's culinary artistic side shine as they get creative with Café Diversity's cookie decorating workshop. They get to build their own sweet snack for $5 and the workshops are on from 10.30am to 2.30pm both days of the festival.

Take a walk and sample local fresh produce at the Local Tastes Pavilion. Meet the growers and stock up on some of the best homegrown produce and goodies the Bay and region has to offer.

On Saturday evening, watch as the skies light up over Moreton Bay for the Fireworks Spectacular at 8pm.

Find your family the perfect vantage point along the water's edge or book a table for dinner beforehand at one of the participating foreshore restaurants.

The festival information tent will be selling lots of glow products so the little ones can get into the fun spirit of the evening.

If you are looking for a lazy Sunday option, consider spending the day relaxing at Moreton Island.

Departing from the Redcliffe Jetty, enjoy a scenic cruise on board Dolphin Wild's Supercat, across Moreton Bay to Bulwer.

The fun-packed day of beach games and swimming also includes a yummy lunch of burgers, sausage sizzle and drinks. Tickets are $105 per person and spaces are limited.

Thanks to Redcliffe's newest coffee shop GRIND, you don't have to leave any member of the family at home – including your furry friends.

Serving puppuccinos all weekend, they've also got treats, bowls of water and a comfy spot to make sure your best friend feels at home.

There is also a chance to show off your pooch at Grind's Dog Costume Parade on Saturday from 11am. There are loads of prizes to be won.

WHAT IS YOUR SCHOOL'S PLASTIC POLLUTION SOLUTION?

Story Stacey Brant

Calling all schools and early learning centres in the Peninsula that want to make a difference to the environment! There is still time to enter the 2018 Moreton Bay Regional Recycler Competition...

Between 2016-17 Moreton Bay Regional Council received over 300,000 tonnes of waste from households, public areas and commercial operators. Just under half of these materials were recycled; imagine how much more we could help the earth if we cut down the excessive use of materials that CAN'T be recycled.

The 2018 Regional Recycler Competition theme is 'Plastic Pollution Solution', and it's all about making a difference in your school by choosing one plastic item that takes up lots of space in your everyday waste bin, and coming up with an idea that would cut down or eliminate that product completely.

Council's Waste Services Spokesperson Councillor Adam Hain said the annual Regional Recycler Competition was about getting kids thinking outside the box when it came to recycling and reusing.

"Kids can reduce, recycle or reuse items at both school and at home, and the Regional Recycler Competition is a fantastic tool to encourage kids to think about sustainability in a fun and interactive way at a very young age," Cr Hain said.

"As part of this 2018 challenge, students can come up with any solution they like in the form of avoidance behaviours, reducing or reusing schemes or recycling measures.

Plastic pollution is having a detrimental impact on Redcliffe's wildlife, land, waterways and in our oceans – education is key to preventing unnecessary waste.

“With a $2,500 award for the Winner and 3 Highly Commended awards of $500 each, it's a fun way to learn about reducing waste, and possibly win some great prize money for sustainability programs and resources.

"It's all about using your imagination and having fun, while helping to create a sustainable culture in schools and Early Learning Childcare services across the region," Cr Hain said.

For details on how school or childcare groups in the peninsula can enter visit: www.moretonbay.qld.gov.au/regionalrecycler.

Council leases land for Junior Cricket Club

The Redcliffe City Junior Cricket Club Inc. has been granted a lease from council, giving the club the opportunity to build a storage shed to house cricket gear at Filmer Park in Woody Point.

Spokesperson for Parks, Recreation and Sport Councillor Koliana Winchester who made the announcement following council's coordination meeting on Tuesday 7 August said the club had been granted a suitable parcel of land for the construction of a storage shed.

"The Redcliffe City Junior Cricket Club Inc. is a club with more than 160 members and I know how important this shed will be for its young players and their coaches to house the equipment needed to deliver their sport to the local community," Cr Winchester said.

"At the moment the club utilises a small area of the Peninsula Cricket Club Inc shed for the storage of their equipment and uniforms but this lease will give them the chance to have their own space strengthening self-sufficiency within their club.

"We want our young cricketers to focus on the game - thinking about hitting 6s and 4s and not worrying about where they can house their gear."

Redcliffe City Junior Cricket Club Inc president Barry Smith said he was thankful to council for giving the club access to land to build the storage shed.

"It will be fantastic to have this facility on site and it will provide safe vermin proof storage for all our cricket and training gear," Mr Smith said.

"We are thankful for council's support and I know our club members will be thrilled with this news."

COLOUR your world!

Story Donna Roberts

Looking to inject some colour into your life? All you'll need is a white t-shirt and your friends and family to participate in the Redcliffe Uniting Church's Colour Run event on Friday September 7.

