ANITA EAST

MEDISPA

As a Nurse Practitioner of cosmetic injectables and aesthetic medicine, Anita East, BSc, MA, MSN, has now performed more than 18,000 treatments on people worldwide. Anita is a resident writer for The Cosmetic Surgery Magazine and is often called upon to present at cosmetic medicine conferences throughout Australia.

On originally developing a foundation in cardiac medicine, Anita decided to move to the UK and follow her dream of performing and the arts. Alongside furthering her career in cardiac medicine and dermatology, she studied and sang with English National Opera and completed a Master of Acting at Central School of Speech and Drama. Anita worked as a TV presenter for Sky Sports and the BBC, and did acting stints in The Bill, Neighbours and Offspring. She performed in various films, TV commercials and West End theatre productions.

TREATMENTS
PERFORMED

It was actually on a filmset 15 years ago that saw Anita in the hair and makeup department overhearing a tense conversation between the director and makeup artist. The lead actress had turned up on the first day of the film shoot with grossly overfilled lips and a completely frozen and expressionless face. Anita vowed on that day to make it better. To somehow make cosmetic injectables look natural rather than scary and overdone, which thanks to reality TV, was just starting to become the rage. She set out on her mission as soon as the film shoot wrapped 6 weeks later.

Anita is known for creating Beautiful Unique Faces™ rather than the grossly overfilled and frozen faces that sadly, are becoming commonplace.

Cast of Redcliffe Musical Theatre's production of Mamma Mia!

Story Sally Eberhardt

Redcliffe Musical Theatre proudly presents Mamma Mia! and promises an uplifting experience full of fun, laughter and maybe a few tears. Twenty-two iconic ABBA hits are scattered throughout this glorious musical.

Madeleine Johns, president of Redcliffe Musical Theatre, said the show had great singing, great dancing, and a feel-good happy story based on a situation we are all familiar with – a wedding.

"Mamma Mia! is one of the world's most loved musicals – it's happy, vibrant, and who doesn't love ABBA," Madeleine said.

"Audiences will experience sheer joy, high energy, and a nostalgic glimpse into the past through the ABBA sound-track.

"The set will be a high point of the production – we are building this ourselves."

Mamma Mia! is set on a small Greek island where Sophie dreams of a perfect wedding, including her father giving her away. Sophie's quest to discover the identity of her father brings three men from her mother Donna's past back to the island they last visited 20 years ago – and mayhem ensues.

The Redcliffe Musical Theatre cast of Mamma Mia! has a stellar line-up:

Meg Kiddle brings her own magic to the role of Donna through her great vocals and delightful stage presence.

Sophie is played by Georgia Burnett, whose powerhouse vocals and effervescence bring the main character to life. Georgia has just returned from a year-long stint working for Disney in the US.

Charlie Harrison is the charismatic performer playing Sam, and Matt Leigh uses his rich vocals to delightfully portray Sky.

David O'Keeffe plays Harry, and James Reid plays Bill – both are RMT regulars that audiences love to see on stage.

Madeleine said volunteers were welcome to help "behind the scenes" on costumes, props, make-up or front-of-house. For further information, contact info@redcliffemusicaltheatre.com.

Come along to the celebration of love, laughter, family and friendship that is Mamma Mia!

KATE STREET Markets

Organiser Kylie Pipitolu, owner of Hair Pro Hair Co.

Story Nadia Chapman

Local businesses, crafts, and other goodies will be on show again this month at the burgeoning Kate Street Markets.

Inspired by the well-known Redcliffe markets, the Kate Street Markets are held at Woody Point. Local businesses and residents are encouraged to get involved.

Organiser Kylie Pipitolu said the event was a place to give small businesses a chance to show off what they had to offer.

"The main purpose of our Kate Street Markets is to also show the locals what our little corner on the Peninsula has to offer too," she said.

The markets are held regularly every three months, so there's always a space for different stallholders each time.

"We are always looking for stallholders for our future events, as no two markets are the same," Kylie said.

You don't have to necessarily own a small business to be a part of the Kate Street Markets either — all you need is a hobby and a passion.

Locals can easily get involved, simply by having pre-loved clothes, a food trailer, or handmade goodies.

However, Kylie said it was also a great avenue to promote your local business.

"All local businesses are encouraged to hold a stall to promote their small business amongst our beautiful shops," she said. "We love to hear from everyone, even if you are a singer or own a dog wash trailer – everyone is welcome."

Some of the stalls in the previous markets have included handmade bags, hair-styling stalls, food trailers, coffee stations, face painting, and live music.

Kylie said it was important to encourage Peninsula locals to visit and support their local businesses – and a small street corner marketplace was the best way to do this.

For more information and for stallholder inquiries, visit Kate Street Corner Markets' Facebook page.

