A Note FROM THE EDITOR

Heading into colder weather may not be a reason to celebrate, but it does herald the return of some of the Peninsula's most treasured events.

The Redcliffe Show reaches a significant milestone of 70 years this month. Head down to the Redcliffe Showgrounds from 28-30 June, for everything from fireworks and woodchopping to monster trucks. Don't forget to pick up a dagwood dog, fairy floss and a show bag!

KiteFest has got everyone covered this year with the addition of the Welcome to the Whales program and the much-anticipated performance by kids' music sensation, Baby Shark.

Another popular annual event is the Redcliffe Floral and Art Festival. This year's theme of 'All Things Bright and Beautiful, All Creatures Great and Small' promises some spectacular floral and artwork displays.

In the lead up to the upcoming State of Origin series, we get an insider's view from Redcliffe Dolphins coach, and former Origin star, Adam Mogg. Adam tells us about his time playing in the iconic 2006 series with some legends of the game.

With everything on this month around Redcliffe, there's no excuse to stay home. So rug up – in your best 'maroon' gear – and see what our beautiful region has to offer.

Welcoming the Whales

Photo supplied

Whale season is here again with these beautiful creatures appearing along our coastline from May to November. For the first time, Redcliffe KiteFest will include a Welcome to the Whales, as part of its celebrations.

This will incorporate a Whale Wishes ceremony and plenty of other activities for all ages.

The ceremony will greet the whales and wish them safe passage, while sharing interesting facts and information with attendees about these giants of the ocean. As part of the ceremony, KiteFest attendees can place pebbles on a magnificent whale sand sculpture that will be built on the Saturday of the event.

Renee Gusa, destination and event marketing manager for KiteFest, said there would be plenty of whale-related activities to occupy the whole family.

"There will be interactive, educational and reef awareness tools to engage people of all ages, including virtual reefs (different sizes) for activities, coral skeletons to touch and art clay corals to look at, reef checking and beach scavenger hunt."

Renee said that several activities "will have an environmental focus, not just celebrating whales that come to the region every year", with a spotlight on plastic reduction.

Plastic straws will not be provided by KiteFest vendors and people will be encouraged to take their part in reducing their use of plastic, particularly single-use plastics.

Spokesperson for Brisbane Whale Watching, Dessray Colledge, said the peninsula area was the perfect location for whale spotting as it "is literally a safe haven for them".

This year, approximately 25,000 whales are expected throughout the season.

To attend Welcome to the Whales, head down to Redcliffe KiteFest. The Welcome to the Whales activities are included as part of your KiteFest ticket.

Find out more about this event via the program and Welcome to the Whales pages at www.redcliffekitefest.com.au. Tickets are $5 to $27 and can be purchased on the website or on the day.

Aussie Humour

MAKES ITS WAY TO REDCLIFFE

Story Nadia Chapman

If you remember the classic comedy series 'Pauly's Fat Pizza' and 'Housos', then get ready for some laughs at the Deadly Down Under tour when it hits the peninsula this month.

The Captain Cook Tavern presents Pauly's solo Deadly Down Under on Saturday 1 June, where comedian Paul 'Pauly' Fenech will bring his special brand of humour including elements of his new TV series.

After a sell-out tour in 2018, Paul has worked on developing the funniest, most Australian show you could possibly think of. Being crowned the 'new prince of rude', Paul delivers a diverse sense of 'Aussie' hilarity to his shows.

"I've always been naturally cheeky so I love doing comedy, but doing comedy about real Australian characters is my real passion — most TV is just pretty boys and models faking it, comedy is much better," Paul said.

The Deadly Down Under tour will showcase Paul's much loved and outrageous 'bogan' humour that closely follows his popular TV series. There will be crowd games, parody songs, and Paul's alter egos Pauly and Franky Falzoni will even make an appearance.

"During our show, people get slapped on the face with my own personal thong, we also have beer sculling live on stage, how Aussie is that?" Paul said.

Creating two well-known comedy shows that uniquely portray 'bogan' humour has given Paul many great opportunities — including the time 'Housos' won a Logie for 'Most Outstanding Light Entertainment Program' in 2014.

"Winning a Logie was great, but last year I got to play a small role in Paul Hogan's new movie, it has some massive stars in it, like John Cleese and Mel Gibson. How can you beat that?" Paul said.

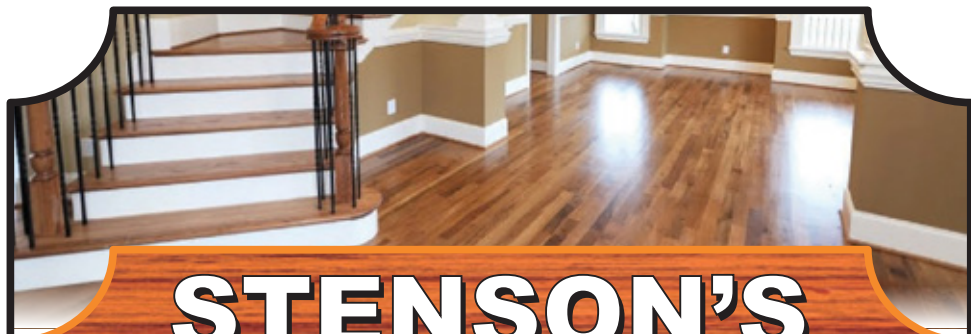

Paul is serious about providing the best comedy to our Redcliffe locals, even if some thong slapping is on the agenda.

"It's a great part of the world, real Aussies with a great sense of humour," he said.

Quiet Hour for Autism at Kippa-Ring Coles

Coles Kippa-Ring is now one of 256 Coles stores Australia-wide that offers Quiet Hour.

Between 10.30am and 11.30am every Tuesday, participating stores offer the opportunity for people on the autism spectrum, and others who experience sensory overload, to shop in relative comfort.

The usual shop noises are reduced with the turning down of register and scanner volumes, and PA announcements will occur only in an emergency. Some regular activities do not happen at all, such as trolley collection and Coles Radio. The lighting is also greatly reduced throughout the store.

Coles accessibility sponsor, Peter Sheean, said Coles had received an overwhelmingly positive response to Quiet Hour from customers.

"We know that it is estimated that one in 70 Australians is on the Autism spectrum," he said.

"That's a lot of customers who find it challenging to shop in our supermarkets. We are passionate about improving accessibility and providing a comfortable shopping experience for all our customers. We are addressing outdated technology in those stores that require updating so that we attain our goal of offering Quiet Hour at every eligible Coles by 2023."

Big Acts Heading Our Way for Rockin' 4 the Homeless

Story Donna Roberts

Rock out to big bands like You Am I and The Superjesus, as they headline at the 6th annual Rockin' 4 the Homeless event in August.