The Moreton Bay Child and Family Network (MBCFN) will come together for the event to promote National Child Protection Week, which runs from Sunday 2nd to Saturday 8th September.

MBCFN convener Jae is looking forward to the activity being an inclusive community event.

"The event will promote community, connection, safety and family inclusion as a way of ensuring awareness is raised to the important message that Protecting Children is Everyone's Business," Jae says.

"Along with the short Colour Run (100 metres), child and family friendly information stalls and child protective behaviour activities will be provided from the region's attending community agencies."

In addition, the event will provide a sausage sizzle and refreshments along with a range of activities including face painting and workshops.

The event will be held in the afternoon on Friday 7th September after school between 3:00-5:00pm, to promote participation of children and families across the region.

FROM Summer Bay to Moreton Bay

Hidden up at Scarborough, local celebrity Tina Thomsen has opened an acting studio for aspiring screen actors.

Story Donna Roberts

Better known as Finlay Roberts in Home and Away, a role she held for several years, Tina originally moved to Australia from Denmark in 1982 at the age of seven. She fell into acting initially to simply communicate while attending school at Clontarf Primary and Clontarf High, due to her lack of English.

"I needed to use the toilet when I was at school and not speaking English made it difficult to get that across to new classmates.

"So I became a mime that day and am so grateful that not only did they understand my game of charades, but they didn't make me feel silly," Tina said.

After moving to Sydney in 1991 to pursue her acting career, Tina was offered the role as Finlay on Home and Away. She then worked on several other TV shows including All Saints, Shark Bay, Big Sky, GP and Farscape.

The move back to the Peninsula to raise a family was always the dream, and Tina loves being back in the area.

Zarlia Chisholm, Oscar Bailey and Chelsea Edwards.

"It's incredible to see how much change and development there has been since the 80s...we still have the natural beauty of the waterfront but now there are so many great cafes, restaurants and community events as well - it's paradise," Tina said.

Tina was inspired to set up Zip Studios to give students of all ages and levels of experience an opportunity to practice acting for TV and movies.

"When I was dreaming of being on TV, there was no one providing lessons focused purely on screen acting," Tina said.

"I know a lot of young actors don't have any interest in performing on stage or in musicals but that is often all that's available.

"All work is filmed as if you are on set so you get experience in front of the camera and start building up a body of work right from day one.

“ We really are focused on fast-tracking actors, regardless of experience, through honing their screen skills, building a great showreel, securing an agent and eventually into professional work,” Tina said.

Tina and her family are very happy to be settled back on the Peninsula, reliving her old childhood memories and making a whole host of new ones.

Join the Peninsula Explorers and help raise funds for cerebral palsy this SEPTEMBER

Story Stacey Brant

*Septembering is the best move
you can make for kids like Eva.*

Spring has sprung and what better way to celebrate than by joining the Redcliffe September team!

Step outside and get moving alongside Redcliffe locals and raise funds for Cerebral Palsy while discovering the beauty of the Redcliffe Peninsula by foot.

The Peninsula Explorers September group is encouraging local residents to join their team or create their own to raise funds for Cerebral Palsy and walk at least 10,000 steps each day from September 4 – 30.

Lucy Jacka, General Manager of Fundraising September says money raised is used to assist babies until they are formally diagnosed.

"Cerebral Palsy is a physical disability that affects movement and posture due to damage to the developing brain either before or shortly after birth, and is a common physical disability in childhood".

"Some babies at risk might not necessarily end up having cerebral palsy, but if they are showing early signs, it's really important that they receive intervention and therapies just in case, she says.

"As well as early intervention, the Cerebral Palsy Alliance also helps provide families with the equipment that a child or adult living with cerebral palsy needs".

LOOKING FOR IDEAS ON HOW YOU CAN GET YOUR STEPS UP? WE SUGGEST...

- Leaving the car at home and walking to get your groceries
- Walking to the train or bus station to get to work and leave the car at home
- Getting creative and do more than just stepping - swim, cycle, garden and enjoy the outdoors.

Students to Sit & Wait for Class

Story Philip Woods

A growing trend in state primary schools to curtail physical activity before morning class has caused consternation among some local parents.

The relatively new procedures being implemented in several Peninsula state schools require students who arrive earlier than the commencement of class to sit calmly, rather than engage in any running games, handball or other physical activities.

The key issues appear to be supervision and the allocation of teacher aide time. Several local state schools and most private primary schools still provide a window of supervised playtime before school for kids to exercise, however a number of local principals have decided to reallocate the use of this expense to increase the teacher aide time in class.

In a statement regarding the matter, a spokesperson for the Department of Education stated "Principals, in consultation with the school community, make decisions about the most appropriate safety protocols to meet the needs of their students."