Clean Up Australia Day

Story Nadia Chapman

Join your local community, school or youth group for Clean Up Australia Day, to help preserve our stunning Peninsula.

This year, we celebrate the 30th National Clean Up Australia Day, where local volunteers from all age groups will help clean up our beaches, bushland and waterways.

Clean Up Australia chair Pip Kiernan said that if you'd never participated in a Clean Up event before, it was very easy for locals to get involved.

"People can search the Clean Up map for sites in their area, and can register as a volunteer online," she said.

All Clean Up information is easily accessible, and this year the Moreton Bay Region has more than 50 registered sites.

Some of these sites include Redcliffe, Kippa-Ring, Clontarf, and Woody Point.

However, if you can't make it to a Clean Up, Pip encourages donations to support a clean Australia every day.

"Funds raised through donations are allocated to the provision of educational resources and clean up materials provided free of charge to the community."

Craig Martin and his Big Swing Band.

Twist, Shout, Swing

Story Linda Read

What happens when you mix the legendary lyrics of The Beatles with the smooth sounds of swing, jazz, and a big band?

It's The Beatles Swing – show critics have described it as “Bublé meets the Beatles”, fronted by ultra-cool crooner, Craig Martin.

Craig and his eight-piece Big Swing Band will perform their out-of-the-box take on Beatles classics at the Redcliffe Entertainment Centre. Craig describes the show as having a “contemporary swing and a very modern sound”.

“I haven’t turned the songs on their head, they’re recognisable, but they’ve just got this swing jazz tweak to them, which people find interesting,” he said.

Craig was born and raised in Liverpool, England, but his connection with the Fab Four goes much deeper than that. His “music education” was listening to his mum’s Beatles records in the 70s and 80s, which taught him how to play the guitar and harmonise. Soon, he was performing in public.

“The Beatles were a massive influence – as a teenager I performed in clubs where they played,” he said.

“You get chills down your spine, thinking ‘my God, John Lennon sang on this stage’.”

Last year, Craig returned to perform at the famous Cavern Club in Liverpool, where The Beatles were discovered, describing the experience as “just fantastic”.

He’s also toured with the legendary Gerry Marsden – of Gerry and the Pacemakers fame – who was good mates with Beatles members and had a few stories to tell.

“I used to ask Gerry questions that no-one else would ask him, so I’ve got this great bag of stories and I put a few of them in the show,” Craig said.

In the 90s, he discovered his love of a new style of music when he began performing with some small swing bands. He went on to sing with the famous Syd Lawrence Orchestra in the UK.

The Beatles Swing show combines Craig’s love of The Beatles and swing music – a cool new take on some of the world’s best loved classics.

OAM MEDAL FOR REDCLIFFE SONGWRITER

The patriotic music and poems of Redcliffe's Valerie Dawson have been recognised with a Medal of the Order of Australia (OAM). The talented 86-year-old recently received the OAM for her amazing contribution to Australia's performing arts as a singer and songwriter.

For more than 35 years, Valerie has been writing songs and poetry celebrating Australian culture, its places and people, as well as the nation's outstanding achievements in sport and global events. Her poetry includes tributes to Australian icons such as former Prime Minister Bob Hawke, and long-distance runner Ron Grant.

*OAM recipient
Valerie Dawson*

Valerie's passion for songwriting ignited in 1983 when racing yacht Australia II won the America's Cup for the Royal Perth Yacht Club.

"When we heard Australia had won, my husband suggested I write a song about it," Valerie said. "So I wrote one ... while I was doing the washing."

Valerie's America's Cup Waltz was the first of many inspiring songs and poems written in tribute to milestone moments and events in Australia's history.

Through her creative work, the mother of five and wife to the late Donald Dawson, has captured everything from the National Servicemen's Association of Australia's 50th anniversary, to the 2000 Sydney Olympics, the Queen's Diamond Jubilee in 2012 through to the 2018 Gold Coast Commonwealth Games.

As well as being formally recognised with an OAM, Valerie's work has been preserved in the National Archives of Australia. The keen writer also has two poems, Our Star Black Caviar and One in a Million Winx, on display at The Australian Racing Museum and Hall of Fame in Flemington.

Adding to her impressive portfolio of work, Valerie recently had a book of poems published called A Collection of Poetic Gems.

As well as capturing great moments from the past, Valerie said her work was a way of keeping memories alive for the younger generation and her family. "I like writing and I wanted to do it for future generations, so they can see what we achieved in that era," Valerie said.

The Redcliffe writer will be officially awarded her OAM at a special ceremony at the heritage-listed Government House in Paddington, Brisbane.

Cliff to Club Ocean Swim, hosted by Grimsey's Adult Swimfit, to be held on Saturday, 28 March, is expected to attract around 600 entrants this year, the second time for the annual event.

Grimsey's Adult Swimfit director Ridge Grimsey said last year's event attracted local, interstate, and international participants, and many ages and abilities were represented.