The event, being held on Saturday 31 August, promotes the live, original music scene in Redcliffe, while creating awareness and support for local aid organisation, The Breakfast Club.

"We have tried to make it bigger and better each year with the support from the Australian music industry," festival director, Dan Nebe said.

"It has been embraced by the community and continues to set the bar each year."

The event has a new home at Redcliffe Youth Space and Dan is excited to welcome visitors to the new location.

"We have much more room and now it has become a family event we expect a massive turnout with activities and entertainment to suit all tastes," Dan said.

"Our production is world class and we have the best production staff assembled from around the country booked for this show.

"You am I and The Superjesus have massive followings and they will light up Redcliffe with blistering sets.

"Both bands are committed to this cause and jumped at the chance to play for The Breakfast Club."

LET'S TALK ABOUT THE HEART-BREAKING TRUTH OF ACNE

Article by Anita East and published in The Cosmetic Surgery Magazine

If you have ever had acne, you know how debilitating it is for your self-esteem and confidence. If you are one of the lucky ones who has had clear skin all your life, you will know someone who has been hugely affected by this common skin condition.

FACTS ABOUT ACNE

- ♥ Inflammation of a hair follicle and oil gland
- ♥ Can cause long term raised and flat scarring
- ♥ Is classified as mild, moderate or severe depending on the presence of pustules, nodules and scarring

HOW TO TREAT ACNE

There are many theories about what methods work best to treat acne, but the current therapeutic guidelines are clear and consistent. This is the skincare system that I recommend to my patients who have acne and best of all, it doesn't cost the earth. # All Eyes On the Sky

The Moreton Bay region will play host to one of the biggest events on the winter calendar – Redcliffe KiteFest.

Clontarf's Pelican Park is where you will find the Peninsula's most colourful weekend this June.

Division 6 Councillor, Koliana Winchester, said she was excited to welcome locals and visitors for a weekend of fun. "It's the ultimate kids' weekend, with a range of low-cost activities and entertainment, all full of fun and colour," Ms Winchester said.

"Adrenaline junkies can enjoy jet ski stunt shows, aerobatic displays and amusement rides."

A diverse range of entertainment is on offer this year, with many new features in the program.

Moreton Bay Region Industry and Tourism CEO, Shane Newcombe, said that Redcliffe KiteFest had been able to secure the world-famous Baby Shark stage show.

"Redcliffe KiteFest brings tens of thousands of people from all across South-East Queensland to the Moreton Bay Region," Mr Newcombe said.

"We're thrilled to have a world-class entertainment program this year, for locals and visitors to the region."

The Sesame Lane Kids Zone will be a hive of activity for children of all ages with fun activities, exciting workshops and vibrant entertainment.

Flutters Fairy Land will entertain the little ones with twice-daily shows and storytime sessions, as well as face painting, over the weekend.

The Kindred Main Stage will host a line-up of local musicians and bands, plus dedicated children's shows twice daily.

Visitors can enjoy musical acts Hope D, Alex Konsenko, Ben Barker and Ruby Gilbert on the Saturday; and Ballantyne, Leo Altarelli, Kayso Grande Duo and Peppermint Ollie on the Sunday.

The sky above will be an amazing sight as colourful kites are flown high by domestic and international professional kite flyers and the incredible Redcliffe Kite Club flyers. Councillor Winchester encourages local families to bring their own kite, "Have a go at flying your own kite high in the sky in the USC public kite flying zone," she said.

Baby Shark Swims Into Moreton Bay

Just when you thought it was safe to go back in the water... Baby Shark swims into town! The worldwide phenomenon is coming to our shores as part of a live stage show for Redcliffe KiteFest on June 15 and 16.

Mayor Allan Sutherland makes no apologies for getting the lyrics stuck in your head.

"This is a massive coup for our region, in fact Redcliffe KiteFest will be one of the very first places in Australia where you'll be able to catch this show," he said.

"The little ones will love the opportunity to dance and sing along to the stage show 'Finding Baby Shark', starring the world-famous BABY SHARK, at two shows twice daily on the Kindred main stage."

South Korean children's educational entertainment brand, Pinkfong, originally released the song in 2016. Racking up an impressive 2.6 billion views on YouTube, the catchy tune and dance reached worldwide viral status in 2018.

Although the earworm drives some parents crazy, the interactive pantomime performance is sure to be one of the highlights of Redcliffe KiteFest for the young and young at heart.

KYLE 'ON CUE' TO FULFIL LIFELONG DREAM

Most of us have watched or played eight ball pool with friends for recreation, at some stage. For one local young man, Kyle Thomson, his passion for the game has taken him to the peak of the sport.

Earlier this year, 17-year-old Kyle, who is a member of Norths Cue Sports, competed at the National Eight Ball Titles. He played with such resilience and composure at this event to that he finished up as the runner-up.

A bigger moment for Kyle was still to come. Following the national titles, Kyle was selected for the Australian team to travel to England, for the World Eight Ball Titles to be held this month.

Kyle said that being selected to represent Australia was the pinnacle of the game for a junior player.

“ I have tried for this spot for the past three years as it is an under 18 event, missing out on two previous occasions by one frame,” he said.

Kyle said he would put 110 percent into bringing the World Eight Ball Title back to Australia with him.

Tony Hodges, President of Norths Cue Sports, said it was an extremely exciting time for everyone at the club, watching Kyle fulfil his lifelong dream.

“This has been a dream of Kyle's, to represent Australia since he started playing pool at the age of seven,” Tony said.

Kyle plays A grade fixtures on Tuesday nights and Social fixtures on Friday nights, at his club, Norths Cue Sports. The club is based at Bramble Bay Bowls Club in Woody Point, where they have 15 tables and more than 200 members of all ages.

“I have watched Kyle grow over the past 11 years at our club into a well-mannered, humble young man who has always taken the time to help out other players with their game,” Tony said.

Kyle will fly to England on 15 June with cue in hand. If you wish to leave Kyle a message of support or want to learn more about the club go to the Norths Cue Sports Facebook page or email northscuesports@bigpond.com

CARNIVAL RACING ON THE PENINSULA

The Redcliffe Harness Racing Club is all set for a bumper Winter Carnival meeting this month at the Redcliffe Paceway. The carnival is the club's first ever Saturday night program.

Highlights of the night include the Moreton Bay Regional Council Redcliffe Gold Cup, Comfort Inn and Suites Redcliffe Derby, TAB Redcliffe Oaks, Garrard's Redcliffe Yearling Sales Series Final and the TAB Redcliffe Trotters Cup.

Bernie Ring, president of the club, said hosting five group races on the peninsula, at this event, was unprecedented following the very first group race held here, last year.