A document released by the Australian Government Department of Health states that the benefits of physical activity include reducing anti-social behaviour including aggressive and disruptive actions, developing skills such as cooperation and teamwork, and improving a child's ability to concentrate.

Parenting expert, author and educator Maggie Dent has discussed this trend in primary school education, and suggests that these approaches reflect a growing concern within educational systems around schools' accountability and liability for children's safety.

If a child slips or collides with another child unintentionally, many adults see that as grounds for the school being sued for negligence."

Ms Dent continues; "It is not only unhealthy for children who are already more passive than any other previous generation, it is plain sad. Unfortunately, duty of care and the interpretation of the laws that govern managing risk have made accidents something to be shamed and avoided. That is a sad outcome from our highly litigious society."

Do you have questions about this practice adopted by your child's school? The Department of Education spokesperson advises parents to contact their school directly, "If parents have concerns about issues at their children's schools, they are encouraged to speak directly to the principal."

MORETON BAY FOOD AND WINE FESTIVAL

Sweet SENSATION

Story Christine Chamberlain

If you are one of those people who always leaves room for dessert, you won't want to miss the sweetest part of this year's Moreton Bay Food and Wine Festival – Dessert Festival.

Every sweet tooth will love this pop-up area at the southern end of Redcliffe Parade, dedicated to all things sweet, deep-fried, frozen and creamy, and open both days throughout the wider festival.

Moreton Bay Region Industry & Tourism Chief Executive Officer Shane Newcombe says entry to Dessert Festival is free and you'll be spoilt for choice as a wide range of vendors tempt you with their sweetest, tastiest treats.

We've got a brilliant line-up of dessert creations on the menu, where every course is dessert," Shane says.

"This is a judgement free zone with something to satisfy everyone's palate."

While wondering around the sweet treat fest, be sure to keep an eye out for IcePhile, selling ice-cream with a delicious twist.

Their signature staple is their deep-fried ice cream balls in a range of flavours. From nuts to berries to coconut, IcePhile really knows how kicks it up a notch when it comes to indulging in ice-cream.

You also won't want to miss Crunchy's Waffles operating out of a double decker bus at this year's festival.

Specialising in sweet Liège and Brussels waffles, Crunchy's Waffles also offers a savoury menu influenced by Dutch and Belgian cuisine.

From tropical fruits to mini marshmallows, chocolate shavings to toasted coconut and nuts, you can order one of their waffles or get creative and build your own dessert sensation.

As the weather warms up, keep cool with Frozen Sunshine, the all-natural ice block shop.

Using Australian fruits and supporting our local farmers, Frozen Sunshine's ingredients also include real vanilla, Belgian chocolate and organic coconut milk.

With more than 60 yummy flavours, all ice blocks are free of dairy, gluten, eggs and nuts, making them suitable for anyone and everyone.

Dessert Festival is the perfect opportunity to let your inner child indulge in tasty sweets for breakfast or lunch, as it's open 10am-4pm on Saturday 8th and Sunday 9th September.

We are a Sporty lot!

We Redcliffians have always been a sporty lot. It must be the sea air!

Story Richard Lancaster

A cricket club was started in Humpybong [the early name for Redcliffe] in 1884. Games were initially played on a field owned by Mr Snook. The club progressed, and after five years many of Redcliffe's leading citizens were at the helm, with the Reverend John Sutton as President. Many years later, the Redcliffe Cricket Club amalgamated with its Sandgate bayside neighbours to become the Sandgate Redcliffe Cricket Club. But Redcliffians never say die. Another club, The Peninsula Cricket Club was formed and now members play at their Woody Point home ground.

The Humpybong ladies were certainly not to be outdone. In 1884, the ladies discussed the formation of a tennis club, which was subsequently established. Nowadays, the Redcliffe Tennis Association, at its modern tennis facility with 12 courts on Oxley Avenue, has a membership of over 800. All of Australia's tennis greats including Rod Laver, Roy Emerson and Tony Roche have played here.

Humpybong women were again at the sporting fore with Mary Nairn [nee Brown] being asked to form a hockey club in 1931. The following year the Redcliffe Hockey Club was born.

In 1919, The Redcliffe Bowling Club's secretary, Percy Adams asked the then Shire Council for permission to establish a bowling green at Margate's sports reserve. It was granted. The game of Lawn Bowls will next year celebrate its 100th birthday on the Peninsula.

All forms of football took a deal longer to arrive on the Peninsula. Rugby League was first with the Redcliffe Dolphins kicking off in 1947. By far the most successful sporting code on the Peninsula, this club has produced an outstanding record of achievement over the last 71 years, and boasts a home ground that is the envy of any international sporting club.

Rugby Union was slower to gain traction. However, the Redcliffe Rugby Union Club set its first scrum in 1969. It merged with the Teachers Norths Rugby Club in 1991. However, Union still holds sway at Clontarf's Frawley Fields with a revitalised Redcliffe Rugby Club holding its Sea Snakes banner high.