"We have a massive range of competitors," he said.

"Our youngest competitor last year was eight, and our oldest was 72."

Ridge said the iconic feature event on the day was the 2.5km ocean swim, from Scotts Point to Suttons Beach. There will also be a 1km and a 500m swim. First, second, and third place winners will receive a prize, and random prize draws will feature on the day.

Redcliffe Surf Club will be catering for hungry swimmers, with a barbecue, and coffee trucks will be on site.

Meet Kelly Rimmer, Best-Selling Author

Story Jodie Woodward

Readers of historical and contemporary fiction are in for a treat at Moreton Bay Libraries Meet the Author program this month. Best-selling women's fiction author Kelly Rimmer will visit Redcliffe library to discuss her new novel, Truths I Never Told You.

Kate Shaw, senior media and communications officer for Moreton Bay Regional Council, said the author events drew audiences from across the region and beyond to gives audiences the opportunity to meet authors of all genres, listen to their stories, and discover stories hidden between the lines.

"This will be a wonderful opportunity for audiences to meet one of Australia's most successful authors, learn more about the person behind the book, and what has motivated her hugely successful storylines," Kate said.

Kelly's latest release and sixth published novel, Truths I Never Told You, is a heart-tugging story of family secrets, motherhood and marriage. Kelly's other releases include the wildly successful Before I Let You Go, Me Without You and The Secret Daughter. Her novels have been translated into more than 20 languages.

"Every one of my novels deals with a unique scenario – sometimes contemporary, sometimes historical," Kelly said. "This is my third historical fiction novel."

Although based in rural NSW, Kelly is no stranger to the Redcliffe Peninsula and is looking forward to heading north to talk about her latest novel and her writing process with Queensland readers.

"My sister lives at Petrie, and when I visit her, Redcliffe is one of our favourite spots to go together," she said. "We love the Rustic Olive and taking our kids to the lagoon. It's such a beautiful part of the world and I can't wait to return."

"I'll talk about this new book, as well as the inspiration behind it and my research and writing process. I'll also take questions from the audience."

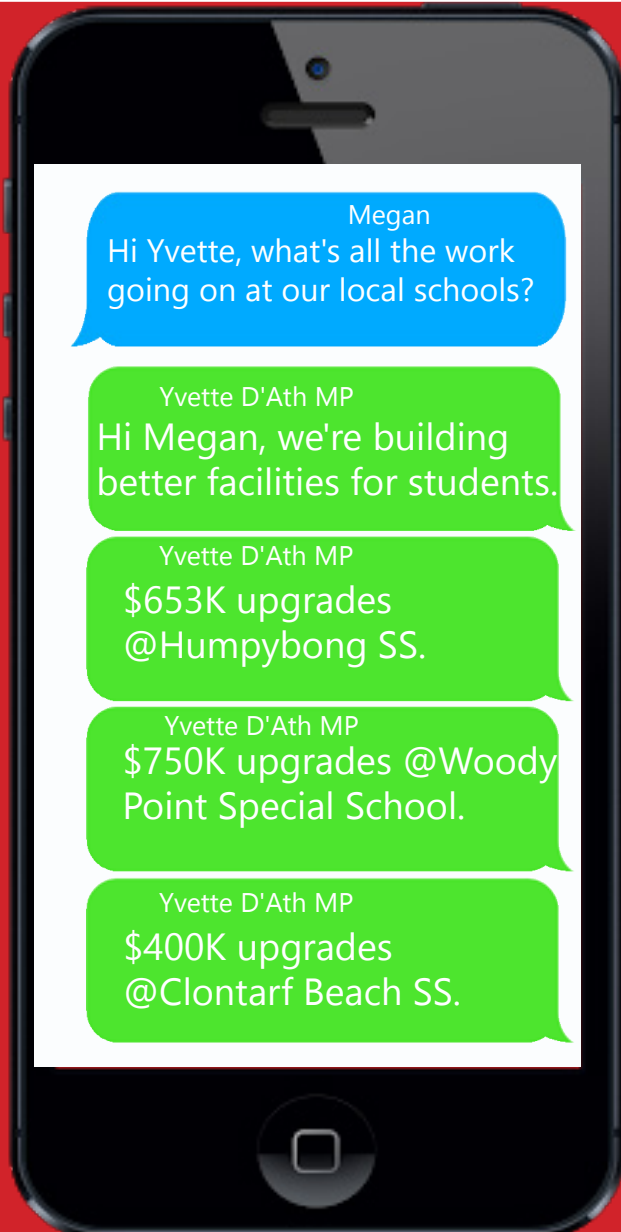

These popular library events are free, but don't forget to book as there are limited places and events book out quickly. Visit www.moretonbay.qld.gov.au for more information.