"Some big names in the harness racing industry will be here, with Victorian trainer driver team, Lauren and Shane Tritton, along with Ricky Alchin who will be back for a possible tilt at the Derby with Regulus, the winner of last year's Yearling Sales Series Final," Bernie said.

Peninsula residents are invited to take in the action from a range of great vantage points, including upstairs in the Paceway Restaurant, while enjoying a meal or a relaxing drink from the bar.

"We'll have some additional entertainment on the night in the restaurant as well as a live band playing downstairs outside, where music can be enjoyed until after the last race," Bernie said.

The club is also assuring patrons of its commitment to safety following an accident that occurred earlier this year.

"We have worked closely with Workplace Health and Safety Queensland to put in place the [required] safety measures and have been given the all clear to continue racing," Bernie said.

A WORD FROM OUR REPRESENTATIVES

Koliana Winchester

More than $5 million has been approved for the redevelopment of Council's Redcliffe Administration Centre, into a new home for the Redcliffe Art Gallery and office space for community groups. This funding boost is a win for senior groups and the arts' community. By creating a central location, to house the new gallery, customer service centre, Redcliffe's University of the Third Age (U3A) and the Redcliffe Seniors Computer Club, we will bolster the area's reputation as a hub for community and culture.

The overhaul will convert the ground floor into a modern gallery with over 1000m2 of floor space for exhibitions, as well as a brand new foyer, courtyard, maker and curatorial space and storage. This project is about building community capacity at its core. Alongside U3A's commitment to life-long learning and Redcliffe Seniors' Computer Club's dedication to digital literacy education, the new gallery will exhibit the region's creativity, and also host travelling exhibitions to inspire locals and visitors alike. Residents can still keep in contact with staff and their divisional councillor while works are underway. If you need to speak to council staff, then head to the Redcliffe Library, where the customer service team has been temporarily relocated. During the renovations, one-on-one meetings with local councillors will be held at the Redcliffe Library. Building renovation works commenced in May and will take approximately 36 weeks to complete, weather permitting.

Yvette D'Ath MP

I urge Redcliffe residents not to delay being vaccinated against the flu. With winter approaching the flu can cause serious complications, particularly for the elderly and people affected by chronic or ongoing medical conditions. Vaccination is the best protection against the flu.

If you don't have access to a free vaccine, you can arrange to be vaccinated by your doctor or an immunisation nurse at your local medical centre, as well as some local community pharmacies that offer a private flu vaccination service.

The Redcliffe Show is fast approaching and will be held on the 28th, 29th and 30th of June. This is an excellent showcase of local produce, craftsmanship and community spirit. The show will also feature horse jumping, wood chopping, a championship dog show, with many food trucks, sideshows and displays. Thank you to the wonderful work of the Redcliffe AH & I Society in hosting the 70th Redcliffe Show.

Luke Howarth MP

I am incredibly humbled and grateful to be your local federal member for another term. I have never taken this job for granted and I never will. I love this community, which I have the incredible privilege of being able to call my home.

I have a plan for our community over the next three years. I want us to have the road and sporting infrastructure we need, as our community grows. I want to see more people gain employment and I'll keep running my Job Seeker Boot Camps to help local job seekers connect with local employers. I'll work with local business owners to cut red tape and boost tourism across Moreton Bay.

Most importantly, I will keep listening to locals, to make sure I know what you want to see for our community, and so I can represent you effectively in Parliament. If you have any concerns or ideas for the Redcliffe Peninsula, please let me know at luke.howarth.mp@aph.gov.au or call my team on 3284 8008.

NEW SERVICES ON REDCLIFFE PENINSULA LINE.

Thirty-two extra weekly train services started in May, adding 14,000 seats to south east Queensland's rail network.

This includes a new 7:10 am service from Kippa-Ring to Central Station, Monday to Friday.

The new services come after 46,000 weekly seats were added to the rail network last year with the upgrades of 193 three-carriage services to six-carriage services.

Monday-Friday
7:10am from
Kippa Ring Station to Central on the Redcliffe

Queensland Rail is on track to deliver further timetable improvements later this year, following the largest driver recruitment and training campaign in QR history.

More people are returning to the rail network after we saw a record 182 million trips on public transport in south east Queensland during 2017/18.

'Vixens'

You'll 'Fall' for Sisters' Blend of Country Music

Story Donna Roberts

Kristina, Adrienne and Anneliese Whitehouse are sisters with a difference. As the Peninsula-band, Vixens of Fall, they have been singing together for most of their lives.

"Quite often when we were young, we'd start our day with dad playing the guitar and us sitting on the end of his bed, singing some of the classics," Kristina said.

"We had to make coffee for both he and mum before we could start playing."

Officially formed as a band in 2014, they have been rehearsing and writing ever since.

The band name – Vixens of Fall – came about when Kristina was teaching her Year 3 students about the seasons. On the same day, Adrienne was stocking lipsticks at her job and found a dark orange and red blend called 'Vixen'.

"Autumn Vixens didn't have the same ring to it," Kristina said. "Vixens of Fall, on the other hand, sounded more sultry, more mysterious, more beguiling."

It also perfectly suited the sisters.

Sisters, Anneliese, Kristina and Adrienne are 'Vixens of Fall'

“It was kind of a metaphor for us. We are all so different, yet we work together – we blend, we harmonise; we’re sisters,” Kristina said.

Whereas they are influenced by many diverse artists and styles – everything from Fleetwood Mac and AC/DC to Miranda Lambert and I’m With Her – they consider themselves a country band.

“But there are so many aspects to country,” Kristina said.

“We like to adapt sounds from the artists we love and make them into us.

“We think we will always be developing as artists – we don’t want to rest on our laurels. We want to always surprise.”

Originally from Cairns, the Whitehouse sisters have called the Peninsula home for the past 20 years, attending Scarborough State School and Grace Lutheran College.

Vixens of Fall have performed at the Tamworth Country Music Festival and released their debut EP, ‘A Love Like Ours’, in May. The sisters are excited to begin promoting their new tunes.

“Any gig that includes the audience getting up and dancing, always makes our hearts happy,” Kristina said.

“When it’s obvious that people are getting into the groove, it will always put a bounce in our step, and our energy will always get bigger!”

Catch the Vixens of Fall at the Redcliffe Leagues Club on Thursday 27 June, with further dates to be announced for July, August and September. Find out more via the band’s Facebook or Instagram accounts.

It's never too late for love.

Beverley Rilatt-Richardson

A Redcliffe mid-life dating expert is offering hope to women looking for love in later life.

Beverley Rilatt-Richardson helps women, intimidated by the idea of putting themselves out there again, to overcome that “feeling that life is passing you by”. Instead she reminds her clients that “this can be the time of (their) life”.