Hawley Art, www.kelvinhawleyart.com

Soccer (or Football) first saw the light of day with the formation of the Redcliffe Soccer Club in 1948. A name change to Redcliffe City, saw it merge with Margate Soccer Club in 2000, creating the present Peninsula Power, which successfully competes in the Brisbane Premier League.

Australian Rules Football took to the field in 1974. Now in its forty-fourth year, the Redcliffe Peninsula AFC, nicknamed the Tigers, play at Rothwell's McGahey's Field. AFL Touch Football or Rec Footy is also played on the Peninsula.

The Peninsula Country Golf Club created a magnificent hole in one, by teeing off with 250 playing members from its beginning in 1935. The club, now renamed The Redcliffe Golf Club was established near the Hornibrook Bridge at Clontarf and has an 18-hole picturesque Championship course, which is the envy of many a Brisbane based club.

Baseball first swung a bat on the Peninsula in 1948 when a US ex-serviceman founded a club initially known as the Redcliffe Whitesox. Several location changes and an important name change resulted in the 1982 formed and renamed Redcliffe Padres with their home run at Talobilla Park.

The ancient game of croquet had been played on the Peninsula informally since WW1. In 1928, the Redcliffe Croquet Club was formed and 28 years later at Woody Point, it was renamed Eildon Croquet Club in honour of the club's first patron's home.

Other major Peninsula sporting clubs include Squash, Swimming, Netball, Cycling, Sailing, Fishing, Kayaking, Softball, Little Athletics, Martial Arts, Basketball, Darts, Table tennis, Rowing, Shooting, Gymnastics, Horse riding and Harness Racing.

In fact, there are very few sports that Redcliffe doesn't cater for!

Flight Instructor

If you are planning a day out on Sunday September 9, why not aim high? Make a visit to the Redcliffe Aero Club's 2018 Open Day for some high-flying fun!

Club CEO Stephen White expects a good turnout. "The event has been running for six years now, and last year was one of the biggest," Stephen says. "It's a day when we open our facilities to the general public and to people who may be interested in learning to fly."

Vintage aircraft and cars will be on display, a free jumping castle for the kids, and a display from the '212' (City of Redcliffe) Squadron Air Cadets. Joy flights in the club's Cessna 172's and adventure flights will be available for those wishing to take to the sky! The adventure flights will be on-board a vintage Tiger Moth and a T34 Mentor, which is a military training type aircraft.

Stephen is also one of the club's instructors, and says that the event provides a closer look at the aircraft for anyone considering flying lessons. "We've got instructors on hand to answer questions and tell people more about the aircraft, what it takes to fly them, and to give them the opportunity to arrange a trial instructional flight."

Potential pilots come in all ages and for various reasons. "We get a cross-section; from people in high school to people in their sixties, and everything in between," Stephen says.

You can start training at pretty much any age, but you can't go solo until you're 15. You can get recreational license at 16, a private pilots license at 17, and a commercial license at 18."

"Many people are attracted to flying simply for the views; for some it provides a means to get to their favourite fishing spot and for others it's a way to have great family holidays flying around Australia," Stephen tells us. "Then there are those who want to go down the path of commercial flying; this is a good place to start."

The open Day will offer a BBQ, an ice-cream van and a coffee van onsite, but the day's highlight must be getting up in the air! If a joy-flight or an adventure flight sounds like fun, make sure to book ahead as flights and places will be limited.

The Last Straw For Moreton Bay

Story Philip Woods

In a move applauded by environmentalists, Moreton Bay Regional Council has decided to ban the use of plastic straws from all council operated events and venues.

Council's Economic Development and Tourism Spokesperson, Councillor Peter Flannery, says, "It's a simple measure, which will hopefully make a huge difference on the overall amount of non-biodegradable plastics ending up in landfill or in our waterways."

The damage caused by single use plastic items, including bags, straws and packaging has long been acknowledged as harmful, particularly to marine environments and the fauna that exists within them.

The decision was inspired by Queensland schoolgirl Molly Steers, who started the 'Straw No More' campaign in early 2017. Molly's campaign was quickly implemented in many schools across the state, and is now being taken up by a growing number of schools, councils and businesses around the country.

"Our name is a nod to one of the country's most important coastal resources: Moreton Bay, and we have a responsibility to make sure rubbish like single-use straws doesn't end up harming local marine life," Cr Flannery says.

"Already a number of businesses and cafes in Moreton Bay are taking up the push for greater sustainability through re-usable cups and biodegradable cutlery; I hope this move encourages them to also ditch the single-use plastic straw from their menus."