Quota International of Redcliffe Inc is commemorating a quarter of a century for its annual International Women's Day Breakfast. The 25th Anniversary International Women's Day Breakfast will feature a fantastic array of food and speakers.

Quota International of Redcliffe vice president Avril Kent said the event had a strong pedigree of attracting great speakers. "We have a cooked breakfast served to the table and then we have our speaker Jessica Balfour-Ogilvie, who is Clinical Manager, Listening and Spoken Language at the Hear and Say Centre in Ashgrove," she said. "Jessica is one of the recipients of the 2019 Quota South Pacific Area Scholarship."

Avril said attendees could expect a compelling morning of conversation with a range of people from the community.

"There will be a raffle of course, and a lucky door prize, but the main attraction is the interaction around the room and the speaker," she said. "All proceeds will go to support children with hearing and speaking difficulties."

Local Dancers Head to Dublin

This year marks the 50th World Irish Dancing Championships in Dublin, where dancers from all over the world will compete. Local dance school, Scoil Ard Rince, will be there too, with two teams and eight solo dancers.

Breeda Peirce, principal teacher at Scoil Ard Rince, said competing was the ultimate test for Irish dancers and the toughest competition worldwide of any Irish dance organisation.

" To qualify and compete for Queensland and Australia is always the ultimate goal for Irish dancers," Breeda said.

Scoil Ard Rince commenced classes on the Redcliffe Peninsula in 1991. Now in its 30th year, it's one of Australia's and Queensland's most successful Irish dance schools, providing Irish dance classes at all levels from preschool to open championship level. Many dancers from the school have gone on to tour with the major dance shows of Riverdance, Celtic Fyre, and Rhythms of Ireland, both in Australia and overseas.

Fundraising has begun to help students who have qualified for the world championships make it to Dublin. Fundraising efforts so far have included a trivia night on 15 February, where everyone got a team together to enjoy a fun night out while helping to support the Scoil Ard Rince dancers.

Corporate donations and sponsorship are also welcome. "We have a fundraising package, which allows businesses to help us financially or they can donate raffle prizes to our fundraising trivia night," Breeda said. "We are open to all sponsorship and are very happy to provide dance displays in return for sponsorship from any business."

The world championships will take place in early April and competition progress and results of the local dancers will be available on the Scoil Ard Rince Facebook page.

Breeda said the benefits of Irish dance extended beyond competition entry and people of all ages and abilities were welcome to give it a try.

"Dancers develop strong friendships and senior dancers become positive mentors for the younger ones," she said. "The overall Irish dance community is a very inclusive and supportive one."

Visit www.brisbaneirishdancing.com.au or go to the Scoil Ard Rince Facebook page for more information.

CHAMBER CHAT

with Brad Flynn

The Year of Opportunity for Peninsula Small Businesses

Our first event for 2020 was a huge success. It was attended by almost 60 local business owners to hear our panel speak on the opportunities for Peninsula small businesses.

Our panelists were Chamber of Commerce and Industry Queensland CEO Stephen Tait, President of the Brisbane Junior Chamber of Commerce Nathan Schokker, and Director of Open Architecture and the Moreton Maritime Alliance Michael Bailey.

With three very different viewpoints, yet all with the common goal of building more successful small businesses, the answers were varied and eye opening with the audience deeply engaged.

Some of the biggest opportunities from our panelists included this being a year for local and state elections, and for our members and business owners to clearly articulate what they want from our representatives. In particular, the opportunity presented by Moreton Bay Strategic Plan for Redcliffe. This includes requesting masterplans be carried out for Scarborough Harbour and the Woody Point foreshore, enhanced jetty and pontoon facilities, barge and ferry facilities, a centre for ocean robotics and research, and even ocean baths.

The more 'outside the box' ideas the panelists discussed were finding ways to make the Peninsula completely self-sufficient from a power perspective through solar panels; changing the current government grant focus into a venture capital scheme funded by the government but administered by venture capitalists; and free high speed internet for everyone.

The key theme that came through from all the panelists was around that of coming together and collaborating more as a community, in particular with the millennial and emerging generations.

History has shown that every generation has had an issue with the younger generation coming through – why not make this a different paradigm and find a way to understand each other and work together?

Our next event is on Tuesday 3 March from 6-8pm upstairs at Mon Komo.

This will be our Meet the Candidates event, an opportunity for local businesses to find out more about what the candidates' policies around small business as well as the future direction the council will be heading on various issues.

Why you need to focus on the questions, not the answers, as a business owner.

More often than not when we are faced with a challenge in our business, we get fixated on finding the answer to our challenges. If you think about it though, it's the question just before we get the answer that gives us the breakthrough we need.

One of the things I focus on with my clients is teaching them how to ask great questions. In fact, I get them to set aside 30-60 minutes a week to take time and think about certain questions.