“I teach that it’s NEVER too late for love, by working with women to prepare them to feel confident about attracting a quality partner – despite divorce, messy breakups or how they feel about themselves,” Beverley said.

Drawing on her own experience of being widowed at age 67 after 31 years with her beloved husband, Beverley understands the insecurities that can plague a woman considering dating again.

“You start worrying about your physical appearance and doubting if anyone will want you.”

After a period of grieving, Beverley looked for purpose in life and found herself at a Heart Intelligence Retreat where the feminine and sensual woman within her emerged after 50 years.

“At 72 I started dating again and fell in love at 74 – with a much younger man!” Beverley said.

Now known as ‘The Feminine Guru’ and having appeared on SBS, Beverley teaches other women and shares her tips.

“On the first date don’t try to be ‘on your best behaviour’ — just be your authentic self. He wants to ‘get a feel’ (emotionally) of what you’d be like to be around. If you’re overly cautious, you risk coming across as rather bland, and he could lose interest.”

“If you feel nervous — take two or three deep breaths to help you relax, so you don’t just talk about you, and ask questions to help him share more about himself so you can decide if you’d like to continue dating him or not.”

“Men love the feminine and sensual in women, whatever their age. And there is nothing sexier than a confident woman!”

Enjoy a night of sophistication and wit when Redcliffe Musical Theatre presents an adaptation of Jane Austen's Pride and Prejudice this June.

Madeleine Johns, president of Redcliffe Musical Theatre, said they chose to present this literary classic because of its popularity and universal appeal.

"This particular 1934 adaptation, by Helen Jerome, is as close to the original novel, in terms of language, as we could find. It is also staged in three acts – an old-fashioned style of presentation rarely seen these days," Madeleine said.

The cast consists of 18 actors of varying ages. They were carefully selected through a rigorous audition process, which assessed their ability to embody the character, use a British accent and demonstrate period-style acting.

"Austen fans can rest-assured that the language, era and dialogue are all true to the original story," Madeleine said.

Theatre-goers can look forward to a traditional box-style set and true-to-era furnishings and props, as well as cabaret style seating where they can enjoy a glass of wine or a cheese platter while watching the show.

Local App To Connect Those In Need

An innovative new web mapping application, being launched this month in Redcliffe, will connect community members to the key services they most need.

The brainchild of Patrick Burke from Scarborough-based Yellow Dot Geospatial, the tool will be available, following its official launch during the Youth, Community and Homelessness Conference on 27-28 June, via the website 'Whereis.Red'.

Patrick said he developed the tool with the support of the Rotary Club of Kippa-Ring – North Lakes, to show what local services are available for the homeless and other community members in need.

"Whereis.Red' [will show] services from multiple service providers and indicates where free meals for the homeless are available, as well as other services like free counselling and haircuts," Patrick said.

"It also shows accommodation for youth and help for women in a dangerous domestic situation. It even has the location of public toilets and indicates if showers are available, which is important to homeless people. It also indicates if the toilets are suitable for wheelchairs and shows the location of community centres."

Patrick said the website covered rural areas, as well as the cities throughout Queensland, and he was "hoping to expand it, to cover the other states as well".

Father Howard Smith, Vicki Kerkow, Liz Peters and Deidre Windham get ready for the Redcliffe Floral and Art Festival.

Bloomin' Beautiful!

Residents and visitors alike will welcome the third annual Redcliffe Floral and Art Festival when it bursts into a kaleidoscope of colour this June.

Festival coordinator, Liz Peters, said the organising committee had planned an expansive and entertaining event, which will cater to all ages.

“The festival was inspired by flower shows, held many years ago in our church. The idea of combining floral installations, art, and a meaningful community event, while highlighting our beautiful church, grew into what has become a highly successful occasion for everyone,” Mrs Peters said.

Last year's event attracted close to 1100 visitors, who enthusiastically embraced the range of displays and activities on offer.

This year's theme of 'All Things Bright and Beautiful, All Creatures Great and Small' will be reflected in artwork provided by Redcliffe Art Society, pottery and ceramics from Redcliffe Pottery Group and the floral installations created by church members.

Additionally, the Redcliffe Lapidary Club will demonstrate the transformation from natural to crafted rocks and gems – 'the hidden beauty within'.

Music will be provided by the Bramble Bay Ukers, the Bits and Pieces band, harmonica playing and the unique Collins pipe organ.

Mrs Peters is also excited about this year's Kids' Corner, which will feature a Noah's Ark theme.

"There will be a wonderful display of the animals boarding the ark as well as soft toys and activities to enjoy."

Attendees will also have the opportunity to sample wines as they appreciate the exhibitions. The highly sought after Devonshire Teas will also be a huge drawcard for many.

Other highlights include a beautiful painting by the late Sandra Hines, a well-known and much missed stalwart of the Redcliffe Art Society, the Mousetrap theatre group and other community organisations, which will be contributing to the raffles' prizes. Raffles will be drawn at closing on Sunday and all floral displays will be offered up for sale.

As a completely free community event this is a not-to-be-missed outing for the whole family.

THE REDCLIFFE SHOW

SEVEN DECADES OF CARNIVAL FUN

28th-30th June

Redcliffe Showgrounds,
Cnr Scarborough Rd &
Portwood St, Redcliffe

Story Karli Steenkamp

After entertaining the community for the past 70 years, the Redcliffe Show promises to deliver an unforgettable experience this month.

With the show being held at the local showgrounds, patrons will be treated to the usual favourites including firework displays, the Jetpack man, V8 Trackskill, woodchopping, horse showjumping, motocross, sideshow alley, monster trucks, stock parades and handiwork displays. There will even be pig racing.

The Redcliffe Show's rich history started in 1949, with Charles Webb, a local councilor and deputy mayor, who had experience with other shows in Queensland. Cr Webb and Mayor Ben Bradley formed the Redcliffe Show Society and the first show was held in 1950.

Members of Charles Webb's family are still involved in the show, to this day, and the organising committee continually strives to keep the show entertaining and to keep the legacy going.

Secretary of the Redcliffe Show Society, Barbara Mapp, said the longevity of the Redcliffe Show was due to the support from the local community and volunteers.

"[The Show] brings all families together. It is something for every age group," she said.

Owner of Pilpel Restaurant, Adiel Ben Karmona, has been going to the show for the past 12 years and he is also one of the sponsors, as he feels "the community should support one another".

"We are all locals. We shop local, everything is local, you do not get more local than that," he said.

“The stalls, the fireworks, everything the Show is doing, they are doing well.

"If you want to see the real Redcliffe, it is the place to be," Adiel said.

The show will also feature school section to showcase arts and crafts, writing and poetry, creative textiles and fashion from learners of the local schools. A competition will be held for the best school display.