Peninsula Toastmasters Club toasts to 40 years of operation

For 40 years, Peninsula Toastmasters has provided a community of speech-craft appreciators in a warm environment, meeting every second Monday from 7-9pm with supper provided and guests are welcome.

To mark its 40th anniversary, the Club invites members of the public to special dinner at the Belvedere Hotel on Monday 17 September at 7pm. Two honourable guests, Ray Sawyer, winner of the 2018 Moreton Area Humorous Speaking contest, and Professor John Pearn AO, paediatric researcher and author, will provide keynote speeches.

The Club is also celebrating the 90th birthday of Jan Bell, a member of over 30 years. Jan says, "It opened doors for me that I never thought would be open, and I'd advise anyone to join Peninsula Toastmasters as it's such a wonderful, friendly and educational club."

The club's president Allan Murray and Area 8 Director David Jones invite you to see what it's about.

Interested attendees can contact Kris on 0466 856 063 or David on 0403 847 672 or book through Trybooking.

Yvette D'Ath MP

Over the past month we have reached some important milestones for local infrastructure.

Work has begun on the relocation of parking for people with a disability at the Kippa-Ring Train Station. A total of eight disabled parking bays are being made available just in front of Kippa-Ring Train Station, significantly increasing accessibility.

The Queensland Government have announced two new sites where flashing lights for school zones will be installed. The sites are Mable Street at Humpybong State School and Korsch Street at Kippa-Ring State School. This work contributes to our efforts to install flashing lights around all school zones.

Expressions of interest have recently closed for the establishment and running of a regular vehicular barge service between Scarborough and Moreton Island. This service has financial support from the State Government in the form of $4 million for the construction of an access road and breakwater.

I am committed to infrastructure, which benefits our Redcliffe community and, like many in the community, look forward to seeing these projects come to fruition.

Luke Howarth MP

Work has started on the Redcliffe PCYC expansion! I'm incredibly proud to have delivered $450,000 towards this project, which will help the PCYC expand its programs and allow for more people to access the facilities.

This is a much-needed boost to our local area. Before I entered politics, I was a volunteer at the Redcliffe PCYC as a judo instructor, so I know firsthand the positive contribution the organisation makes to youth development in our region.

The PCYC is running at capacity, so the expansion of the indoor activity area will allow more kids to participate in the sporting and mentoring programs offered at the PCYC.

The funding is part of stage two of the upgrade and will ensure the enclosing of the new court area, replacing the concrete floor, purchasing a new entry awning and enclosing the walkway and rear of the existing office area.

I will continue to deliver for our community and if there's something I might be able to help your group with, please don't hesitate to get in touch with me.

Peter Williams is a psychic-medium, whose special gift has amazed audiences around the world for the past ten years.

Peter discovered his ability to communicate with the spirit world when he was 14 years old. He experienced an event known as 'automatic writing', which is where a spirit uses a medium's hand to write a message.

"It was a little difficult for the first few years as I did not really have anyone who I could confide in with what I could do. It was not until I was 17 that I could really start exploring this side of myself more," Peter says.

"I decided to buy my first deck of tarot cards and eventually taught myself how to read them. It was from this point that I started to do readings for friends and soon enough friends of friends."

Six years ago, Peter found another way of connecting people with their loved ones - channelling spirits on stage. "Fast forwarding to now, I have had the privilege and honour of speaking and connecting in front of audiences all over Australia and overseas," Peter says.

Peter considers himself lucky to share such a humbling experience with his clients, and perhaps provide them with some closure.

"It's the experience of helping ease a person or family's suffering - helping them achieve a sense of peace and closure.

"It is not easy and does not come with every connection, but when it happens it is just magic."

Peter acknowledges that audiences at his events will experience a roller coaster of emotions.

The connections can be serious, heavy and full on and there may even be tears, but then suddenly you might find yourself in a fit of laughter," he says. "You just never know where it is going to go or end up."

You can witness his extraordinary talent for yourself when he hosts his Spirit Revolutions event on Sunday 9th September at the Redcliffe Cultural Centre.

Café 3Eightnine

Eatery celebrates milestone year

Story Emma Harley

It's been a year of delicious food, great coffee and picturesque waterfront views as Scarborough's Café 3Eightnine celebrates its first anniversary under new ownership.

Café owner and all rounder Ying Lu says the milestone is a great achievement for the establishment and is testament to an extensive background in hospitality.

"I am originally from China and after completing my university studies there in 2008, I came to Australia to study cooking and hospitality," Ying says.

"I started work in the restaurant and catering industry and have maintained a number of different roles including a three-year stint as a head chef, five years as a manager and then working within Sapphire Catering.

"Barista work has also been a big interest of mine after completing a course in 2015."

Ying says they fell in love with the café at first sight over a year ago and the rest is history.