Here are some questions for you try out some think-time with.

- What would you need to provide to your clients so they would be crazy to ever want to leave you?
- What if every client who bought from you in the past, still did. How do you make that happen?
- If you were to become a global leader for just one of your products or services, what would it be and why?

CHRIS CAMPBELL
Principal

Southern Cross Catholic College

In 2020, Southern Cross Catholic College celebrates the 25th Anniversary of the formation of the College, where we recognise not only the achievements of the past two and a half decades but also the rich history which creates the tapestry of our College. The Lasallian theme for this year of "great things are possible" presents a challenge to all students. To do great things and to be great is our goal. I wish our students and staff every success for the year.

FAMILY fiesta!

International Food Trucks, Animal Farm & Live Music.

Get your tastebuds ready for a delectable spread of international cuisine and your dancing shoes on for an awesome display of live music at the annual Family Fiesta.

Hosted by Metro North Hospital and Health Service on Saturday 21 March, at the Redcliffe Showgrounds, the Family Fiesta is an annual community event that celebrates Harmony Day.

Harmony Day is recognised nationally on 21 March and started in 1999. The event coincides with the United Nations International Day for the Elimination of Racial Discrimination. Each year, the date is marked by people coming together, celebrating and participating in local activities.

Redcliffe's Family Fiesta kicks off at 11am and visitors can expect an array of international food trucks, an animal farm, face painting, live music and acts from a range of multicultural performers as well as workshops.

Metro North Chief Executive Shaun Drummond said the event was part of Metro North's Values in Action program, which celebrated the organisation's people-oriented values, enabled staff to have fun together and encouraged the community to participate in and enjoy the festivities.

"Each year Family Fiesta brings together our community to enjoy and experience the sights, sounds and tastes from around the globe," Mr Drummond said.

"To honour Harmony Day this year we are putting on a great day of entertainment and activities for the whole family. This is an opportunity for everyone to celebrate our region's multiculturalism and a time for us to reflect on the diverse community that helps to make us the biggest and best hospital and health service."

Mr Drummond said the well-being of its staff and the community was a high priority for Metro North Hospital and Health Service.

"We pride ourselves on fostering a work culture that supports not only staff well-being and a good work-life balance, but also creates a friendly and engaging relationship with our community," he said.

"We had a great response to Family Fiesta last year and I'm very pleased to say that this one will be our biggest and best yet, so come and join us."

A WORD FROM OUR REPRESENTATIVES

Cr Koliana Winchester

It has been a privilege and an honour to represent the great people and beautiful community of the Redcliffe Peninsula, on both Redcliffe City Council and Moreton Bay Regional Council.

To retire is not an easy decision. But it's time to move on to the next chapter of my life and spend more time with my husband Bill and my loving family and grandchildren.

I have advocated on behalf of residents regarding planning and development issues and I have also spent this time supporting our community more broadly. From rolling out thousands of metres of accessible footpaths to the establishment of the Old Fire Station gallery and volunteers hub. The greatest projects in my mind are the ones that enhance our environment, such as healthy waterways initiatives at Humpybong Creek and Bells Creek, alongside Council's contribution to the Hays Inlet Eco Path.

You will keep seeing me around the Peninsula and I give my heartfelt gratitude to those who have overwhelmingly supported my candidacy over the years. Redcliffe continues to grow into an increasingly vibrant and supportive community, the best place to live, work, and for me, to enjoy retirement. Thank you.

Yvette D'Ath MP

With numerous sporting and recreational groups conducting sign-on days it has been pleasing to see continued strong participation by locals in all facets Redcliffe community life. Our Redcliffe not-for-profit organisations and their volunteers contribute greatly to our community and many have been strongly supported by the Palaszczuk Government's Gambling Community Benefit Fund (GCBF).

I am therefore delighted that a further six organisations shared $82,000 under the latest GCBF funding round. The successful organisations are Moreton Bay Film Creators' Network, the Redcliffe Branch Little Athletics Centre, Redcliffe Environmental Forum, Redcliffe Leagues Netball Association, Redcliffe Peninsula Lapidary Club and the Redcliffe Tennis Association.

I really look forward to visiting those groups to see first-hand how the GCBF funding has enabled them to further support our local Redcliffe community.

Applications for the next round of the GCBF funding are now open to community-based, not-for-profit organisations and can deliver grants from $500 to $35,000 for worthwhile projects. If your community group has a project in mind, the Gambling Community Benefit Fund wants to hear from you.

Luke Howarth MP

Even though we haven't experienced bushfires locally, it's clear to me that residents care about how the Government is assisting bushfire affected communities.