Red Music has organised entertainment for the three-day carnival with performances from Ruby Reds and the Red Rockettes.

Adam Mogg

An Insiders' View of State of Origin

Story Wayne I Flack

There's a buzz in the air for footy fanatics. State of Origin has arrived, and the hopes and dreams of State supremacy are emerging, once again. The Redcliffe Dolphins has been the breeding ground for several Queensland Origin players. One such player was Adam Mogg, the current Redcliffe Dolphins premiership winning coach.

Adam, who played in the iconic 2006 origin series, was a player with the Redcliffe Dolphins, before being awarded an NRL contract in 2002. Part of the emerging origin squad in 2006 due to consistent form, Adam was fortunate to earn selection on the wing following injury to Greg Inglis, and scored two tries on debut.

Adam said being selected for Game 2 of the 2006 Origin series at Suncorp Stadium will always be a moment he reflects on with enormous pride.

"Being on the playing field with the likes of Darren Lockyer, Petero Cinoceva, Cameron Smith and Jonathon Thurston was incredible," Adam said.

Adam went on to say how those guys had gone on to become immortals of the game, and to have played with them at the start of their careers was very special.

Along with his teammates, Adam and coach, Mal Meninga, had a lot of pressure put on them to win, in 2006. Succeed they did, and they forged the beginning of a Queensland dynasty.

Standing on the MCG in Melbourne after game three, when Darren Lockyer held the trophy up and said this was for all of Queensland was pretty awe-inspiring," Adam said.

Now that those immortals are either retired or injured, the current players and their origin coach, Kevin Walters, are under similar pressure, with questions being raised. Who will step up in this new era?

Adam said he felt there could be at least one player with a former connection to Redcliffe standing up.

The big question is could Queensland win?

"Yes I believe so," Adam said.

For more information on the Dolphins and State of Origin go to www.redcliffedolphins.com.au or www.qrl.com.au.

Redcliffe to host Youth, Community and Homelessness Conference

*Queensland NDIS
Ambassador and Paralympian, Karni Liddell*

Story Kirstie Maier

Enhancing support for young people and the homeless in the community will come under the spotlight at a conference being held in Redcliffe this month.

The first of its kind to be held in the Moreton Bay region, the Youth, Community and Homelessness Conference will be hosted by Redcliffe not-for-profit homelessness service, Chameleon Housing on 27-28 June.

Spokesperson for Chameleon Housing, Diana Franchina, said the two-day event was an opportunity for people who work in the areas of homelessness, domestic violence, disability, youth mental health and alcohol/drug misuse, to come together to enhance knowledge between service providers.

"Some of the sessions and workshops will challenge current approaches to practice, including case management and youth services support and will educate on various processes and strategies to enhance service provider practice," she said.

The conference comes at a time when Chameleon Housing, a specialist homelessness service on the Peninsula that supports young people aged 16-25 years, is receiving an increasing number of enquiries for housing, particularly from single young men aged 25 – 40 years.

"Last year, Chameleon House provided over 5,500 bed nights to young people who were homeless," she said.

"We have also noticed recently an increased number of enquiries for housing from single young men in the 25 to 40 age group due to adverse life events and lack of affordable housing. It is also to be noted that due to marriage and relationship breakdown, women over 55 years are now the fastest growing group of homeless people in Australia.

"Since 2007, the youth shelter, one of six properties we manage, has provided accommodation support to over 10,194 young people."

Keynote speakers for the conference include Father Chris Riley, Founder of Youth Off the Streets, and Karni Liddell, Queensland NDIS Ambassador and Paralympian. Father Riley has worked with disadvantaged youth for more than 40 years and Karni is an internationally acclaimed and sought after speaker, and recently delivered a TED Talk.

Exhibition Celebrates Colours of Moreton Bay

Story Jodie Woodward

Local artist and retailer, Tarsha Burke, will display her artwork in a solo exhibition, Colours of Moreton Bay, in Redcliffe during June.

The exhibition will showcase the past 26 years of Tarsha's journey through art and life and will celebrate her love of the Moreton Bay area.

"My journey as an artist has been a mixture of functional art, traditional painting, and graphic design," Tarsha said.

"I have sold many artworks over the years in between real life and being an artisan – painting fabric and glassware and designing homewares."

As well as being an artist, Tarsha runs homewares store, Colours and Home, in Redcliffe. She has seen her business grow, but is happy to return some of her focus to her artwork in this new exhibition.

"I'm very excited about these new works. The exhibition will be a little walk through my journey as an artist with a focus on Moreton Bay."

Tarsha hopes her exhibition will inspire people to pursue their own passion in life. Her displayed artwork will be for sale. For more information go to www.moretonbayartscouncil.org.

Kids' 'Adventures' Ahead in Clontarf

A new playground, set to start construction soon, will pave the way for more kids' adventures in Clontarf.

Moreton Bay City Council has awarded a half-a-million dollar tender to construct a new children's adventure playground in Clontarf.

"I'm thrilled to announce the tender to build a new playground on Hornibrook Esplanade in Clontarf has been awarded to Disc Landscapes," Division 6 Councillor, Koliana Winchester, said.

"I've been pushing for this project for some time now to complete the foreshore precinct at the intersection of Hornibrook Esplanade and Victoria Avenue.

"It will include new picnic facilities and pathway upgrades, with designs to complement the existing parkour facility."

Cr Winchester said work on the playground was expected to start in July "so that the playground's ready for action come the September school holidays".

"Redcliffe's playgrounds are massively popular with local families on weekends and even more so over the holiday period, so I think this $564,000 project will be a very worthwhile investment."

The nearby parkour equipment features a series of challenges for kids to tackle, such as an angled wall, climbing frames, and scalable poles. Parkour involves running, jumping, climbing, rolling and leaping to negotiate the challenges.

FUNK, FOLK, BLUES AND REDCLIFFE ROOTS: DILLON CARLSSON

Local musician Dillon Carlsson from six-piece groove band, The Ninth Chapter, is the first to admit that their rehearsals are a little unconventional.

"Most of us know each other since school days, so it's amazing to still be playing great shows, given the fact we're now scattered from Redcliffe to Kiama," Dillon said.

"Given the geographical spread, it certainly makes rehearsing 'interesting'."

The Ninth Chapter boasts Jaz Munro (guitar and lead vocals), Glen McClymont (percussion and vocals), Zac Page (drums), Dan Bowland (bass), Tom Hilliar (trumpet) and Dillon Carlsson (saxophones and flute).

Dillon's ties to the Peninsula began in the year 2000, when he moved to Redcliffe, after travelling around Australia.

"I've worked at Cascade Place, for CPL – Choice, Passion, Life, since then," Dillon said.