"At that time we were trying to start a small business when our agent Mary sent this café's information to me," Ying says.

"I made some time to drive up from South Brisbane to inspect the premises and the rest is history."

Ying says after a successful first year they are definitely looking ahead and have big plans for the future.

Jake McGuire and Abi Wardle

“We are going to open a second cafe in Woody Point - we love the view there and it will be another new beginning for us,” Ying says.

“Another big plan we have is to open even more Cafe 3Eightnines in the future and bring the love and care we have for our food and coffee to more and more people.

“We have had such wonderful feedback from the locals and tourists - this is a place for people who love good food, good coffee and are lovers of life.

“We have truly enjoyed every moment of our time here.”

TRAVELLING THE UPGRADED MOTORWAY

There have been some major changes to the local road network in the past months, with the opening of the new Deagon Interchange at the end of June 2018, as part of the Gateway Upgrade North project.

The interchange opening included the opening of two new northbound lanes on the Deagon Deviation for those travelling to Redcliffe, and the permanent closure of the Sandgate Road on-ramp to the motorway.

Motorists are now using new ways to access the motorway, including continuing along Sandgate Road/Braun Street to access the upgraded Depot Road onramp, or accessing the motorway earlier at Boondall (near the Brisbane Entertainment Centre) and at Nudgee.

Local works are also continuing to upgrade several intersections along Sandgate Road/Braun Street, and the project is closely monitoring the traffic flow along this stretch to optimise these signals as they are upgraded.

Motorists on the Gateway Motorway between Nudgee and Deagon, may have noticed the motorway corridor is now constructed to its final width, with the project approaching completion in late 2018. Prior to opening all six lanes of the upgraded motorway in the coming months, the project team will be installing the final layer of asphalt along the project's length, and installing ITS systems, lighting and guardrail. To complete these finishing works, extended nightwork hours, increased weekend works and temporary short-term closures of the adjacent motorway on and off-ramps will be required between now and November 2018.

The project team appreciates the community's ongoing patience as they work towards construction completion later in 2018 and continue to encourage motorists to drive carefully and considerably, particularly when travelling under new and changed conditions.

■ For further information, construction updates and other routes, visit the project's website at www.gatewayupgradenorth.com.au

STUDENTS SHOWCASE

Women in art

Redcliffe's talented artistic community is joining with student artists at Humpybong State School for their annual Art Show - Women in Art.

The official opening event on Tuesday 11 September will showcase local artists including painters, potters and crafters, along with the works of the students.

Humpybong State School Arts teacher Leeanne Blanckensee is excited to invite community members to attend the event.

"This year the student art is based upon the works of female artists including Queenie McKenzie, Yayoi Kusama, Frida Kahlo, Jeannie Baker, Maria Sibylla Merian, Bridget Riley and Niki de Saint Phalle," Leeanne says.

Through their visual arts lessons, students have been studying the styles of various female artists and experimenting with these styles through their own creative pieces.

Catherine Waldron, Principal of Humpybong State School is looking forward to showcasing the artwork of the students.

"[Attendees] will see local community art and artists at work sharing their craft and skills as well as spending time viewing our young artists' interpretations of the artists they have been studying," Catherine says.

"[They will be] entertained by the school choir and string quartet and partake in some wine and cheese, courtesy of the P&C."

The evening also has opportunities for attending children and adults to channel their creative side by contributing to the Yayoi Kusama-inspired installation, creating a Frida Kahlo-style headband, and painting pebbles with indigenous symbols for the school's future Gubbi Gubbi Garden.

Zoe Laplante, teacher Leeanne Blanckensee, Sam McKay and Xaviah Onofia.

Catherine admits that some students can feel an initial apprehension about having their work on display, but this is quickly overridden by excitement.

"Most [students] are excited at the prospect that their artwork is in a 'real' art show and can be 'bought' for a small cost - $2 or $3," Catherine says.

"When the work is on show for the week, the children and parents go through looking at the art work more than once, as they like to show off their work and admire everyone else's work.

"The classes are also preparing large joint pieces for a silent auction, which the P&C will use to make a small amount of money."

Housing Project Supports Construction Jobs

The Queensland Government is investing in social housing construction, providing people with safe and secure places to live while also supporting construction industry jobs.

A new $1.8 million social housing project in Redcliffe will provide 11 homes while supporting about 130 building and construction industry jobs.

The development includes two fully accessible units to assist people with mobility impairment.

The Queensland Government are investing $97 million to build 330 social housing dwellings across the Moreton Bay Region in the first five years of the program.

Students Show RESPECT

Story Donna Roberts

The collective power of three of the Peninsula's biggest schools has been harnessed for the RESPECT project, an inclusive project designed to promote respectful relationships within the schools and in the wider community.