Recently I hosted the Minister for Natural

Disaster and Emergency Management, David Littleproud, at a forum to explain the Government's $2 billion Bushfire Recovery Fund, which includes:

- ADF personnel working in response to the fires since September 2019
- $76 million tourism recovery package to protect jobs, small businesses and local economies;

- Grants of up to $75,000 for primary producers directly impacted by bushfires;

- Payments of $1000 for adults and $400 for dependents who have experienced injury, death of an immediate family member, destroyed home or significant damage to assets;

- $50 million for the Bushfire Wildlife Habitat Recovery Package for animal carers;

- Assistance to volunteer firefighters, small businesses, and mental health support.

I'd like to thank the ADF personnel, reservists, RFS, volunteer fire fighters, and our local groups and community members for their generosity and fundraising efforts.

For more information about the Government's Bushfire Assistance Package call my office on 3284 8008.

Story Nadia Chapman

Local wine lovers will be treated to the tasting of award-winning Robert Channon wines at the Jumping Goats Bar this month.

The event will be held on Wednesday 11 March and will include some of the finest wines to date.

Co-owner of the Jumping Goats Bar Peta Thames said the event would be very exciting as Robert Channon would also be coming down to talk about his wines.

"Jumping Goats Bar makes a point of showcasing small, independent, and local businesses, so we are delighted to host this event," Peta said.

Tickets are essential and cost $29, which includes tasting a wide range of wines, and a cheese platter from Stanthorpe Cheese and Jersey Girls Café.

Later this month, Redcliffe Peninsula locals have the opportunity to see soul rockers, The Badloves live at the Redcliffe Leagues Club on 20 March.

This unique experience will be performed for free at the Legends Lounge from 9 pm.

Redcliffe Leagues Club coordinator Daniel Kelly said locals were in for some great live Aussie music that sounds of soul-rock and R'n'B.

"They are pretty unique, and it's a real treat to have The Badloves come out to the Peninsula," Daniel said. "The band has only recently gotten back together and started producing new music, so we are pretty excited to host them."

Before we roll into April, Redcliffe Encircle and Pilpel are teaming up to organise their second 'Welcome to Redcliffe' dinner event on 26 March.

This event is complete with a huge buffet, courtesy of Pilpel, with local entertainment and fascinating folklore that surrounds Redcliffe.

Pilpel owner Adiel Karmona said the event was a great place to meet Peninsula newcomers and connect with locals.

"As someone who came to Redcliffe 13 years ago, I was welcomed by the community and want to do the same for newcomers," Adiel said.

Encircle is also a fantastic organisation who does a great job supporting Redcliffe.

Tickets are essential. Find out more via Facebook by searching 'Welcome to Redcliffe Dinner Event 2020.'

MUSIC SPOTLIGHT

MISS ELM: MUSIC ACROSS THE EAST COAST

Story Nadia Chapman

At just six years of age, Erin Harrington began her musical journey with classical violin lessons. Now, she's touring the East Coast and making waves with her unique sound.

Erin Harrington, also known as her stage name 'Miss Elm', brought her unique sound to Redcliffe's shores in mid-2019.

"I've only recently started playing around Redcliffe, but I love the community and the great venues it has to offer," Erin said.

"I have played some live performances on 99.7 Bridge FM, [and] the Jumping Goats Bar has a great vibe."

Being a shy child growing up in a creative household, Erin believed that using music as a tool of self-expression was important for growth and confidence.

She also had access to many different instruments that she could practise self-expression through.

// I think that's the reason I started [my career in music] — to freely express my emotions and understand myself, and I truly think that music is the best tool for that," Erin said.

Apart from playing various gigs around Brisbane, Erin recently released her EP titled The Shape of Light, which took her on a tour of the East Coast including Sydney, Byron, Brisbane, Ipswich and the Sunshine Coast.

Erin conducts workshops, private tuition and songwriting lessons, and has also created the 'Ukulele Rockers' — a class of 20 students with a shared love of music.

She counts this achievement as one of her proudest - along with the live music experiences she loves.

"Playing live on ABC Radio was an amazing experience," she said. "I've also had the pleasure of being a finalist in the Queensland Music Awards, played on big stages at The Sunshine Coast Ukulele Festival and Caloundra Music Festival as well."

Erin will be playing a free gig at the Jumping Goats Bar on 8 March.

StrEAT Easy Opens World Of Flavour

The recently opened StrEat Easy Diner and Bar at Deception Bay is a smorgasbord of restaurant quality offerings at foodtruck prices, with something for everyone.

Dylan Pires, of renowned food truck King of the Wings and one of the main collaborators on the StrEAT Easy project, said they wanted to create something new for the northside that offered variety and fantastic flavours under one roof, accompanied by local craft beers and ciders.

"When the opportunity came to create a venue that was sheltered and air-conditioned, our team jumped at it," Dylan said.

"Our vendors include food truck favourites That Greek Truck Pitstop, offering delicious souvlaki wraps and open grills; Flavours of Eataly, with their chef-made lasagne, pastas and pizza pockets; and Yo-Get-It, a self-serve frozen yogurt bar with amazing toppings."