"The lifestyle is laidback, [and] you get access to the city easily if you want it.

"We love raising our family here."

With more than a decade of touring and three EPs to their name, The Ninth Chapter recently released their self-titled debut album and latest single 'My Own Time'.

The Ninth Chapter is renowned for pairing their heavy groove with thumping horns when playing live, but on record the group sculpt a vast landscape of sounds, moods and tempos.

"The [album] has been a really exciting achievement for us," Dillon said.

“There's some real variety on this with some high-energy out-and-out funk tracks, alongside some smooth more folky songs.

"I think it pays homage to our roots and still indulges in the essence of what the 'Chapter' is all about."

With a host of album launch shows to play and a slot at the popular Blues on Broadbeach festival in May, Dillon is looking forward to future opportunities with the band.

The Blues on Broadbeach festival was a significant highlight, "but there's a string of others we're all pumped for," Dillon said.

"Byron, Grafton, Bellingen, Gold Coast, Sydney are among the destinations."

Yoga for Blokes by Blokes

Redcliffe Yoga and Massage is determined to share the benefits of regular yoga with everyone, which is why they've launched 'Yoga For Blokes by Blokes'.

Sam Seghers, from Redcliffe Yoga & Massage, said the classes were designed to appeal to men who may not want to attend classes predominantly made up of women.

"A lot of blokes think that yoga is just for women, but originally it was only for men, so rather than adjusting poses for male anatomy and physiology, it is made for it!" Sam said.

The classes for blokes are run by highly experienced yoga instructor, Guy Gibson, who is passionate about getting men over 35 moving.

"This is when our misspent youth starts to catch up with us and our body doesn't quite bounce back the way we remembered it used to," Guy said.

The classes also draw on Guy's experience, as a former army physical training instructor, to incorporate the type of exercise men love to do.

Book in for a five week block, purchase a three-class trial pass or a six-class flexipass. For more information or to book classes go to www.redcliffeyogaandmassage.com/yoga4blokes

Redcliffe is the place to be for body art and rockabilly fans, when the Patriots Australia Moreton Bay Chapter hosts its Annual Tattoo Show and Rockabilly Competition.

Patriots Australia is a Military Motorcycle Club for regular, reserve and ex-serving members of the Australian or Allied Defence Forces. Vice President of the Moreton Bay Chapter, Jason Baker, said the event reflected the club's commitment to promoting a fun, family-friendly environment.

"There is plenty to see and do throughout the day with stalls on site, food and refreshments, and live entertainment into the night," Jason said.

"Past shows have seen over 1000 people through the gate. Entry fee to the tattoo show is $5 with fantastic trophies up for grabs."

Proceeds from the day will go to Wounded Heroes, a well-respected military veteran's charity.

"[Over] the past three years we have donated more than $20,000 to the Leukaemia Foundation, Wounded Heroes, Legacy Brisbane, and Breakaway Inc."

WHAT'S Hot AROUND TOWN

*Majelen (above)

Story Kylie Fennell

There's 'no turning back' for Australian rock legend, Kevin Borich, who continually writes, records and releases new music, and who will perform at the Redcliffe Leagues Club this month.

Kevin recorded his first single with Astor Records at the age of twelve, which led to a music career that has spanned six decades.

Kevin said he would be performing his classic hits such as 'Gonna See My Baby Tonight' and 'No Turning Back' at the free gig on Friday 21 June, as well as a set described as "electric original FunkingRockingBlues".

Praised by rock historians as "one of the most celebrated guitar players in the history of Australian rock", Kevin is quick to give kudos to his fellow musicians.

"I have a wonderful band. Hotshots Jon Carson on drums and Chris Gilbert on bass – and they both sing," Kevin said.

At the other end of the musical spectrum is Sunshine Coast-based guitarist and singer, Majelen, who will play a free gig at the Bathers Bar, Suttons Beach Pavilion on Friday 21 June.

Touted as a ground-breaking artist in the indie/folk music scene, Majelen has a unique guitar style featuring rhythms inspired from years of backpacking with her signature Maton guitar.

"I play very percussive guitar and combine what would normally be the 'drum' part, with the chordal part at the same time – so my music is pretty upbeat and fun," Majelen said.

Majelen recently played at Wintermoon Festival in Mackay and is "looking forward to getting back into performing around Brisbane and the Sunshine Coast – as well as recording my next EP which is coming out later this year".

Another gig on the Peninsula that you may like to catch this month is the Rolling Stonez, a Rolling Stones tribute show at Mon Komo Hotel on Friday 14 June. Tickets start from $75 for a dinner and show package and are available via www.stickytickets.com.au.

At the Redcliffe Entertainment Centre take a trip back in time with the Piccadilly Olde Time Music Hall on Tuesday 4 June, or enjoy the classics with the Moreton Bay Symphony Orchestra performing Beethoven on Saturday 8 June. Get tickets via www.redcliffeentertainmentcentre.com.au.

Bringing Light to the Longest Night

Story Sally Eberhardt

Tribe and Picnic Hill is inviting locals to “The Longest Night” – a mid-winter bonfire with bands, food trucks and entertainment, to be held on Friday 14 June, in the lead up to the Winter Solstice.

Ryan Elson, founder of the non-profit community group, ‘Tribe Social Belonging’, said this event was to recognise and reduce loneliness and isolation in our community.

“Winter Solstice (22 June) is the shortest day of the year, bringing with it the longest night. For lonely people, the nights are the hardest so we have chosen to light up the longest night by creating a warm, safe and comfortable way for people to connect with community,” Ryan said.

“The bonfire is a beacon for all those feeling isolated or that don’t feel comfortable in social situations. People can find it hard to go out so we make it as easy as possible by having Tribe people there to welcome them.

“Picnic Hill...welcomed [the bonfire idea] as an addition to their usual activities.”

Don’t let this be The Longest Night for you or anyone else. Come and be part of this family-friendly event. Entry is by gold coin donation.

Star in Erin May Band’s New Video

If being in a music video is one of your dreams, then you’re in luck.

Erin May Band, of Triple J Unearthed fame, is filming a video for a new single as part of a free show at The Bathers Bar, Suttons Beach Pavilion on Friday 14 June, and you’re invited.

The event is open to anyone to “come along and enjoy the show, drink, dance, sit, stand, talk, scream, whatever you feel”.

Erin May singer, Kirk Jeffs, said the band had wanted to make a video playing to an audience following their debut EP release of ‘Turn It Up’.

“To make it more interesting and fun, we’re not only filming a performance, we’re also filming all around the evening as a whole.”

The Bathers Bar at Suttons Beach Pavilion was handpicked by the band as the perfect venue for the filming.

“It’s a remarkable space and feels like our home turf as we’ve played their every month since we started performing publicly.”