A collaboration between Redcliffe, Deception Bay and Clontarf Beach State

High Schools, the project has completed a range of activities throughout the first semester of the year. Students in Year 12 and staff leaders hold regular meetings, develop goals and host whole-school events to enable all students to engage with the program.

Proudly leading the initiative at Redcliffe State High School is Fiona Cotton, the school's Guidance Officer, and Peta Green, a teacher and year level coordinator.

"In Term 1, we led the National Day of Action against Bullying and Violence, whereby the whole school shared messages about what they most respected about Redcliffe State High School.

"They also wore wrist bands and pledged their commitment to saying no to bullying and [to] value diversity within our school," Fiona said.

"In Term 2, we commenced Respectful Relationships lessons in buddy classes. Some senior students were buddied with the Year 7 and 8 classes to deliver short lesson content to promote healthy relationships once a week, which is planned to continue for the remainder of 2018.

A mural visible from Oxley Avenue was also designed and created by students and staff at the school. A range of events were planned including a BBQ, fundraising and musical entertainment, which added a festive atmosphere to the creation of the mural.

"[It] was facilitated over four days and was a mass participation event, with huge staff and student involvement," Fiona said.

Fiona's aim is to harness local organisations to promote the project with local businesses and throughout the community.

“ It is our aim, that through our collective efforts, people learn and value the importance of respect, and embrace it to live peacefully within our beautiful Moreton Bay Peninsula.”

Dugong

(Dugong dugon)

THREATENED SPECIES DAY

September 7, 2018

Story Leanne Palmer

The last Tasmanian Tiger died in Hobart Zoo in 1936. Sixty years later in 1996, Threatened Species Day was declared. It's a time to reflect on what happened in the past, and recognise that a similar fate may await many species if action is not taken to protect them, and their habitats.

In our region the Dugong (Dugong dugon) is one such creature. Its closest modern relative was Steller's Sea Cow from the Northern Hemisphere; discovered by Europeans in 1741 and hunted to extinction by around 1770! Another sorry tale of the disappearance of a species caused by human activity.

Classified as vulnerable by the International Union for Conservation of Nature (IUCN), the main threats to their survival are habitat degradation, fishing and boating related accidents, and hunting.

Dugongs are found scattered throughout the coastal waters of the northern half of Australia, Southeast Asia and the eastern side of Africa. Areas that provide suitable conditions are declining. The populations of Moreton Bay in Queensland, and Shark Bay in Western Australia, are their last remaining strongholds.

In Moreton Bay, they mainly inhabit the eastern side, where the seagrasses grow that form their diet. Although not usually seen near the mainland they are still very much a part of our local identity and consciousness. Prized for their rich meat, they were traditionally hunted by Indigenous Australians.

More closely related to elephants than to dolphins or whales, dugongs can live for up to 70 years; growing up to 3m in length and weighing up to 400kg.

Queensland leads the way in research, and Australia has the only data collected over a long enough period of time to be able to analyse population trends. Dugongs have disappeared from the shores of many countries, and some nations have insufficient resources to fund surveys.

Spend a little time giving thought to our threatened species and engage in ways that give them a chance to continue to live alongside us. While boating, observe the "GO SLOW" zone rules, be on the lookout, and maintain a safe distance from all marine life.

Mary Nairn's hockey legacy lives on in Redcliffe

Story Jacqueline Henry

The name Mary Nairn is synonymous with hockey in Redcliffe, with an arched gate welcoming all to the Mary Nairn Hockey Fields on Oxley Avenue.

In 1959, Redcliffe Mayor Alderman JE Houghton named the area the Mary Nairn Hockey Fields, handing over the Mary Nairn hockey gates erected at the entrance to the fields as a tribute to Mary's decades of service to hockey.

HISTORY

Mary formed the Humpybong Girls' Sports Club in 1931, and sought approval to clear an area of the show grounds for the purpose of a hockey field.

After much hard work, the first game of hockey was played there in September 1932.

Then in 1939, a number of men became interested in hockey. A team was formed, but with the outbreak of WWII, many players went off to war. Though this didn't stop Mary. She coached a number of teams of Australian servicemen encamped at the show grounds and American naval personnel from the Seabrae Guest House. The American soldiers gave her a dog in appreciation.

The same year, Mary was selected to play for Queensland. An international match was played at the Redcliffe field against an American women's team. Although Mary's team lost, it was a big day for the whole peninsula.

Mary also approached the three schools on the peninsula to start hockey at school level, and soon this school sport flourished.

In 1948, the Redcliffe school boys' team travelled to Warwick to participate in the Queensland State Primary School Hockey Association championships, accompanied by team captain Roderick Buchanan's father Harold.

On their return home, Harold approached Mary and together they organised the club to enable boys to continue with the sport after their schooling. The Redcliffe Men's Hockey Club was formed and Redcliffe Council granted a further area in the show grounds for a second hockey field.