Not to be forgotten are King of the Wings' own award-winning Buffalo chicken wings.

Another fun feature is Yo-Guess-It: your frozen yoghurt is free if you guess its correct weight.

Plans are already underway to expand with more seating, parking and food options to tantalise the tastebuds of the whole family.

StrEAT Easy is at 378 Deception Bay Rd, Deception Bay and is open 11am-9pm, Wednesday to Sunday.

An Artist's Adventure Into Self

Margate artist Monica Batiste has been painting as long as she can remember.

"I loved drawing as a child, so my pursuit of art has been a natural progression," Monica said.

Recently she completed a 1.8m portrait of Redcliffe movie producer and author Richard Lancaster. Monica entitled the work 'The Storyteller. Portrait of Richard Lancaster'.

"I chose Richard for my subject as he is a catalyst for promoting the arts in Redcliffe, and encouraging artists to strive for excellence. He is also an artist himself," she said.

A ghostly image of Queensland's longest serving premier, the late Sir Joh Bjelke-Petersen, appears in the portrait's background.

"Richard developed a Queensland celebrity management agency 'Frontline Celebrities' in the 1980s and Sir Joh was his last client," Monica said. "Richard assisted him as a client during the tumultuous Fitzgerald Inquiry."

Monica said her painting process usually began with a lot of sketches and interviews. "I learn a lot about my subject this way," she said.

She describes her style as traditional with "contemporary fantasy realism".

I've always loved traditional art, impressionism and post-impressionism. I try to stay true to myself by making the mark that needs to be made no matter how afraid I am to do it.

"The fantasy realism I include in my paintings is how I see things, or how I want to see the things that are around us," she said.

"Being an artist is an adventure into oneself and displaying that self for the world to see. Sometimes we are judged for not making the kind of art that others think we should, and sometimes we are misunderstood. But all of art is art, and everyone deserves the chance to be heard.

"I seek to paint people that have made a difference to the world."

Monica studied art at the Atelier in Brisbane and has a home studio/gallery in Margate where her work is on display. She is also an accomplished yoga instructor and an author of several books on the subject. Monica is working on several film projects as well.

You can find out more about Monica and her art at www.monicaBATISTEartist.com.au or via Facebook.

Netballers March into New Season

Redcliffe Leagues Netball Association will officially commence their 2020 season with a March Past to mark round one.

Competitions director at Redcliffe Leagues Netball Association (RLNA) Bianca Webb said the March Past was a traditional way of starting off the netball season.

"Every team marches past a tent of officials, where we usually have Luke Howarth MP, Yvette D'Ath MP, Bob Jones from Redcliffe Leagues Club and Cr Koliana Winchester," Bianca said.

"Some associations don't do it anymore, but we feel it's a real tradition and so we like to keep it going, as the teams have fun dressing up, making banners and having chants."

The RLNA is run by volunteers. There is an elected board with a branch structure rather than individual clubs. All branches have an appointed manager to liaise between the RLNA, players, coaches and parents.

There are approximately forty teams spread evenly across the branches. They consist of NetSetGO teams for girls and boys aged five to 10. The junior teams range in age from 11 to 17 years. The competition runs for 14 weeks with the grand finals commencing at the end of August.

The NetSetGO allows kids of all abilities to learn basic skills at their own pace, while being supported in a fun, safe and social environment. Juniors play in organised competitive matches where they also have fun and get active while making friends.

"We also have social netball on Wednesday nights for anyone aged from 18 to 99," Bianca said.

Due to the RLNA being a member of Brisbane North Region, there's a development pathway through the Brisbane North Cougars, for players showing ability and commitment. There are also rep squads that go to state and metropolitan carnivals.

Bianca said they were always chasing grants, but had received some grants recently with the help of one of the parents.

"We are also looking for new sponsorships from people who would like to support our association and for anyone who'd like to help out to get in touch," she said.

FIRST AID FOR YOUR PET

Redcliffe pet owners will have the opportunity to attend a first aid for pets course, conducted by the RSPCA, that aims to help you assist your pets with common emergencies. Learn how to recognise common illnesses and maintain safety while working with an injured pet. The course will be held at the Redcliffe Library on Tuesday 17 March. Bookings are required. Visit www.moretonbay.qld.gov.au for more information.

HEAVY RAIN FOR MORETON BAY

After another hot summer, the Peninsula was hit with a deluge of rain at the start of February. The rain was so heavy people took to social media to capture various moments of the event. The car park at the Redcliffe seafront, between the RSL and Pilpel, saw so much rain that the car park flooded, with water reaching the bottom of car doors. It was said to have cleared one or two hours later. The rain also increased the need for lawn mowing services, with many people asking for help to mow the grass growing wild in their yards.