Those who are interested are encouraged to indicate they are ‘going’ via the event listing on the ‘Erin May Band’ Facebook page.

Italian Favourite RAISES THE BAR

Carla, owner of
What's In The Pot?

Peninsula eatery, What's In The Pot? Osteria, is stirring things up with the addition of a wine and tapas bar to its already popular traditional Italian offering.

Owner, director and passionate cook, Carla, said since the restaurant's opening six years ago, it had grown into a vibrant space, and its new wine and tapas bar was inevitable given its popularity.

"The new bar adds a real sense of authenticity to the restaurant, as it resembles the many little bars and restaurants in Italy," she said.

"Stepping through the doors of our wine bar will take you straight to Italy – the welcoming atmosphere is just like home to us and we hope patrons feel the same.

"You can sample our Italian wines, have a spritz and some cocktails that Flori will happily make for you and just like in Italy, you can enjoy an aperitivo before dinner."

Carla said the urge to bring traditional and authentic Italian flavours back to the table and make people feel at home had been the two main goals when opening What's in the Pot?

"We are a point of difference in the local food industry, as every dish is made from scratch," she said.

"There is no cutting corners and we respect the product we are using, giving each dish the time and love it deserves.

“Food and flavours entice me, both savoury and sweet – simple ingredients are the base of all our dishes, followed by time and love, which complete the process.”

Traditional Italian flavours are front and centre at the Redcliffe restaurant, with menu items including house favourite, osso buco with polenta, swordfish tartare and prawns in brandy and butter sauce, plus a range of delicious homemade desserts.

A variety of different seafood and meat options are also on offer, including goat, pork shanks and lamb, and vegetarian and vegan meals are also available, all reflecting the restaurant's renowned tradition and taste.

The What's In The Pot? Wine and Tapas Bar is open Tuesday to Sunday, from 6.30pm with nibbles and a new tapas menu available.

Story Kelly Livett

REDCLIFFE COMMUNITY GARDENS

The Uniting Church of Redcliffe has recently established a community garden initiative and although they are still in the early stages of development, they are open to the public. There are three garden plots currently running, with room for more to be created and tended. The gardens cater to gardeners of all ages, including a section of beds suitable for children to learn how to garden and grow their own food. They are located at 1 Richens Street, Redcliffe. The organisers recommend that the best time to catch up at the garden is mornings when there is usually someone around or you can enquire at the church office for more information.

THE DRAW OF THE REDCLIFFE PENINSULA

The Redcliffe Peninsula is a great place to live, but there are a few things any new resident might want to consider. A discussion on a community social media page did a good job of identifying some of the great things about Redcliffe, such as a variety of cafes and restaurants, a sense of community, closeness to Brisbane, beautiful beaches and parks, and spectacular sunrises and sunsets. The same discussion thread identified a few less appealing things to consider when thinking about making Redcliffe your permanent home, such as a lack of late trading, some flood zoning issues concerning insurance for homeowners, the quality of the national broadband network (NBN) and mosquitoes. Overall, however the Peninsula is given a big thumbs up. One local commented, "Doesn't matter where you are – from Woody Point to Scarborough is all fantastic." Another local said, "If you are kind, thoughtful and helpful, you will fit right in. I think the sense of community outweighs any negative thing".

NEW FISHING RULES FOR MOLLUSCS AND JEWFISH

There are new fishing rules to be aware of in the Moreton Bay Region. A complete ban on fishing or collecting molluscs and the number of Black Jewfish a fisherman can have in his possession has dropped from two to one. This ban on molluscs is the final step in the Fisheries Department's ongoing efforts to limit the overfishing of gastropods and bivalve molluscs. This is because they don't travel from one area and are more susceptible to decreases in population. Overfishing of Black Jewfish has previously been a problem in Queensland and this, coupled with an increase in demand for Black Jewfish swim bladders, means Fisheries Queensland has seen a growing black market springing up in the past 12 to 18 months. Many locals made their opinions about the new rules known on social media, with one comment summing up the general feeling, "Fantastic! Real Ecosystem Management well done, Fisheries". For more information visit www.daf.qld.gov.au.

LEARN TO FISH

Many Redcliffe locals love to fish, but what can you do if you don't know how to fish and would like to learn? A recent social media post asked just that question. Many in the local fishing community were quick to chime in with helpful suggestions and tips. The local council often runs beginner fishing classes as part of their healthy active program (www.moretonbay.qld.gov.au). There are also commercially run fishing schools for all ages. Those who want a more casual and personal approach could go to a fishing spot where there are other fishermen and strike up a conversation, which is a good starting point. Alternatively, you could approach your local fishing-related businesses for general information on good fishing spots and a few basic pointers.

Righting the Wrongs.

Story Richard Lancaster

Instances of suburban robberies, carjacking and assaults, many with violence, are being increasingly highlighted in the media. It is reported that children as young as ten years of age are being held in watch-houses for indefinite periods, not only because our existing youth detention centres are overcrowded, but because they are not safe in their own homes. It appears that something is seriously amiss in our communities.

One of its root causes of this apparent spike in adult and juvenile crime is the widening gap between our country's haves and have-nots. Fuelled by the increased availability of cheap drugs and alcohol, it is easy for those with little hope, and no voice or incentive, to give up and take what seems to be the easy way out of their dilemma: crime! This is reflected in similar situations, faced by authorities in many of the western world's big cities. An image that has stayed with Pimpernel, arising from his last visit to Los Angeles, was the number of people living in large cardboard boxes in the shadows of skyscrapers. The use of drugs and the crime rate there is also high!

The leaders of our nation, our politicians, need to show resolution in tackling this major problem head-on. However, we as a community, can individually and collectively play our part in helping to narrow that gap. For example, making ourselves aware of those in our community, who are in need of support. It can start by simply saying hello over the garden fence. Making our politicians and the media aware of community problems that are not always publicly visible, is important too. How often do we hear people say 'It's better to mind my own business?' In some instances it is, but not all the time! What about referring to homeless people as 'No-hoppers or bums?' Do we know why they are homeless? If it's a neighbourhood problem, then it's everyone's problem and we should help in solving it. Equally saddening is the news that some Neighbourhood Watch groups have closed or are about to close, because of diminished attendance. That group is all about keeping the community safe and together. We can solve many of these problems, if we stay together.

Get a taste of Stanthorpe!

If you're looking for somewhere a little cooler than Brisbane this winter, take a drive to the wonderfully picturesque and often chilly area of The Granite Belt, with Stanthorpe at its heart.

The region is a veritable platter of culinary delights; its granite-based soils and cool climate provide a rich bounty for lovers of wine and quality produce.