Mary's decades of coaching achievements include junior and senior men's and women's teams at club and school level, coaching the Queensland women's hockey team and becoming the first woman in Australia to coach an A grade men's hockey team.

Mary retired from coaching in 1963 and was named Quota Woman of the Year in 1971.

A.K.A
PINKY
SQUIRE
OR KNOBBY

Found from Southern Australia up to around Central Queensland, this is a great time of year to target Snapper in the Great Southeast.

Growing to well over a metre long, most specimens I've seen caught in the bay are 25-50cm. Being fantastic to eat, they are a prized angling species and have a very fatty, sweet white flesh.

Most people target them with baits such as prawns, squid and fish flesh, although there is a growing number of people starting to sportfish for them with soft plastic lures.

Redcliffe and Scarborough are great local spots to chase them in a boat or kayak, or even off the shore or jetty at night as they come in quite close to feed.

Snapper have a minimum catch size of 35cm with a possession limit of 4, with no more than 1 over 70cm.

I'll never say no to a fresh feed of Snapper!

FEDERAL LABOR CANDIDATE FOR PETRIE

A local through-and-through

Having purchased her first home in Redcliffe, Corinne is a long-term local who knows what makes our region tick. She understands the pressure being placed on infrastructure and frontline services in our region and will stand up against LNP cuts.

Community Experience

Currently working in a senior local government role, she knows what makes our community tick. Corinne has built a strong reputation by working with a number of local community, sporting and business groups to deliver for our community. Corinne lives and breathes our community. She is one of us.

Money for Local Hospitals, Not Banks

Right now in Canberra Malcolm Turnbull is providing an $80 billion handout to big business and the big banks. At the same time millions of dollars are being ripped out of local schools and hospitals. Corinne will fight to reverse Turnbull's cuts to frontline services.

A Real Plan for Local Jobs

As a member of Bill Shorten's team, Corinne knows how important good secure jobs are for our community. That's why she will stand up against Turnbull's cuts to weekend penalty rates, fight for better TAFE funding and increased local apprentices.

ROOF RESTORATIONS

Transform your tired old roof with a value boosting makeover

Full Roof Restorations From only $2,000

- Replace Broken Tiles
- High Pressure Clean
- Re-bed Ridge Capping (if required)
- Re-point Ridge Capping
- Sterilise Surface (if required)
- Apply Primer/Sealer
- Apply New Roof Membrane (2 coats)

All roofs age over time. After around 15 years, tile roofs deteriorate to the point where a restoration should be considered. At this age, colour starts to fade, ridge capping becomes brittle, lichen and mould can grow, and tiles become harder to clean. The appearance of your home suffers and your roof is more likely to develop leaks.

Richard Gabriel from Mr Highlights Roofing has over 20 years experience in the roofing trade. He uses only premium quality products for his restorations, and offers a full 10 year warranty on all workmanship and materials.

Richard is an owner/operator and doesn't employ salespeople, so costs are kept to a minimum which means savings for you!

HOW DOES EARWAX BUILD-UP AFFECT YOU?

It is one of the most common ear problems. The presence of earwax can not only reduce your hearing, but also cause itchiness, a blocked ear sensation and can cause your hearing aids to work inefficiently. We perform a micro-suction procedure to remove soft earwax. If your earwax is hard, eardrops are required for a week or two to soften the wax. This procedure is performed safely using a microscope to magnify the ear canal. No water is used in this procedure. We provide this free, courtesy service to our existing clients and to new clients having a hearing assessment. Otherwise, just a small fee is charged for this procedure.

WHAT CLIENTS SAY ABOUT US

VERY PROFESSIONAL AND HONEST

I needed to have a hearing test, which resulted in needing hearing aids. I shopped around and found Sandgate Hearing. I made an appointment with them and found them to be very professional, honest... And as for pricing, their prices are very reasonable and well below most other places. I would highly recommend them to anyone in the future.

-Rob Ashton, Wynnum

BEST HEARING AIDS I'VE EVER HAD

I've had hearing aids for many years, but these ones from Ronnie Lam are the best hearing aids I've ever had! I feel so much happier and I'd definitely recommend Sandgate Hearing to anyone with hearing problems.

-Desmond Grunwald, Bracken Ridge

RONNIE REALLY LISTENS AND SOLVED ALL MY HEARING PROBLEMS

I've had hearing aids before and I didn't persevere until I saw Ronnie at Sandgate Hearing. Ronnie really listened and he solved all my hearing problems. Now I can hear really well, no more loud TV! My wife, Pauline, is very happy about that. No more arguments between us either, as our relationship has improved with my better hearing and communication. We're very happy. It was definitely a good move coming to Sandgate Hearing!