FREE GROUP WALKS FOR YOU AND YOUR DOG

Are you looking to do more with your dogs? Maybe you'd like to raise funds for various dog rescue organisations, or you could simply want to get a little fitter?

Local dog trainer Kylie Barkla from Dog Bizness organises free regular group walks for both dogs and their humans. Most walks are open to any fitness level and dogs must be social and on a lead at all times to attend.

"We encourage fitness, responsible pet ownership, getting out and about and confidence-building with dogs and dog owners," Kylie said.

For more information about the group walk schedule or to book a free session, visit dogbizness.com.au.

REDCLIFFE IMPROV JAM

Edge Improv is holding an Improv Jam. This event is suitable for all skill levels. Come along to practise some Improv, try out some new games and have some fun. It's only a $10 donation to join in. Redcliffe Improv Jam will be held at the Redcliffe Library, 476 Oxley Avenue, Redcliffe on Sunday 15 March at 2pm.

HOUSE RULES ON THE PENINSULA

Cast members from the reality television show House Rules were spotted around the Peninsula in February. Lots of people reported seeing the cast members at Rothwell Officeworks, Bunnings, The Sebel in Margate and Dan Murphy's in Kippa-Ring. Social Media was playing an unofficial game of 'spot the marked cast cars' for more than a week. While some locals complained about congestion, many were excited to see a national television show in the local area. Some thought it would provide important attention for the area with one person saying, "The Peninsula is about to get some great publicity!" Others thought the local economy would benefit from the experience, with the cast members frequenting many local businesses during their stay.

Great Strides for Life

Story Linda Read

It's no secret that exercise is beneficial for everyone – but for some people, it is quite literally life-saving. Those people are the 3500 Australians who live with Cystic Fibrosis – our country's most common genetic chronic illness, for which there is no cure.

That's why Cystic Fibrosis Queensland is holding the Great Strides event on the Redcliffe foreshore on 14 March – a five kilometre fun run/walk aimed at raising money for the organisation, which funds research, advocacy, and support programs for people living with the illness.

Food trucks and coffee carts will also be on hand, and a yoga/pilates session will ensure participants are warmed up for the event.

Cystic Fibrosis Queensland CEO Petrina Fraccaro said Great Strides aimed to highlight the importance of exercise for people with Cystic Fibrosis, which affects mainly the lungs and airway passages.

"When you have Cystic Fibrosis, exercise is a critical part of your treatment, because it helps relieve the sticky mucus that lines your lungs, and you have to cough that up to help you breathe every day," Petrina said.

Single or team participants can register on the Cystic Fibrosis Queensland website.

For more information contact Cystic Fibrosis Queensland on 07 3359 8000 or email fundraising@cfqld.org.au.

All roofs age over time. After around 15 years, tile roofs deteriorate to the point where a restoration should be considered. At this age, colour starts to fade, ridge capping becomes brittle, lichen and mould can grow, and tiles become harder to clean. The appearance of your home suffers and your roof is more likely to develop leaks.

Richard Gabriel from Mr Highlights Roofing has over 20 years experience in the roofing trade. He uses only premium quality products for his restorations, and offers a full 10 year warranty on all workmanship and materials.

Richard is an owner/operator and doesn't employ salespeople, so costs are kept to a minimum which means savings for you!

- Mapping test to optimise your hearing aid performance
- Auditory training
- Guarantee that our devices help your hearing in noisy situations, or your money back
- Our low price policy
- Free hearing aid upgrade option for pensioners / DVAs

HERE IS WHAT SOME OF OUR HAPPY CUSTOMERS HAVE TO SAY...

The difference is amazing...

What a difference the adjustment made to my hearing aids...amazing! It's gone from good to excellent and that has certainly made me very happy. It's hard to believe that the companies that market the hearing aids won't adjust them to get the best out of them. No wonder so many people just put their hearing aids in a drawer and never use them. I am so appreciative of Ronnie's workmanship and professionalism and I want to let everyone know what a marvelous job he has done. Thanks once again.

Les Hills – Kallangur

I can hear distinct words now...

These are my first hearing aids and I'm extremely happy with them. Now I can hear distinct words on the TV which I couldn't hear before. I used to struggle to hear the Minister at church, but now I can hear him clearly too. I am so glad I went to Sandgate Hearing and I would highly recommend them to anyone with a hearing loss issue. The after care service is also very good.

Laura DeHann, Boondall

A Sound Experience that I have Never Before Felt....

I've had hearing problems for 40 years. With it slowly deteriorating, it was time something was done. Ronnie put me through the computerized hearing tests, showing I was profoundly deaf in one ear and severely impaired in the other. I've been fitted now with two inner ear aids. When activated, they actually work together to give me a sound experience I have never before felt. Many thanks to the crew at Sandgate Hearing. If you have hearing issues, see these guys.