Leeanne Puglisi-Gangemi was born and raised in Stanthorpe, and believes that the mountain climate is a big drawcard for visitors from the coast. "We're sitting at around 1000m above sea level here," Leeanne said. "We're so close to Brisbane, and yet climatically we're so different. This morning it was below zero degrees!"

Lots of different kinds of vegetables and fruit are grown in the area, including apples, strawberries, tomatoes, cabbages and broccoli, as well as being famous for its wine. The local vineyards offer a range of white and red varieties – from sauvignon blanc, chardonnay and verdelho to merlot, cabernet sauvignon, tempranillo and more.

Leeanne's great-grandfather started growing grapes in the area in the early 1930's, and since then, her family have been the proud owners of the Ballandean Estate Winery. "In 1968, my parents, Angelo and Mary, started growing commercially to produce table wines. We opened the cellar door in 1970, and we've been open to the public every day since then."

A highlight for wine-loving visitors is the 'Strange Bird' wine trail, which features up to twenty-eight rare varieties of wine for connoisseurs and wine-buffs to experience.

However, even if you are a tee-totaller, there are good reasons to visit the area.

"Our national parks are so spectacular; Girraween particularly, because of the granite pyramids which visitors are always amazed by; they're gigantic, beautiful and unique. They're a very special part of the region, and then we have the added bonus of the great food and wine culture!" Leeanne told us.

Take your palate on a weekend of discovery, just a few hours drive away in the Granite Belt, your taste buds will thank you!

Plastic Free Parties

Story Suzi O'Shea

Apart from being expensive, occasionally bringing home gastro and depriving you of six years of sleep, kids are bad for the environment.

It wasn't until my family came back from Sydney at Christmas time, that I realised how much junk we had accumulated. I went 'Marie Kondo' on our house and filled an entire wheelie bin with random Lego pieces, happy meal toys, jigsaw puzzle pieces and broken parts of a baby rattle (my youngest is three years old). I was horrified by how much rubbish we had. Most of which was cheap, plastic junk.

It was then that I took a proactive approach to what comes in to our house. My kids didn't even notice that I had thrown out half of their belongings. I certainly didn't replace any of it. From now on, any presents, treats or random purchases will be books, clothes or experiences. They can have the occasional toy if they are desperate for it. I'm not a monster. I'm just far more aware of the ecological impact I have as a parent.

My eldest started school this year and has already been to so many parties. Almost every time she has come back with a goodie bag. A bag filled with gifts to say thanks for coming to my party. To be honest, I didn't even know it was a thing. I figured you put on a party and your guests are grateful for the food. Times have changed.

So obviously my child wants to give her friends a goodie bag. A plastic bag filled with plastic toys, plastic stamps or plastic bubble wands. I flat out refused. Instead, I went down to Redcliffe Garden Centre and asked about affordable plants that kids can care for.

My kid will probably hate me, and I may scar her for life, but the kids at her party will be leaving with a tiny lavender seedling to nurture as a way to say 'thanks for coming'. It may teach them to love gardening, who knows? All I know is that it's better for the environment and guilt free on my part.

X-MEN: DARK PHOENIX

The X-MEN face their most formidable and powerful foe: one of their own, Jean Grey. During a rescue mission in space, Jean is nearly killed when she is hit by a mysterious cosmic force. Once she returns home, this force not only makes her infinitely more powerful, but far more unstable.

ROOF RESTORATIONS

Transform your tired old roof with a value boosting makeover

Full Roof Restorations From only $2,000

- Replace Broken Tiles
- High Pressure Clean
- Re-bed Ridge Capping (if required)
- Re-point Ridge Capping
- Sterilise Surface (if required)
- Apply Primer/Sealer
- Apply New Roof Membrane (2 coats)

All roofs age over time. After around 15 years, tile roofs deteriorate to the point where a restoration should be considered. At this age, colour starts to fade, ridge capping becomes brittle, lichen and mould can grow, and tiles become harder to clean. The appearance of your home suffers and your roof is more likely to develop leaks.

Richard Gabriel from Mr Highlights Roofing has over 20 years experience in the roofing trade. He uses only premium quality products for his restorations, and offers a full 10 year warranty on all workmanship and materials.

Richard is an owner/operator and doesn't employ salespeople, so costs are kept to a minimum which means savings for you!

What's new in hearing aids in 2019?

Phonak's (Swiss) Audeo Marvel was released in late 2018. Being the only hearing aid with Bluetooth connectivity to any mobile phone and other devices, it's sure to be a popular choice. This second-generation Lithium-ion rechargeable technology has dramatically increased the battery life and streaming time. Listen to TV with exceptionally clear sound and with minimal background noise distraction with an additional TV streamer.

The Oticon (Denmark) Opn S, recently launched in April 2019, is the enhanced version of the Opn model hearing aid, which has been an outstanding success since 2017. Its new Velox S processor platform delivers +6dB with bold claims of delivering 15% improved speech understanding, 10% reduced listening effort and 10% increased memory recall than its predecessor.

Combining high performance speech management, connectivity to Apple (instead of android) mobile phones and Lithium-ion recharging technology, is the beautifully designed Styletto Connect hearing aid by Signia, previously known as Siemens (Germany). If you prefer a mini-ear canal style hearing aid, then the Insignia Nx is a great option.

What's the best hearing aid for you?

With so many hearing aid brands and products, the answer is not that simple. With every manufacturer offering something a little different, you need the advice of an audiologist who knows and understands the pros and cons of each hearing aid and how their processors behave both in 'quiet' and in 'noise'. At Sandgate Hearing, we combine the results of the comprehensive hearing test, your age, dexterity and hearing lifestyle needs to make a recommendation that is just right for you.

"A Significant Change in my life..."

I've had hearing problems all my life, but 2 years ago, my work changed and I found it more difficult to hear.

Over the last few weeks I've had a free trial of hearing aids from Ronnie at Sandgate Hearing and I've noticed a significant change in my life.

My wife has noticed a huge difference. I'm very happy.

David Stagg – Warner

What clients say about us

LYRIC has made my life much easier...

While caring for my husband who had Parkinson disease. I didn't have the time to fiddle with external hearing aids. After reading about the Lyric, I went into the clinic to check it out and I walked out being able to hear clearly. I'm so grateful that my doctor suggested I call Sandgate Hearing. I have found Ronnie Lam to be caring and there is no time limit. There is no pressure to be in and out in a hurry and Ronnie makes sure you're absolutely satisfied before you leave. Even though Lyric is not for everyone, if it is for you, you won't be disappointed. It has made my life so much easier and my life has changed dramatically.

Jean Conneman – Newport Waterways

"Very Happy with my new hearing aids!"

I think Sandgate Hearing is a great clinic! Ronnie is very efficient and the admin staff are really friendly. I'm very happy with my new hearing aids!
